A LIBRARY OF SOUND.

COLLECTING NOISES IN HOLLYWOOD.

Hollywood has a private Tower of Babel, states Reuter. In it, at a moment's notice, harassed film directors can get any noise they want—from a hyena's laugh to the sound of a stage villain gnashing his teeth with rage. If the latest "baby star" refuses to cry to order, directors simply send for the "sound" librarian, who has a unique collection of baby's squawls, howls, yells, and whimpers—all perpetuated on a strip of film.

Sound libraries have become as important in the Hollywood scheme of things as the "film library," where a train wreck, war, or general cataclysm can be obtained in a few minutes. One studio has 8,000,000 feet of sound track—15,000 miles of it, or enough to run a motion picture sound projector continuously for 139 days and nights.

Each can in the long metal tiers of shelves is labelled, and occupies its correct alphabetical place. The "sound effects" range from the thunderous crash of falling walls to the soft squeak of padded feet stalking a haunted house.

The men who are assigned to collect and preserve these myriad noises are called "sound hunters." Patience, imagination, and luck must be combined with the abilities of a newspaper reporter, sleuth, sound technician and artist. After the sound hunter has gathered together the various sounds required by the technician the "mixing" takes place. A sound technician can take any number of different sound tracks, and re-record them on one piece of film.

COTTON SUBSTITUTE FOUND.

GERMANS WORKING ON YUCCA PLANT.

German Government experts have been ordered to examine the possibilities of exploiting yucca fibre as a substitute for cotton and jute, according to Reuter's Cologne correspondent.

Yucca is a fibrous plant, which has been evolved by Herr Berz, a gentleman farmer, at Oberstedten, in Hessen, during a period of several years. Herr Berz has taken out patents for his plant.

It is claimed for the yucca plant that it yields a fibre which may be applied to various purposes. Practical experiments so far have proved that the yarn produced is suitable for manufacturing packing threads, cordage, carpets, sackcloth, and even linen. The new yucca plant is already widely known, but it seems to be only recently that the German Government has become interested in it. It is said to be very easy to grow, and its cultivation would result in considerable employment, and profit for the agricultural industry.

A £16,000 FINE.

ECHO OF FINNISH FOREST FIRES.

One of the biggest fines in the history of Finland was passed on a farmer whose alleged carelessness resulted in a great tract of forest being destroyed in the recent fires which devastated Northern Finland.

He was sentenced to one year's imprisonment and fined £16,250 (the value of the timber burnt), states Reuter from Helsingfors.

For setting fire to the forests on five different occasions another man was sentenced to five years' hard labour, two years' loss of civil rights, and a fine of £4,800.

STOLE FOR FOOD.

BUT HAD £500 IN THE BANK.

When Thomas Roberts (47), a Grimsby fisherman, was charged at Grimsby yesterday with loitering in the market with intent, it was stated that an orange was found in his pocket and two purses at his lodgings, which he admitted stealing.

The Chief Constable said that documents found on Roberts showed that he had over £500 in the bank. Roberts said that he stole because he had had no food for two days.

The Chairman—Is it true about the money in the bank?—Yes.

Then why steal?—I had no money on me.

Roberts was fined £1, and given time to get the money out of the bank.

NUNS BARGAIN FOR YOUTH'S LIFE.

KIDNAPPED BY CHINESE BANDITS.

Night after night two Roman Catholic nuns are making dangerous trips through swamps to the lair of a Chinese bandit chief. They go to bargain for the release of a youth of 17 whom the bandits are holding to ransom.

This youth, whose name is Tanaeff, is an orphan (states Reuter from Harbin). He was a student at the Russo-Polish Institute, and was in charge of a picnicking party of seven girl students from this institute on the outskirts of the town. Suddenly Chinese kidnappers swooped down and captured them all. Six of the girls were released almost immediately, but Alla Mansevitch, who is only 11, and Tanaeff were taken to the bandits' stronghold.

During the night Alla was guarded by a Chinese woman. Next morning she was forced to watch Tanaeff being beaten and tortured by the bandits. She was then given a letter demanding a ransom of £1,600 for the release of the youth and escorted back to the town.

As Tanaeff is an orphan, and is being educated at the expense of the Polish Colony, two nuns from the Institute—ignoring the risk of being captured by other gangs of bandits in the district—bravely volunteered to negotiate with the bandit chief. They have to make their journeys at night, escorted by Chinese bandits, across boggy country, swarming with mosquitoes.

Since they have been unable to persuade the chief to release his captive without ransom, the nuns will now probably organise a concert in an effort to raise funds.

MANCHUKUO'S NEW CAPITAL.

TO COST TWO MILLION POUNDS.

Out of the little junction railway station of Hsinking, in Central Manchuria, will some day arise the new capital city of Manchukuo. To-day Hsinking is just a wayside station, states Reuter from Dairen; soon it will be a busy metropolis.

According to reports received here, nearly £2,000,000 will be spent in construction work. The Government of Manchukuo alone is planning to spend about £200,000 for the development of Hsinking. The amount includes £76,000 for public buildings, £50,000 for avenues and roads, £35,000 for water mains and £23,000 for sewerage, and £12,000 for parks and athletic fields.

The Kwantung Army intends to spend £160,000, while the Kwantung Government plans to build a new post office and other public edifices and residences for its officials, costing altogether £40,000. The South Manchuria Railway Co. and other large corporations and individuals are devoting nearly £500,000 in building work. Additional school buildings, new police stations, larger telephone and telegraph offices, a new Japanese Embassy and other items are estimated to cost altogether £117,000.

"HUSKIES" ON BYRD EXPEDITION.

BROUGHT SPECIALLY FROM LABRADOR.

Brought from their northern home in Labrador, 27 husky dogs passed through Quebec on the first stage of their journey to the Antarctic. They are going to Wanalascet, New Hampshire, where Rear-Admiral R. E. Byrd, the famous American Antarctic explorer, has established kennels to train dogs for his second expedition to the South Polar regions.

Admiral Byrd will take 75 of these dogs when he sets forth on October 1st from Boston, Massachusetts, to New Zealand.

Labrador huskies were chosen because of their ability to stand high temperatures, as well as the sub-zero weather of the Antarctic.

Three aeroplanes will be included in the freight to be shipped to New Zealand. Three other machines are now at Rockefeller Mountain in the South Polar regions. The expedition will be away for two years.

According to the Aftenposten, states Reuter from Oslo, the chief navigator of the Byrd Expedition will be Captain Johannesen. Three other Norwegians will also join the party.

MAN AND WIFE DEAD.

STORY OF UNHAPPY MARRIED LIFE.

A father, in a voice shaken with emotion, unfolded the story of his daughter's unhappy married life when giving evidence at the inquest at Wisbech, Cambridgeshire, yesterday, on Doris Florence Reeve (24), who was found stabbed to death on a footpath adjoining Wisbech Park, and her husband, Walter Reeve (26), of Low Side, Upwell, Norfolk, who was found hanging from a luggage rack in a railway carriage at Wisbech Station.

Alfred Albert Claude Reeve, of Clarence road, Wisbech, said that his daughter was married in January of last year, and there were no children. Her married life was not a happy one, and on June 23 this year she left her husband and came to live with her parents. The father alleged that Reeve ill-treated his wife and also misconducted himself. Divorce proceedings were being taken. On one occasion, he said, his daughter told him that Reeve loaded a double-barrelled gun and threatened to shoot her head off as well as his own.

After describing further incidents, the father declared: "He would bully things out and swear, and would not speak to you as man to man"

The mother of the dead man, in evidence, admitted that her son had a nasty temper at times, but said she did not know he and his wife were unhappy together.

A blood-stained hunting knife was produced in Court, and Dr. Butterworth, of Wisbech, said that the woman's wounds were probably caused by this weapon. The man's death was due to asphyxiation, caused by hanging.

Without calling further evidence, the Coroner adjourned the inquest until to-day.

DUBLIN DISTRICT COURT.

JUDGMENT RESERVED.

(BEFORE MR. M. J. HANNAN.)

Miss Edna Power, secretary of the Dublin Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, summoned Messrs. O'Neill, 4 Chatham street, for having permitted thirteen sheep, their property, to be "cruelly ill-treated and terrified by permitting other sheep to be slaughtered in their sight" at Clarendon Market, off Clarendon street. James Martin, 64 Mountjoy square, was also summoned in connection with the alleged offence.

Mr. A. E. Corbett (instructed by Messrs. W. G. Bradley and Son) appeared for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and Mr. E. H. Burne, solicitor, appeared for the defence.

Mr. A. E. Corbett said that the slaughterhouse in question was situated off Clarendon row. It was rather small, consisting of three apartments; one small, which would hold half a dozen sheep. The rest of the place was divided into two parts with a doorway, in which there was no door between them. Their case was that a butcher named Martin killed a sheep at the time that thirteen other sheep were in the same apartment, only four feet away, and that these sheep were terrified and ill-treated by the slaughter of a fellow-sheep in their presence.

Mr. E. H. Burne said that it was the first time anyone ever heard of such a charge.

Mr. Cecil Mulvey said that on the afternoon of the 7th June he was passing along the laneway in which Messrs. O'Neill's slaughterhouse is situated. The iron doorway was three-quarters open, and inside he saw a man, who afterwards gave the name of Martin, kneeling on a sheep. In a corner of the slaughterhouse witness saw a group of about a dozen sheep, all huddled together. The nearest was about four feet from the sheep being killed. They were all breathing heavily, and were trembling visibly.

Miss Power, secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, gave evidence of visiting the slaughterhouse, and of speaking to Martin, who gave what she described as a muddled explanation. She regarded it as amounting to cruelty to kill sheep in the presence and sight of their fellows. She did not know if sheep were colour-blind, but she believed they were sensitive to smell. When she saw the thirteen animals they looked frightened. She thought that the smell of fresh blood would terrify the sheep.

Mr. Burne asked witness if she knew if it was an offence to kill an animal in the presence of another in a "knacker's" yard, and Miss Power admitted that this was so

Witness further stated that when the Act of 1911 was being passed an attempt was made by a kindred society in England to get that section also applied to slaughter-houses, but that it was confined only to knackers' yards.

Mr. Heaney, veterinary surgeon, in evidence, expressed the opinion that to kill a sheep in the presence and sight of other sheep would terrify them, and would be an act of cruelty. He held the view that a sheep was a very much more intelligent animal than was commonly believed.

In evidence for the defence Mr. Arthur V. O'Neill, of the firm of Messrs. O'Neill, said that he held licences which showed that the place in question had been a slaughterhouse for a hundred years. There were from ten to fifteen sheep a day slaughtered there, and Martin, the butcher in question, was a skilled butcher. Martin, in fact, was the first man to use the humane killer in Dublin. He had used the humane killer earlier on the day in question, but had left it at the shop, and killed the two lambs referred to with the knife.

Witness stated the view that a sheep was the most stupid animal of the brute creation. He did not think that they were in any way affected unduly by the sight or smell of blood.

James Martin, the butcher, said he was a qualified butcher, and that usually he killed with the humane killer. He killed the lambs in question with a knife, as any butcher would do, but he denied lying on the animals.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF CAR.

TWO MEN CHARGED.

(BEFORE MR. McCARTHY.)

William J. Hoey (28), Rathlands House, Harold's Cross, a dairyman, and Richard Martin (20), a carpenter, of 6 Loretto terrace, Rathfarnham, where charged on remand with the larceny of a motor car, value £220, the property of Miss Molly Hourican, 81 Harold's Cross road.

Mr. John Hooper (instructed by Mr. L. Trant-McCarthy) appeared for Hoey; Mr. F. M. Duffy (instructed by Mr. T. R. Callan) for Martin; and Mr. John Moran, solicitor, for Miss Hourican.

Inspector M. Murphy put in evidence statements made by the defendants after arrest and caution. Hoey, in his signed statement, said that at about 11 p.m. on Saturday, 19th inst., he was with Richard Martin, and showed Martin a Standard saloon car which was garaged at Rathlands House in his (Hoey's) father's yard. Martin got into the car and started it, and they agreed to go to Galway, Martin driving. When within about six miles of Limerick the car skidded on the greasy road. Martin applied the brakes, and the car turned over on its right side on the grass margin. They tried to lift it, but failed, and could not get assistance in three houses at which they called. Leaving the car on the roadside, they walked towards Limerick, resting near a gateway until about 9 a.m. They then got a 'bus, but had only enough money to pay their fares as far as Portlaoighise. In the 'bus they had a conversation about the car with the conductor. A Guard in plain clothes was travelling in the 'bus, and, on arrival at Portlaoighise, he had them arrested by a Guard in uniform.

The inspector said that he had read over this statement to the defendant Martin, who said that it was correct, but added: "I left my own car in Rathlands, and had no intention of damaging the car we took, and intended to leave it back."

Miss Hourican said that she had her car garaged at Mr. Hoey's until she got a place for it. She had advertised the car for sale, but had not asked the defendant Hoey to sell it for her. All the doors of the car were locked when she left it in Hoey's yard, and the ignition key was locked up inside.

The defendants were again remanded on bail to Thursday, so that an estimate of the damage done to the car could be submitted to the Court.

OBSTRUCTION FINES.

Fines of 5s. and 10s. were imposed on a number of persons for having on various dates in July and August prevented and interrupted the free passage through Burgh quay of people intending to travel by 'bus.

Mr. Piggott, solicitor for the defence, argued that it was legitimate for his clients to approach intending passengers and speak to them about the 'bus on which they intended to travel.

The police case was that obstruction was caused, and that pedestrians were persistently pestered.

Mr. Piggott held that a conviction in such a case would be pushing the law too far.

Mr. Hannan said that, while these persons were there in the exercise of their calling, if they were not restrained they would tend to trespass more and more upon the amenities of the public. He held a number of cases proved, and imposed fines as stated. Other cases were dismissed.

CHILD FOUND DROWNED.

A verdict of "accidental drowning" was returned at the inquest at Camlough yesterday on Brian Dominic McShane, the two-year-old son of Mr. Patrick McShane, Carrickcloughan, Camlough. The child disappeared from his parents' home on Saturday evening, and the body was found about midnight in the Camlough river.

MEDICAL MAN'S DEATH.

BRILLIANT CAREER IN THE ARMY.

MAJOR WILLIAM BARNSLEY ALLEN, V.C., D.S.O., M.C., a medical practitioner, of Bracklesham Bay, Sussex, was found dead in his bedroom on Sunday.

At the inquest held yesterday by the Deputy Coroner for Chichester (Mr. F. B. Tompkins) a verdict was recorded that death was due to an overdose of opium by misadventure.

Mr. Joseph Henry Nicholass, a chartered accountant, of Cheapside, London, said that Major Allen was wounded many times in the war, and as a result he had suffered from insomnia. He knew him to be in the habit of taking drugs to induce sleep.

Mr. Nicholass added that Major Allen suffered at one time from sleepy sickness. He believed it was in 1925.

MAID'S DISCOVERY.

Gilda Robertson, a housemaid at the house, said that at 6.40 a.m. on Sunday she took a cup of tea up to Major Allen, and found him hanging partly out of bed, with his head back and his hands clenched.

She said, "Here is your tea, sir," but got no response. She roused William Dickenson, a man employed by the Major, who came to the room.

Dickenson, in evidence, said that he lifted the Major back into bed, and covered him with the clothes. There was just a little beating of the heart, and breathing was very slow—about every two or three minutes. He telephoned for a doctor.

Dickenson added that he saw the Major the previous night at 8.15, when he was in bed, and he asked him (Dickenson) to sit down and have a cigarette with him.

Major Allen then appeared to be quite normal. Dickenson said that he had been with the Major for four years, and knew that he was in the habit of taking drugs.

BRAVE MAN'S ACT.

Major Allen was awarded the V.C. on October 26, 1916, while on service on the Somme.

"When gun detachments were unloading high explosive ammunition from wagons, which had just come up, the enemy suddenly began to shell the battery position.

"The first shell fell on one of the limbers, exploded the ammunition and caused several casualties. Captain Allen saw the occurrence, and at once, with utter disregard of danger, ran straight across the open, under heavy shell fire, commenced dressing the wounded, and, undoubtedly, by his promptness saved many of them from bleeding to death.

"He was himself hit four times during the first hour by pieces of shells, one of which fractured two of his ribs, but he never even mentioned this at the time, and coolly went on with his work till the last man was dressed and safely removed

"He then went over to another battery and tended a wounded officer. It was only when this was done that he returned to the dug-out and reported his own injury."

Major Allen, who was 41, was born at Sheffild and educated at Worksop College and Sheffield University.

MANY TIMES WOUNDED.

After a brilliant medical career, he gained the gold medal for pathology in 1913, and three other medals and a scholarship award. He joined the Army four days after the outbreak of the war.

He married at Gainsborough in May, 1916, Mary Young, younger daughter of W. Y. Mercer, of Gainsborough, and in the following August won the M.C.

It was the same year near Mesnil, on the Somme, that he won the V.C. In July, '17, Captain Allen was awarded a bar to the M.C., and was invalided to England in the same month.

In January, 1918, he was made Acting Major, and in October the same year was wounded for the third time and invalided for the second time to England and awarded the D.S.O.

He had served in France three years and two months and was transferred to the regular R.A.M.C. At the conclusion of the war he held the rank of captain.

When, in July last year, Major Allen was charged at Chichester with driving a motor car while under the influence of drink it was stated on his behalf "he has suffered as no other man in England has suffered."

His solicitor told the Bench that Major Allen had one of the most pathetic stories they had been asked to listen to.

It was stated that Major Allen was wounded in the chest and afterwards in the eyes, being blind for six months.

Altogether he was wounded seven times. When the war ended he went to India, where he contracted malaria and dysentery.

Returning to England he gradually recovered, but later suffered from sleepy sickness, malaria, dysentery and pleurisy. Because of sleeplessness he began taking whiskey and later drugs. He was able to throw off drugs, but still took whiskey.

The Bench fined Major Allen and suspended his licence for five years.

In January, this year, it was announced in the London Gazette: "Major Allen, Royal Army Medical Corps, ceases to belong to the Reserve of Officers owing to ill-health."

DRUG TAKING.

Doctor C. R. Sadler said he found the Major propped up in bed, in accordance with instructions he had given over the telephone. The Major was blue in the face, absolutely unconscious, and his breathing very slow. His pupils were contracted and his temperature abnormal. He died about half-an-hour later.

He knew Major Allen took drugs—veronal, opium and morphia—but he had no idea of the quantity he used. He knew from his condition on Sunday that it must have been a fairly large amount. Death was due to opium poisoning. He had never heard the Major threaten to take his life and, in his opinion, he was not a person who was likely to do so.

Dr. Sadler mentioned that Mrs. Allen was not at home at the time, being ill in a nursing-home.

The Coroner referred to the sad nature of the case, and to Major Allen's brilliant career, and said that he was given to understand that he had been in the habit of taking drugs from a bottle without measuring the dose.

One could quite imagine how possible it would be for an overdose to be taken in such circumstances. In his opinion it was accidental.

MAN WITH CHOPPER DEFIES POLICE.

BUT HE CAME DOWN FOR HIS DINNER.

Details of an extraordinary incident in the village of Flore, near Weedon, Northants, became known in Northampton yesterday.

Alarm was caused in the village on Sunday morning, when a man was seen standing in front of his bedroom window brandishing a large chopper, and crying out that anyone who went near him would get a taste of it.

A policeman and the man's sister were fetched, but they could do nothing with him. The sister tried to persuade the man to put down the chopper, but he chased her out of the room.

Inspector Lawrence and Sergeant Valentine, of Weedon, were summoned, and when they arrived the man was still at the window, threatening the crowd that had gathered outside the house.

When a doctor went near the man he drew a knife from one of his pockets and threatened the doctor. The man then locked himself in his room, and for three hours efforts to persuade him to come out were unsuccessful, until at one o'clock he told the police that he would be quiet if they would get him some dinner.

The dinner was obtained, and when the man went downstairs to eat it the policemen went into the house and surrounded him. He struggled violently before he was overpowered. The man was later taken to the Northants County Mental Hospital at Berrywood.

Mr. Edward G. Robinson, the film star, has received a letter from an alleged geneologist, according to Reuter from Hollywood. It offers to trace his ancestry back to Robinson Crusoe.

THE APPOINTMENTS COMMISSIONERS.

"SIMPLY COERCION."

Kilkenny Mental Hospital Committee, at their monthly meeting yesterday—Mr. J. Grace, Vice-Chairman, presiding—passed, by seven votes to two, a resolution of protest at the action of the Local Appointments Commissioners in deciding that in future one person only be recommended for appointment to vacancies occurring under the local authorities. Three members declined to vote.

Alderman Magennis said that the local bodies were the custodians of the people's rights, and surely they ought to know more about the filling of a local appointment than the people up in Dublin. It was simply coercion and dictatorship, and if it went on the country would come to a very bad end.

Chairman—It cannot be much worse.

Mr. O'Hanrahan, seconding Alderman Magennis's resolution, said that it was only proper that the final selection of candidates should be left to the local authority. The County Council, Corporation, and other local bodies were elected on a more restricted, and possibly a better, franchise than the Dail, and it seemed only right that in local appointments the local authorities should have some say. It was utterly wrong that the present system of sending down three names should be departed from and a complete reversion made to the system of sending down one name.

Mr. Butler—I propose that we be satisfied with one name. When they sent down three names the Commissioners saw what happened in this county and every other county. By sending down one name they would stop a lot of canvassing. Half of the councils should be abolished. They were gone rotten.

Chairman—Half of the Commissioners should be abolished. They are more rotten.

Mr. Butler—There is no doubt but that there is a bad lot of stuff going on.

Mr. Brophy seconded Mr. Butler's amendment.

On a vote being taken, the amendment was defeated by seven votes to two. The resolution of protest was carried on the same voting.

FOUR MEN PICKED UP AT SEA.

CREW OF A FRENCH TRAWLER.

Passengers on the Belgian Government cross-Channel steamer, Prince Charles, had an unexpected thrill in mid-Channel yesterday, when four members of the crew of a French trawler, believed to be the Raymond Emile Annette, were picked up from a small boat flying a blanket as a distress signal.

The Prince Charles was bound for Dover from Ostend, and was crowded with holiday-makers, who lined the deck rails as the men were brought aboard.

A passenger on the Prince Charles said to a reporter: "When we were in mid-Channel we sighted what looked like wreckage about ten knots away.

"We steamed towards it, and found that it was apparently what was left of a French fishing boat which had been on fire.

"The Prince Charles circled around the wreckage for some time, and everyone on board was on the look-out for survivors from the wreck.

"None could be found, and the Prince Charles resumed her course to Dover. Three knots away from the wreckage we came upon four men in a small boat. They were making for Dover. They had a blanket hoisted as a distress signal.

"We took them aboard and on to Dover. They were not injured, and they told us that no one had been lost in the fire."

The Raymond Emile Annette, with a crew of four, left Calais on Thursday, and started fishing in the Channel. Early yesterday morning the skipper, Vailleul, discovered that the motor had caught fire.

Every effort was made to extinguish the outbreak, but without success. Hastily collecting what belongings they could, the men abandoned the trawler and took to their small boat. At about mid-day they saw the trawler blow up. Shortly afterwards they were picked up by the Prince Charles.

AN IRISH STOWAWAY.

CHANGE OF SHIP AT SEA.

The mid-ocean transfer of three stowaways from one Elder and Fyffe's liner to another was mentioned at Bristol yesterday, when John McCarthy (25), of Ennis, Co. Clare; Samuel Semple (24), of Glasgow, and John Ebbe (18), of Liverpool, were sentenced to four weeks' imprisonment for stowing away on the steamship Tilapa.

It was stated that the men hid in the bunkers at Swansea, and were discovered when the ship was some time out on a voyage to the West Indies. As the Tilapa was not returning for some time a wireless message was sent to the steamship Manzanares, belonging to the same company, which was returning home. The stowaways were transferred to the Manzanares in mid-ocean.

Mr. C. Ingle, prosecuting, said that the men had been kept at the company's expense for twenty days. Stowing away was a serious menace to shipping companies. The men said that they were looking for work.

THREATS OF EXPOSURE.

CLERGYMAN'S DEATH AT WIFE'S HOME.

"I have come home to die. My brain is gone. I am finished," was a statement attributed by his wife to the Rev. Samuel le Selfridge (56), a former vicar of South Scarle, with Besthorpe and Girton, Notts, who was found dead, with his head in a gas oven, at his wife's home at Seacombe, Wallasey, on Saturday.

Mrs. le Selfridge stated at the inquest at Wallasey yesterday that her husband married her in 1899 in the name of Slefrig, but subsequently changed his name. They lived for five years in Birmingham, where her husband was teaching at the university. He afterwards held teaching positions at various places, including Birkenhead. She had not lived with her husband for about 23 years, but had had communications from him. He had remitted maintenance money to her, and she had seen him at times. In July he came to Wallasey to her house, and he was obviously very ill. He had mental trouble, and made the statement quoted. She noticed that her husband had something on his mind. He spent the latter part of his time in weeping, and was very sorry and sad.

He received a letter recently which upset him, and he told her it was something that threatened his peace of mind, but he was too ill to do anything about it.

The Coroner (Mr. J. C. Bate)—Has he been threatened with exposure by someone who obtained or extracted money from him?—Yes.

Has this fear of exposure existed for at least 15 years?—Yes.

Did he treat it as a case of blackmail?—Well, I do not know. I think so, perhaps.

I suppose he has been paying?—Oh, yes.

Mrs. le Selfridge added that he could not keep it up any longer. He had had brain fever three times.

The Coroner, recording a verdict of suicide while of unsound mind, said: "I do not know that it is any concern of mine what was the trouble, but it was evidently a trouble that was in the nature of a case of blackmail. Whether it was blackmail I do not know, but it was a trouble he could not meet in his present state of health."

GAVE HIS LIFE FOR WORKMATE.

A GAS WORKS ACCIDENT.

Harry Shaw (27), a tractor driver, of Sale, Cheshire, lost his life in endeavouring to save the life of a workmate at Stretford Gas Works, Manchester, yesterday.

John Nuttall, a fitter, of Sale, was overcome by gas while working in a coke scrubber. Shaw, without waiting to put on a mask, entered a manhole to rescue him. As soon as he had climbed down he was overcome by gas, and collapsed beside Nuttall.

The two men were brought out by a rescue party equipped with gas masks.

Shaw died before he could be removed, and Nuttall was taken to hospital in a critical condition.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND NOTES

TONE AND COMMENT.

DUBLIN STRONG.

GUINNESS FIRM AND ACTIVE.

Dublin Stock Market opened the new account with a strong and lively session. Business was on an increased scale, and some of the upward price movements were of quite substantial proportions. Dealings were also more widely distributed than has been the case for some time.

The feature of Free State Funds was the strong buying of Land Bonds. War Loan, although active, closed lower.

Banks were busy and unchanged.

The Railway section was healthier than for months past, Great Southern issues showing sharp changes. The Ordinary stock was bid for at 10s. under last price, but the Pref. rose 2 to 14 and the Guaranteed 3¼ to 20, and the Debs. repeated 36½. Great Northern Guaranteed was bid for at 19—4 over last price. Dublin Tram Pref. rose to 9½.

Guinness units were the busiest spot among Breweries and Distilleries. The price opened well above the ex dividend and bonus figure, and closed at 94s. 6d., showing a recovery of a large portion of the deduction. Dublin Distillers Ord. showed a fall of 4 points at 34 for a small lot; but the "A" shares were in good demand, and rose 4½d. to 9s. 6d. Distillers (Scotch) lost 3s. at 86s. 3d. Jameson Debs. rose ½ to 8½, and Power Pref. repeated 13s. 6d. Burke Pref. rose 7s. 6d. to 42s. 6d.

The Industrial market was firm, but outside Imperial Tobacco and Vickers, business was not very brisk. The Tobacco shares closed at 107s. 6d., which was fully 6d. over the amount of the dividend deducted. Vickers rose 10d. to 8s. 7½d.

The "other business done" section was of respectable dimensions, the feature being the higher prices for Oil and Gold Mine shares.

LONDON FIRM.

GOLD SHARES BOOMING.

Despite the fact that members' attention was diverted by the arrangement of the carry-over, the volume of business passing in a number of departments of the London Stock Markets yesterday reached active proportions, and, in face of the renewed strong buying quotations, shot ahead in no uncertain fashion. A considerable amount of profit-taking was indulged in during the afternoon, following upon the sharp upward burst of the morning, but while this for a time arrested the steady advance in quotations the market, as a whole, closed on a firm note at the materially enhanced levels. Principal attention was directed to gold shares, and trading was on a more active scale than for many a day. Following Saturday's sharp advance in the quotation for gold, dealers were busy at an early hour, and stimulated by large buying orders from Johannesburg price levels appreciated smartly all round. Some profit-taking developed later, and this, in conjunction with the lower level fixed for gold—yesterday's quotation being 7½d. lower at 128s. 8½d. per fine ounce—was reflected in a marking down of values. This recession was, however, by no means severe, and strong advances were still shown at the close. British Rails continued to receive attention and the steady demand sent quotations still further forward.

The Industrial department, as a natural consequence of the active conditions prevailing elsewhere, attracted only a modicum of attention, and a somewhat irregular tendency prevailed. Bright features were not altogether lacking, however, Boots, Indestructible Paint, and Woolworths all returning appreciable gains. Elsewhere Oil shares encountered a good business, and a firm tone ensued, Anglo-Persians and Royal Dutch being outstanding. Rubber shares were neglected, but maintained a steady appearance, while Tea shares moved irregularly.

With the revival of interest in Gold shares attention was diverted from the Gilt-edged section, and as a result of a slight flow of funds away from this market an easier tendency developed. Local Loans weakened rather sharply, losing 7/16 to 85 7/16, while Consols 2½ p.c. shed ⅛ to 73⅝. War Loan 3½ p.c., Funding Loan, Victory Bonds and Conversion 3 p.c. and 5 p.c. were each ⅛ easier, while the 3½ p.c. Conversion Loan were quoted ex the dividend at 98 11/16. Foreign Government stocks were idle, and a slightly easier tendency ruled.

British Rails, as mentioned above, continued to receive strong support, and further substantial gains were registered. Southern Pref.-Ord. and Midland Ord. were outstanding, with rises of 1¼ and 1⅜ points, respectively, while Great Western Ord. and most of the junior stocks were substantially higher. Among Colonial and Foreign Rails, Argentines were mostly ½ better, while "Canpacs" put on ⅜ to 18⅜.

AUSTRALIAN WOOL SEASON

45 P.C. INCREASE IN PRICES.

At the opening wool sale of the season at Sydney offerings totalled 10,330 bales, of which 10,099 were sold. Wool sold privately consisted of 4,117 bales. Competition for the offerings was strong and sustained from all sections of buyers. Prices were 30 per cent. higher than those ruling at the close of the June sales, and 45 per cent. higher than at the opening of last season's sales. The highest price obtained was 19¼d.

THE INDUSTRIAL MARKET.

TRIPLEX GLASS GOOD.

Although a fair turnover was reported for new account in the Industrial market yesterday, it was completely overshadowed by the activity in Gold Mining shares. Values generally trended upward, but a certain amount of irregularity was witnessed in places.

Encouraging advices from Wall street in the late dealings created a demand for the trans-Atlantic counters, but there was not a great deal doing on this side. Nickels improved to 23, Brazilian Tractions to 15⅜, Radios to 10¼, and Steels to 63⅜, the last-named showing an advance of 1⅜ on Friday's closing level. "Emmies" finished at 14s.

Cables and Wireless stocks showed no decided trend, and closed rather on the dull side.

The demand for Iron, Coal and Steel shares continued. Weardale Steel Deferred provided a feature, rising 1s. 6d. to 30s. Wm. Cory improved 6d. to 74s. 6d., and a number of others closed higher.

There was renewed buying of Electric Supply shares, to which prices responded. Electric Supply Corporation gained 1s. 3d. to 73s. 6d. Electrical Equipments were quiet.

Among Motors, Austins receded 1s. to 66s. 3d., and Thos. Tillings slipped back 6d. On the other hand, Fairey Aviation further improved 4½d. to 27s. 4½d.

Breweries made a rather mixed showing. Distillers finished 2s. 6d. down on last Friday's closing level. Other Distillery issues also seemed rather uncertain. Dublin Distillers were a few pence harder.

The Tobacco leaders met with moderate inquiry, but apart from Gallahers, which advanced to 51s. 3d., changes did not amount to much.

Textiles generally had an uncertain appearance following the Bradford Dyers' announcement. The Ordinary shares were offered at 16s. 6d., and the Preference at 14s. 6d. Fine Spinners receded to 15s., and Listers to 12s. 3d.

A renewed demand was noticeable for Boots Pure Drug Ordinary, which rose ⅛ to 7 7/16. Triplex Glass also came in for further attention on report anticipations, and closed 2s. 6d. higher at 67s. 6d. London Brick ruled firm at 75s. 9d., ex dividend. Imperial Chemicals were inquired for on interim dividend hopes.

OIL SHARES HIGHER.

The firmness which developed in the Oil share market towards the close of last week became even more pronounced yesterday, the leaders and several of the more speculative descriptions being distinctly strong in the early hours.

There was a large turnover in Shells, while the Eagle issues and, to a lesser extent, Anglo-Persians and Burmahs received attention.

The market was helped by the receipt of buying orders from Paris, French operators supporting Shell bearer, Royal Dutch and the Eagle issues. Best prices were not maintained. The demand slackened appreciably in the afternoon, and in consequence there was an easing of prices, which became more pronounced when New York was reported dull. Nevertheless, gains were still general as a result of the day's business.

RUBBER SHARES STAGNANT.

The Rubber share market was again practically devoid of interest, yet, notwithstanding the absence of any favourable lead from the raw material department, share values were fairly well maintained, and at the close only a few irregular movements of modest dimensions were returned. The commodity market was quiet and featureless. Spot and September sold at 3 15/16d. per lb., with October to December at 3 15/16d. per lb.; January to March closed at 3 15/16d., after 3¼d. per lb. In accordance with expectations, London stocks of rubber were further reduced on the week, the holding being 879 tons lower than on Monday last, while Liverpool stocks were 542 tons lower.

LONDON "STREET" MARKET.

A fair turnover was seen in all sections of the "street" market after hours last evening. Consequent upon the renewed weakness of sterling, Kaffir shares were particularly active. Business was transacted, however, mainly around the "house," closing levels, and no important price variations were registered. Oils were slightly off.

Internationals displayed a firm tone, and most of the leading issues finished with satisfactory gains. Nickels were prominent. A persistent demand sent the quotation up to 23, as against 22 13/16 at the "house" close. Steels were also in demand and closed a dollar higher at 63⅜.

THE MONEY MARKET

FALL IN GOLD.

The price of gold yesterday was quoted 7½d. lower at 128s. 8½d. per ounce fine, the premium being 6½d. per ounce, as compared with 10½d. per ounce on Saturday. About £250,000 was in the market, and this was taken by Continental buyers.

The Bank of England announced the purchase of £2,042 bar gold.

There was rather more demand for money yesterday in the absence of Treasury bill maturities, while the banks were refraining from purchasing short-dated bills. Short loans usually commanded ½ per cent.

The discount market was firmer in tone, the hot Treasuries being offered at 11/32 per cent., while fine three months' banks bills were quoted at 7/16 to ½ per cent.

Silver declined ⅛d. on American speculative selling at 17 11/16d. per ounce for spot, and 17 11/16d. for forward delivery.

The active condition prevailing in the foreign exchange market during the last few days of the previous week were continued yesterday. In the absence of any control by the London authorities the franc rate fluctuated widely. The rate fell heavily in the afternoon, but reacted sharply just before the close. The dollar also appreciated in terms of sterling, though the movements throughout the day were somewhat erratic. Following the marked improvement of the dollar in New York on Saturday, the opening rate in London was 6c. lower than Saturday's final quotation at 4.60. The rate remained steady around 4.58 until after the opening of New York, when there was a sharp decline to 4.51. After reacting to 4.55 the rate eventually closed 9c. lower on balance at 4.53.

Francs opened a nominal market at 81⅝, fell to 81⅛ in the late afternoon, but closed at 81 5/16, an improvement of 11/16fr. on balance. The Swiss franc appreciated by 10c. to 16.47½, the belga by 12½c. to 22.85, and the Dutch florin by 5c. to 8.90½, while the Italian lira was ¼ dearer at 60 7/16.

FINANCIAL PARAGRAPHS.

DISTILLERS' PROSPECTS.

According to a firm of London Stock Exchange dealers that has always made a special study of Distillers Stock, the indications are that the number of American States that will go "wet" will be larger even than was the case before prohibition (says The Investor's Chronicle). The minimum consumption of whiskey in the United States for the seven years before prohibition averaged 70,000,000 gallons annually. If 50 per cent. of this figure be taken as prospective consumption, the combined stocks of United States and Canada will not suffice for more than eighteen months, for it is computed that the entire stocks of United States are 10,000,000 and of Canada 45,000,000, a total of 55,000,000 gallons. Since Canada has distilled no whiskey for two years—owing to the depression—no further matured whiskey will be available from Canada until June, 1937, the period of maturity in that country being four years. It appears, therefore, that the total stocks of 55,000,000 gallons will be exhausted before the close of the year 1935. Should this prove correct, the Distillers Company, which controls 90 per cent. of the whiskey trade in this country, may have the opportunity to supply 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 gallons of whiskey per annum for the two years from July, 1935, to July, 1937, and possibly for another year if the maturity period in the United States exceeds three years. This demand is likely to start in the near future. On an assumption that the amount of matured whiskey required by the United States for the two years from July, 1935, to July, 1937, will be no more than 25,000,000 gallons annually this would represent a deficiency of 50,000,000 gallons. There is, therefore, the probability of the Distillers Company supplying, say, 12,500,000 gallons annually over the next four years.

TEXAS GOING "WET."

Texas has joined the procession of States in favour of the repeal of Prohibition. Voting on an average of five to three in favour of going "wet," Texas has become the twenty-third of thirty-six States necessary to secure repeal. The State of Washington will be the next to vote. At the same time voting was taken on the question of legalising beer, and an even greater majority in favour was recorded. For the past few weeks hotel-keepers have been installing machinery, and beer has been openly on sale for some time.

NEW TRIPLEX CHAIRMAN.

Major A. E. Phillips has been appointed chairman of Triplex Safety Glass Co., Ltd., and Miss D. McDuell, secretary, has been co-opted a director.

PRICE OF BREAD IN LONDON.

Bread in London yesterday went down one halfpenny per quartern loaf to 7½d., but a rise within a fortnight is anticipated, following an expected increase in flour prices.

CHAMPION REEF GOLD MINES OF INDIA.

A cablegram has been received from the mine reporting that a rockburst occurred on the 25th inst. in 67 to 72 levels, resulting in death of five men and injuries to 19 men. Main development winze north badly damaged. It will not affect output.

EXPECTED ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The following are among the more important company results expected within the next week or two:—Imperial Chemicals interim, Pinchin Johnson interim, Coltness Iron interim, Singer and Company accounts, Maypole Dairy interim, Celanese of America Preferred dividend, Canadian Celanese Preferred dividend, Whitworth and Mitchell results, United Turkey Red interim decision, Newspaper quarterly dividend. Lovbgelly Iron and Coal results, Halley Motors accounts, Triplex Safety Glass report. The Imperial Chemical interim dividend declaration was made a year ago on the evening of September 8.

PINCHIN JOHNSON INTERIM.

The trade depression was severely felt by Pinchin Johnson and Co., varnish, colour, paint and enamel makers; for, whereas in the year 1929 the net profits amounted to £381,533, the total for 1932 was less than £158,000. For the latter year the dividend was reduced from 17 1-6 to 15 per cent. Although £30,000 was transferred from reserve to profit and loss account for the first half of this year, the interim dividend has been reduced from 7½ to 6 per cent., an announcement that was rather unexpected, and had some weakening effect upon the shares. If it is assumed that the distribution for the whole of 1933 is 12 per cent., Pinchin Johnson Ord. at the present price of 33s. 4½d. yield fully 7¼ per cent. The financial position is strong, with reserves amounting to £784,658, while on the last occasion cash was held to the amount of £539,851. Undoubtedly, the company will benefit from a continuance of the improvement in general trade, and because of this the shares are not overvalued.

LONDON MINING MARKET BUOYANT.

WIDESPREAD DEMAND FOR GOLD ISSUES.

The weakness of sterling in terms of the gold currencies and the resultant advance of 3s. 2d. per ounce in the price of the metal on Saturday made Gold shares the centre of attraction on the Stock Exchange yesterday.

A very large volume of business was transacted in all sections of the market, but the turnover was specially heavy in the Kaffir department.

A strong opening in Kaffirs was succeeded by a slight reaction, but by the close most issues were at the best of the day, and in several cases new high records were established.

So widespread was the demand for Gold issues that there was scarcely a share which did not participate in the upward movement. West Australians were active, and West Africans attracted more attention than for some time past.

Among Base Metal shares the only item of interest was a brighter tone in Tins, following the rise in the metal price. The mild revival was due to expectations of a further contraction in visible supplies being shown when the figures become known on Friday. Closing prices:—

DIVIDENDS AND REPORTS.

Cork Gas Consumers.—Net revenue of Cork Gas Consumers' Co. for half-year to 30th June, £7,033 (against £5,645 for first half 1932). After interest and other charges, including £1,414 to depreciation, there is £4,386 (£4,605). Ordinary dividend at rate of 8 per cent. per annum. (Same.)

Colonial Mutual Life.—The report of the Colonial Mutual Life Assurance Society, Ltd., for the year ended December 31st last states that new business in the ordinary department amounted to £5,350,000, an increase over 1931 of £792,000. Funds increased by £579,000, and now amount to over £14,000,000. Total income amounted to £2,658,000, showing an increase over 1931 of £65,000. The sum of £107,000 has been set aside for possible depreciation in security values.

"Daily Mirror" Newspapers.—3¾ per cent. on Ordinary on account of twelve months to 28th February, 1934. (Same.)

Fras. Hinde and Hardy.—Trading profit and other income, £27,322. After depreciation, etc., a net figure of £16,636—the highest since 1929—is shown.

Frederick Lawrence.—Interim dividend for the half-year ended 31st July, 1933, on the Cumulative Participating Preference Shares at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum. Directors take the opportunity of reporting that the business continues to make excellent progress, and shows satisfactory expansion of trading.

Karrier Motors.—Accounts of Karrier Motors for 1932 show net loss of £42,612 (against £40,347), after charging interest, depreciation, subsidiaries' losses, etc. This increases debit brought in to £79,575. Report states that general state of trade was extremely difficult, and issue of the Salter Report had a further damaging effect, particularly in the demand for heavy vehicles. In first half of present year position was no better, but since end of June there has been a decided improvement, and value of orders on the books at present time is greater than at any time during the last three years.

Mexico Tramways.—A half-year's interest on the General Consolidated First Mortgage Five per Cent. Bonds of the Mexico Tramways Company will be paid on and after 1st September at the Bank of Montreal, Montreal, London and New York, against surrender of Coupon No. 41 dated 1st March, 1927.

Pinchin Johnson.—Interim dividend of 6 per cent. actual, less tax, against 7½ per cent. for corresponding period.

"Sunday Pictorial" Newspapers (1920).—3⅛ per cent. on Ordinary on account of twelve months to 28th February, 1934. (Same.)

Wymans and Sons.—The directors consider it inadvisable to pay the half-year instalment of Preference dividend usually paid on September 1. A further statement will be issued when the results for full year are available. Dividends on the 6 per cent. and 7 per cent. Preference Shares were paid in the previous six months. The last Ordinary payment was 2½ per cent. in 1931.

IRISHMAN'S DIARY.

Mr. Harold Clarke : Autumn Leaves.

Something for Nothing.

An acquaintance who has just returned from a holiday in London was greatly surprised that in these days of keen competition in business it was possible to get something for nothing at one business house there. Shortly after arriving at his hotel he found that his umbrella needed a new elastic band. He inquired of the hotel porter where he could get the umbrella repaired, and was directed to an umbrella shop a short distance away. He found the shop, and told the assistant what he wanted; she took particulars of his order, and, when he asked what the cost would be, told him that there was no charge. It was what she called "free service." Not only was the umbrella repaired, but it was delivered to the hotel, carefully wrapped up, with a label giving his name and the number of his room. My friend is wondering whether there are many shops like it.

Straw Hats for Men.

A visitor from America seemed to be more surprised by the total absence of men's straw hats in the streets of Dublin this summer than by anything else. He was still more astonished when he heard that there was supposed to have been a revival of such head-wear. He said that while he stayed in Dublin he had been able to recognise his own compatriots, even in the distance, by the fact that the men wore straw hats. In America, it seems, every man puts on his summer boater round about a certain date; he would look remarkable if he went on wearing a tweed cap or a felt hat after that date. He must be just as careful to change back into his winter head-gear when the time comes in autumn; for a straw hat will not be tolerated in a crowd when it should have been put away. My American friend, who is a base-ball enthusiast, said that he had seen many hats hurled to destruction because the owners had gone on wearing them when the "season" for that particular kind of hat had come to an end.

American Visitors.

Two interesting American visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Carhart, from Virginia—who have been at Bective House for the past two months, have left London en route for home. Mr. Carhart is an M.F.H., and his wife is a noted sportswoman in the States, where she is regarded as a brilliant horsewoman.

While these Americans made Bective their headquarters, they toured almost every county in Ireland. They started out for Galway, where, as riders to hounds, they naturally took stock of that well-known "stone wall" country; and, after seeing Clifden and Leenane, they penetrated into Mayo. In Co. Limerick they spent some time at Adare, before going on to Killarney. While at Bective—that now famous spot of American territory in the Free State—they attended many of our race meetings and shows, as they were particularly interested in everything connected with horses. Any American from Virginia seems to be more interesting than those from other parts. It is the Old Dominion, famous for its hospitality. From Charles II. this famous Southern State received this title, with the Seal "En dat Virginia qu'dum," in gratitude for the offer of its people, who, during his exile, invited him, through Sir William Berkeley, their Governor, to come and reign over them. Thus Charles placed Virginia in rank with his other four possessions (England, Scotland, France and Ireland).

Mr. Harold Clarke.

I have not seen Mrs. Harold Clarke at a race meeting for years till Saturday, when she accompanied Mrs. Buttress from London to the Park. Mrs. Buttress is Mr. Clarke's sister, and this was her first visit in ten years to Ireland. It is strange that we never think of Mr. F. Harold Clarke, the popular Keeper of the Match Book, as an Englishman. He came from Sandown Park, on the invitation of Sir Arthur Paget, I believe, to act as Clerk of the Course at Leopardstown years ago. In 1920 or 1921 he became Secretary to the Turf Club—he is really the Club itself—and is now Managing Director of Leopardstown. It would be hard to find a more popular racing official in Ireland to-day. The embodiment of tact, from him the small owner gets the same attention as the rich, and in racing circles there are no two opinions about the owner of the familiar signature on the race card, "F. Harold Clarke."

Allingham.

Recently I mentioned William Allingham. It is now proposed, I see, to restore the memorial stone which was erected in his memory many years ago on Ballyshannon Bridge, and has since fallen into a lamentable state of disrepair. The original lettering was not sufficiently deep-cut, and the inscription is now almost illegible.

Few people know, however, that the most interesting memorial of the poet can be found, not on the bridge, but in the vestry of the parish church. It is a beautiful pencil sketch of Allingham, drawn by his wife about the year 1870. Examples of Mrs. Allingham's work are in the National Galleries of Ireland and Scotland, which contain paintings of Allingham and Carlyle respectively. She was, I believe, the first woman to be elected to membership of the old Water-Colour Society.

A Fairview Vallombrosa.

A resident in Clontarf reminds me of a note of mine which appeared in the "Diary" some months ago in which I congratulated the Corporation on having ceased at last to make Fairview Park the dumping ground for waste paper and other disfiguring refuse. Now, my correspondent tells me, things are as bad as ever again. Autumn leaves, he says, from the shrubbery and tree walks blow about in a state of mottled and wild confusion, mixed with discarded leaves from old account books and "literature" of all kinds, with the result that the park presents the appearance of a novel, piebald Vallombrosa. My friend concludes with a serious plea, with which I willingly associate myself, that the Corporation—having completed its original plans for Fairview Park many years ago—should find some less obtrusive, and incidentally more useful, reclamation scheme as the destination of the city refuse.

Hairdressers' Enterprise.

My recent reference to the increase in the number of shops in the city selling cigarettes at "cut-prices" reminds a correspondent that efforts are now being made by certain well-intentioned people to cut the prices usually charged for trimming, waving, cutting and shampooing "my lady's hair." The efforts are certainly long overdue; for, if there have been high profits in any trade in recent years, they certainly have been in the hairdressing business, and there is no justification for maintaining the old prices now. In one hairdressing establishment in the city, which has recently been "got up" on an elaborate scale, prices have been cut by almost fifty per cent., and the service and attention are all, I am told, that could be desired. In fact, the management has introduced the novel feature of supplying a cup of tea and a few biscuits gratis to the customers at intervals during the day. The tea is supplied even though you are in the process of being "trimmed."

QUIDNUNC.

AUSTRALIA'S LONELIEST WOMAN.

From a barren, wind-swept islet, eternally lashed by the waves of the Pacific, Australia's loneliest woman has come to Melbourne for a holiday, states Reuter.

This woman is Mrs. F. Barton, wife of the keeper of Queensland and Victoria coast lights. For the past year Mrs. Barton has lived on Gabo Island, the outpost of Victoria's lighthouses. Yet she is happy. "Any woman with plenty of interests to occupy her hands and mind, with a philosophic disposition, would really enjoy the life on a lighthouse," she declares.

"But," she admits, "after a year on a lighthouse station, with only the noise of the waves and the birds to distract one's thoughts, the traffic and lights and talkies of the city seem extraordinarily exciting. Why, I feel just like a child going to a party.

"Gabo is, perhaps, the most wearying of all Australian lighthouses. It can be thoroughly explored in a couple of hours, as it measures only one mile by one and a half miles. There is absolutely no vegetation, except a few stunted shrubs and a struggling ti tree (a small evergreen) on one point, unmolested by the dashing spray which continually breaks against the rocks. To a visitor the noise of the breaking waves is deafening and unendurable. But when a thick fog settles over the land and sea, and the waves are stilled, the sudden quiet depresses me.

"Our vegetable garden is perched on the only patch of earth on the island. We have a few fowls and a couple of cows. Often we find penguins picking for food with our fowls."

Very careful housekeeping is required, for a boat only brings stores once in three months. "How we welcome recipes for cakes, puddings and sweets which come in the women's pages of newspapers," she said. "They keep us from getting into a groove. Also we bless the kind city folk who send books and magazines to the lighthouses."

PROGRESS OF A.A.

MEMBERSHIP OF OVER HALF A MILLION.

The membership of the Automobile Association has passed the half-million mark. Founded in 1905 by a few enthusiasts to fight prejudice against motorists and the unfair enforcement of the twenty-mile speed limit, the Association has grown to its present magnitude in twenty-eight years. It is particularly interesting to record that, throughout, the A.A. has had only one Secretary, Sir Stenson Cooke, on whom, appropriately enough, was conferred the honour of knighthood early in this, the half-million, year. The A.A.'s origin was humble, indeed, with less than ninety members and a few pounds in the bank. This is in striking contrast to the present vast organisation.

In quick succession the A.A. initiated the road patrol system, which remains unique; free legal defence, a bold experiment; signposting on national lines, a network of roadside telephone boxes, and an ideal of motoring service which has since spread throughout the world.

During the present season motorists have enrolled at the rate of ten thousand per month. The Association remains as in 1905, a militant organisation pledged solely to the protection and advancement of the interests of motorists.

HOLIDAY REQUISITES.

Special efforts have been made to secure satisfactory supply of the Irish Times to readers on holiday. A card of information will be sent on application to Manager, Dublin. Please state district.

THE STUDY OF THE ARCTIC.

SCIENTISTS' "EXILE" ALMOST OVER.

The Second International Polar Year, during which twenty nations, including Great Britain, have co-operated in circling the Poles with observation stations, is entering its final month in the Arctic, according to the Washington Evening Star, quoted by Reuter's Washington Correspondent.

The British scientists who have been taking part in this venture have been in voluntary exile at Fort Rae, Northern Canada, under the leadership of Mr. J. M. Stagg, a Scotsman. They include Mr. W. R Morgans (Wales), Mr. P. A. Sheppard (Bath), Mr. A. Stephenson (Norwich), Mr. W. A. Grinstead (Leeds), and Mr. J. L. Kennedy (Twickenham).

It is now stated that the specially established stations of the various Governments in the Northern Hemisphere will end their observations about September, and prepare their records for transmission to the office of the International Commission at Copenhagen.

Perhaps the most ambitious international scientific effort in history, the programme has been successful beyond all expectations, according to Dr. J. A. Fleming, director of the terrestial magnetism laboratory of the Carnegie Institution of Washington and American members of the Commission. Hundreds of thousands of observations have been recorded covering the fields of meteorology, physics of the earth, oceanography and natural history. All the records will be assembled at Copenhagen and then distributed to scientific institutions all over the earth for tabulation and study. It is expected that a great deal of this work will be done at the terrestial magnetism laboratory at Washington.

Almost all the nations of Northern Europe, which are vitally interested in Arctic study for its bearing on weather and wireless phenomena, are taking part in the project. Of special importance has been the action of Russia in establishing ninety-two special stations along the Arctic coast of Europe and Siberia.

It is expected that several years will be required to prepare the data for publication. At first, Dr. Fleming said, it will be like an extraordinarily complicated jig-saw puzzle, the pieces of which will have to be fitted together into a complete picture of Arctic phenomena.

The Antarctic part of the programme will not be concluded until January 1. The work did not start until the middle of the Southern summer last year. It involved a much smaller number of special stations.

RUSSIA'S BRITISH VISITORS.

SECOND ONLY TO AMERICANS.

British visitors to the U.S.S.R. are numerically second only to Americans, according to C. A. Yelansky, Assistant-Chairman of "Intourist."

He says, states Reuter from Moscow, that this year the largest number of tourists have been Americans, with British and Scandinavians together occupying the second place. The Latin countries—France, Spain, Italy and Argentina—are also stated to be sending many visitors to the Soviet Union this season.

A party of American tourists, just back in New York after a brief trip to Moscow, seem a little bewildered by what they have seen, states Reuter, but are unanimous on one thing they observed in the Soviet capital: They saw only one Russian wearing a tie—it was a red one.

FILM OF THE WEEK.

"THE SON-DAUGHTER" AT THE SAVOY.

"The Son-Daughter," which is being shown this week at the Savoy, is another film about Chinamen, but it is by no means the usual Chinese melodrama. Its interest lies in the fact that it is a genuine attempt to see things through Asiatic rather than through American eyes. It makes no compromises with the western point of view, and refuses to employ any of the stock misconceptions about the Chinese in order to gain its effect.

For this reason, it will hardly be a popular success, for the Chinese point of view is too far removed from that of the man in the street. Innumerable pictures have made him familiar with the situation in which the parent forces his daughter into a wealthy and unattractive marriage, but that the girl should accept the situation without question, and give up her own lover, is a thing that he will not understand. "Whatever one does for love of country is right," says the father, but he deliberately ruins the girl's life so that the insurgent troops may be supplied with money, and that, to Europeans, may seem to be carrying patriotism too far.

The dialogue is in keeping, and reminds one at times of Ernest Bramah, while the Eastern spirit has been carried even into the stiff, conventionalised acting of the principals. In this, the producer has found the task somewhat beyond him: Helen Hayes is extremely good, but there are times when she somehow fails to appeal.

Ramon Novarro and Lewis Stone, almost unrecognisable beneath their make-up, are happier in less trying parts, while Warner Oland has his usual role of villain, and has no difficulty at all.

"The Son-Daughter" is not everybody's film, but it is an intelligent and honest piece of work. The director, Clarence Brown, deserves credit for having almost accomplished a very difficult task.

"WILD VIOLETS."

SECOND WEEK AT GAIETY THEATRE.

The truth of the saying that the public know and appreciate a good thing when they see it was demonstrated by the proportions of the audience which filled all parts of the Gaiety Theatre, Dublin, last night, when the musical play "Wild Violets" entered upon its second week. The production is in many respects the finest and brightest that has been seen here for a long time—indeed from the point of view of staging the work on a revolving stage, it strikes a novel note for Dublin playgoers. The piece is now moving with a care-free swing, and the players, from first principal to the last member of the chorus, put all their ability into getting it "over" successfully. Last night's audience, like those of the past week, followed the story in its rollicking mood with immense enjoyment, and applause was unrestrained. Vera Pearce pleased everybody in her laughable presentation of the part of the housekeeper, Augusta, and she had splendid support from Blake Adams (Hans Katzen), Phyllis Bourke (Madame Hoffman), Vincent Lawson (Algernon Rutherford), Walter Bird (Faul), Rita Mackay (Mary), and others. The scenes in the Girls' Seminary were much enjoyed, and the audience were very appreciative of the special dancing by the Albertina Rasch troupe of dancers.

THEATRE ROYAL.

JACK DOYLE'S FIRST APPEARANCE.

Jack Doyle, the Irish heavy-weight boxer, made what was his first appearance on the stage at the Theatre Royal, Dublin, last night, where he got an enthusiastic welcome from a large audience. He sang a number of Irish airs, and afterwards gave an exhibition of his training methods, including skipping and shadow-boxing.

Variety acts completed the programme. Fred Curran sang some fairly amusing songs, W. C. Barnes performed some clever juggling feats, Stan Stafford sang in a "contralto" voice, Veronica did a hundred high kicks in succession, and other items were given by the "Four White Flashes," Jack Mayer, Chick Farr, George Hughes, and the Mito Trio.

REVUE AT THE OLYMPIA.

"Paris on Parade" is the title of the revue which is being presented at the Olympia Theatre, Dublin, this week, and there were large audiences at both performances last night. It is excellently produced, the scenery being attractive, while all the artistes performed their parts splendidly. Joe Povnton was a very funny comedian. The other principal artistes were George Wolkowsky, Esmé Grande, Boue Mendez, Jackson Moore, Vera Hellyer, Reginald Curtis, Lou Vaine, Hal Duncan, and the O'Shea Girls. Good dancing and bright music added to the enjoyment of the entertainment.

LIFEBOAT DAY AT GREYSTONES.

Greystones shows the keenest desire to help the meritorious work of the Irish lifeboat service, and supported well two cinematograph performances at the Picture Hall.

The sound film, "Flashes Around the Coast," depicted the work of launching the lifeboat, calling the crew, etc., and "Heroes of the Sea" showed the lifeboat going to a wreck in a blinding storm. The third film, "Men Like These," recalled the recent submarine epic in the China Sea, when the Poseidan was rammed.

Mr. E. Archer, P.C., hon. sec., on behalf of the local committee, thanked Mr. J. Hipple for his kindness in giving the hall free.

The flag day on Saturday was a great success, over 800 taking advantage of the lifeboat trips, which were run from the harbour. The sum of £30 was realised. Master Desmond West won the prize for best collection, awarded and presented by Mrs. Barrington.

GREYSTONES DANCE.

The dance on Saturday night at the Grand Hotel, Greystones, was under the auspices of Bray Harriers Hunt Club, and about 250 people were present, including the following:—

Mr. and Mrs. Dowling, Captain and Mrs. Sheridan, Mrs. McGaw, Dr. and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Walsh, Mr. G. Hanbury Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dalby, Mr. and Mrs. Denis Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Ian Martin, Mr. E. S. Paton, Master, Bray Harriers; Mr. and Mrs. Whitton, Mr. and Miss D'Oley Battly, Mr. and Mrs. Webster, Miss Ray Corry Neale, Mr. and Mrs. J. Esmonde, Mr. O'Mahoney, Mr. M. Fitzgerald, Miss K. Stokes, Mr. P. Stokes, Dr. and Mrs. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, Colonel and Mrs. Hugh Tyler, Captain and Mrs. Lambert, Miss Jameson, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Miss Coote, Mr. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil West, Miss Lumly, Mr. Harold E. Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Martin, Mr. A. F. G. Furcell.

THE AIGRETTE.

The conductor of the Woman's Page of the Irish Times writes:—"Mr. Moffat, in his references to the Paris fashion feature last Friday, gives a false emphasis to the Paris revival of feather-trimming for millinery. It is necessary for women to be well informed as to the trend of fashion in the dress capital of the world, even if, as in this case, Irishwomen are hardly likely to be much in sympathy with it, and the Paris Correspondent's reference to the revival of feathers in her city was treated, therefore, as an item of news, without any undue stress being laid upon it.

"As Mr. Moffat is, no doubt, aware, a strict watch at the British ports virtually prevents the smuggling through of illegal plumage; and, if women do bring out such old trimmings from their limbo and use them in imitation of the Parisian mode, it would not controvert the fact that the practice of slaughtering rare birds for their plumage is a thing of the past so far as these islands are concerned."

THE INSHORE FISHERIES.

DEVELOPMENT REPORTED.

BETTERMENT OF THE MEN.

DEALING with "Saorstat Inshore Fishermen" in the course of a talk after the Dublin Rotary Club luncheon in the Metropole Restaurant yesterday, Mr. John D. Rush, of the Department of Lands and Fisheries, said that the inshore man returns to shore every day—unless when on a voyage from one port to another for a seasonal fishing he may spend a night or two at sea.

"There are within the Free State from ten to eleven thousand fishermen, the vast majority being 'part-timers,' who take to the fishing to supplement their earnings from small farms on the seaboard," he said. "Of whole-time fishermen entirely dependent on fishing for their living there are some two thousand.

"There has been a steady increase in the number of fishermen seeking membership of the Sea Fisheries Association, and up to date about sixteen hundred have become shareholding members. Most of them are owners or prospective owners of boats—mainly small craft. Working members of the crews on larger boats, not yet feeling satisfied that the Association can afford them assistance, are slow in joining up. It is hoped gradually to convince them that they, too, have a good deal to gain by acquiring membership."

HIRE PURCHASE PLANS.

The Association supplied its members with boats and gear on hire purchase terms. He went on to review the conditions under which fishermen secured boats by loans during the years of the Great War, but then found that they could not keep up paying the instalments.

The Government then decided that a new order of things was necessary, and, as a first step, something like £100,000 of irrecoverable arrears was written off. It was only fair to the fishermen to mention that that £100,000 was not so much of the taxpayers' money. With the exception of some £30,000, which had been supplied by the British Development Commissioners, the money with which the loan system had been financed came from charitable sources.

"Having written off these arrears," he continued, "the Government proceeded to substitute for the loan system a method of obtaining, through the Association, boats and gear on hire-purchase, the repayment to come out of the proceeds of the catch, which would be marketed by the Association.

"Since August, 1931, when the work began by the Association, something over 800 applications for such facilities have been received. About 300 of them have been cleared, and some 200 more are in course of fulfilment. These applications varied in extent, from requisitions for small trammel nets, costing 60s. each, to the other extreme of standard fishing boats and equipment of gear, representing a value of, say, £1,000 each. The Committee of the Association, for several reasons, have been unable to deal as rapidly as they would wish with these applications, and they are making every effort to speed up the procedure.

MARKETING SCHEMES.

"Secondly comes an even more important part of the Association's activities—namely, the marketing end. The marketing scheme is that, as each fishing centre or community is organised for marketing purposes, the catch of the members is handed over to a local agent, who pays them the price fixed by the committee, and then dispose of the fish in accordance with directions from head office. The normal method of disposal is through regional wholesalers, of whom there are at present seven throughout the country. These wholesalers supply to the retail trade at a list price fixed by the committee, and for their work are paid a percentage commission.

STATE AID.

"Membership of the Association entails the payment of 1s entrance fee and the taking up by the members of one £1 share, payment for which is made by 5s. deposit and annual calls thereafter at an amount to be fixed by the committee. The Association is really dependent in toto upon the State for funds. It is given annually a limited grant-in-aid of administration; it is provided with repayable advances for the supply of boats and gear—that is to say, the committee in due course will have to account to the Exchequer for these advances as against the repayments from members by way of deduction from their catches; and it is also given a certain grant-in-aid for purposes of general development—under which heading the cost of the marketing operations, including the temporary charter of steam trawlers for the purpose of maintaining supplies, are met.

Naturally, marketing operations could not be attempted until a certain number of new boats had been put into commission, and the majority of those already in commission furnished with fresh gear. Consequently, active operations did not begin until early in the present year; and by now the marketing scheme is in full working at Clogherhead, Loughshinny, Balbriggan, Arklow, Courtown and Rosslare on the east coast; at Dingle, Aran Islands, Roundstone, Innisboffin and Murrisk on the west coast.

"The scheme is being gradually extended round the entire coastline, and it can be said that the results achieved at some of the places named, particularly at Dingle, have been most gratifying. Fish from places that in former years had for lack of proper handling and packing been realising very low prices, is now, owing to the state in which it reaches the trade, being sought after by them.

"The Committee of the Association propose, when they have got somewhat clear of the preliminary work of providing boats and gear and arranging for marketing the catches, to take up very seriously this subject of vocational education for the sons of fishermen."

IN THE WEST.

Mr. Campbell, in moving a vote of thanks to Mr. Rush, referred to the difficulties of fishermen in the West of Ireland in the matter of piers and harbours. Some of these were all right for currachs, but were simply a jest in connection with motor boats. He also referred to the waste of such good eating fish as skates by killing them and throwing them back into the water.

Mr. Blennerhasset, in seconding, said that he was impressed by the rapid growth of the Sea Fisheries Development Association and by the extent to which the hire-purchase system was being applied to such a conservative industry.

Mr. P. T. Montford, district chairman, presided.

Arrangements were made for a visit to about a hundred children who are being maintained by the Children's Fresh Air Fund in Bohernabreena and district for a holiday, on Saturday next. Rotarians wishing to take part in the visit should communicate with Rotarians Cathcart or Aylward. Mr. Kevin Kenny mentioned that £1,250 had been subscribed towards the fund in question, and that the money paid for tea on the visit would go towards the fund.

GARDEN PARTY AT KILLORGLIN.

Mr. Christopher Power, Miss Power and Miss Carr held their annual garden party at Cluan Carrig, Killorglin, Co. Kerry, last Friday. Tennis, clock golf and bridge were enjoyed by the guests. Among those present were Sir Sidney and Lady Rowan Hamilton, Sir John and Lady Godfrey, the Hon. Mrs. Otway Cuffe, Mr. and Mrs. Crampton Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Tait, Mr. Rowan Hamilton, Mrs. C. J. Downing, Miss Phyllida MacGillycuddy, Mrs. McLean, of Queenstown; Mrs. George, Mr. Mills, Miss Marnan, Major and Mrs. Leeson-Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Ruth, Miss Cowey, Major Collins and Miss Vera McLean.

BANK DIRECTOR RETIRES.

Mr. John Graham, a director of the Ulster Bank, having attained the age limit, has retired on superannuation.

SPECIAL N.U.R. CONFERENCE.

PROCEEDINGS TO-DAY IN LONDON.

A special conference of the National Union of Railwaymen will be held in London to-day. This unusual occurrence is due to the fact that the usual delegate conference, at its meeting some months ago, decided that an All-Ireland Delegate Conference of the Union would be called to discuss the agreement between the Associated Irish Railway Companies and the Unions, made at the conclusion of the strike. It was decided also that any recommendations from the Irish body would be placed before a further meeting of the annual conference delegates, and this meeting is accordingly being held.

Those present from Ireland will be Messrs. C. D. Watters, Irish Secretary; J. Campbell, Irish Organiser; J. Jordan, Dublin; P. Oghill and J. Walshe, Cork.

AMALGAMATION.

The Press Association understands that the special delegate conference of the National Union of Railwaymen to-day will seriously discuss a proposal for amalgamation with the Transport and General Workers' Union. If amalgamation is accomplished it will mean a total membership of well over half a million.

There is no suggestion that either the N.U.R. or the Transport Workers' Union will sink their identity if amalgamation becomes a practical proposition.

The Transport Workers' Union is understood to be prepared to discuss amalgamation, but it is an open question as to whether the conditions will be acceptable on both sides.

STRANGE SKELETONS FOUND.

BONES OF AN EIGHT-FOOT MAN.

Fossil remains of an eight-foot man and animals with 30-foot bones, reported to have been seen in Central America, are to be investigated by Mr. Gregory Mason of the University of Pennsylvania Museum.

These strange skeletons in Honduras have been described by Mr. P. L Vance, a New Orleans engineer and amatuer explorer, states Reuter.

Mr. Vance, who spent 23 years in the tropics, told Mr. Mason that he found fossilised bones between 30 and 35 feet long at Olanahito, Honduras. The "thing" to which they belonged had a skull about a yard long, huge hind legs and short front ones. Natives said it was the remains of "El Aubelo de Los Iguanas"—"The Grandfather of the Lizards."

Mr. Vance also said that bones of the "ball and socket" type, six to nine feet long, were seen in the bed of the Rio Colorado.

In a cave on the Hacienda of Don Mariana Leiva (ex-president of Honduras) in Barbara, he found on a rock platform eleven normal sized skeletons of human beings, and one which he judged to be that of a man about eight feet tall. Natives here told legends of the "sisimiti," a strange people, woolly like sheep, who frequented caves.

O'CONNELL BRIDGE TRAFFIC ARRANGEMENTS.

During the relaying of the tram lines on O'Connell bridge, it has been arranged by the Civic Guard authorities that vehicular traffic approaching from Bachelor's walk, and intended for Westmoreland street, will pass over to the eastern side of O'Connell Bridge, and then proceed.

Heavy vehicular traffic from places west of Grattan Bridge, and intended for the port, must approach by Bachelor's walk and Eden quay, or, alternatively, by Middle and Lower Abbey street.

Traffic leaving the port for places west of Grattan Bridge must proceed by way of Burgh quay and Aston's quay. These traffic arrangements will remain in force for at least three weeks, when the Dublin Corporation will start work, and new traffic regulations will probably be necessary.

CHURCH SERVICES.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL.—Morning Service at 10 o'clock. Psalm, 141. Benedictus, 5. Hymn, 525. Evening Service at 4 o'clock. Magnificat. Nunc Dimittis. Whitfeld in E. Anthem, "The path of the just," Roberts.

ON THE WIRELESS

Daily Programme Review

DUBLIN: "The Bear" (Tchekov), 8.10.

BELFAST: "The Music of Paul Rubens," 6.30.

B.B.C. NATIONAL: Promenade Concert (Berlioz-Strauss), 8.

NORTH REGIONAL: "The Mulberry Bush," 9.15.

STUTTGART: Orchestral Serenade, 10.25.

THE Berlioz-Strauss Promenade Concert from the Queen's Hall to-night is composed mostly of works by the former composer. The only Strauss item is the Burlesque for Pianoforte and Orchestra, which he composed at the age of twenty-one. It was first performed in 1890. The Berlioz items include three songs which Mephistopheles sings in "La Damnation de Faust," including "The Song of the Flea." The rest of the concert is composed of Berlioz's Symphonie Fantastique and the famous Marche Hongroise.

Gounod's "Faust" will be given on gramaphone records from Radio-Paris at 8 o'clock.

"S.O.S." BROADCASTS.

The B.B.C. announces that from September 1 it will discontinue broadcasting descriptions of missing persons—except in the case of an official message which the police may desire to have broadcast with a view to assisting them in the detection or prevention of crime. The cases in which a missing person has been traced have never risen much above one in every five, it is stated, and it is for this reason that the B.B.C. has decided to discontinue this service, but the service of broadcast messages designed to summon relatives of persons who are dangerously ill is to be continued.

TWO ELEPHANTS KILLED BY MISS DIANA GUEST.

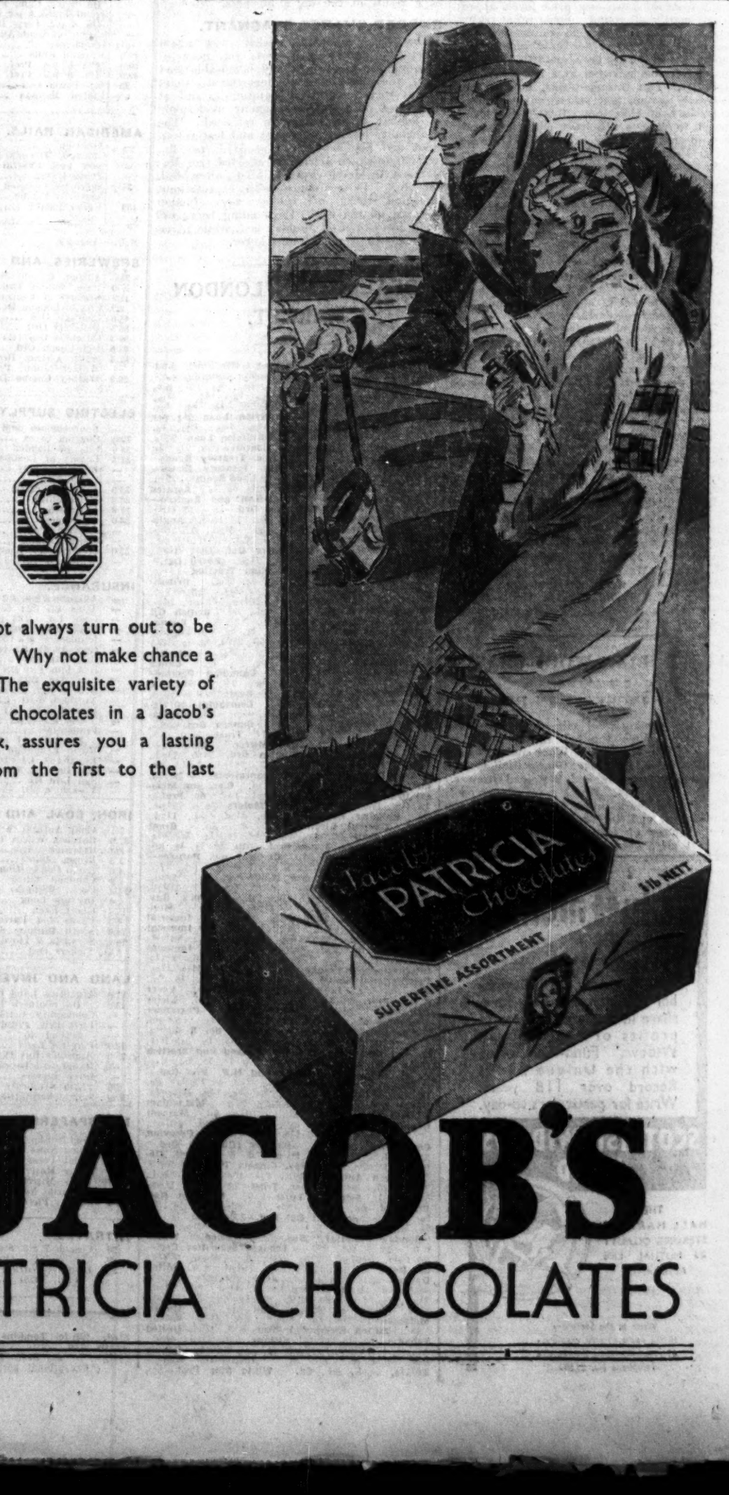

Miss Diana Guest, daughter of Captain the Hon. Frederick Guest, has returned in triumph to Nairobi after "bagging" two unusually fine elephants, with tusks weighing 125lbs. and 108lbs., during a high-speed safari with her father in East Africa.

Captain Guest also shot an elephant, its tusks weighing 125lbs. These are believed to be among the largest elephants remaining in the Voi district of Kenya, a favourite hunting ground of the Prince of Wales.

SPANISH FARMERS FINED.

Fines totalling 300,000 pesetas (£7,500) were imposed on farmers in the Province of Madrid because they employed farm hands from Galicia in the north during the recent harvest.

They thus, states Reuter, broke the Municipal Boundaries Law passed under the Republic, which forbids workers to take employment outside their own town or urban district.

COUNTY COUNCIL PROTEST.

THE APPOINTMENTS COMMISSION.

At a meeting of the Dublin County Council, held at 11 Parnell square last night, Mr. J. J. Shiel, Chairman, presiding, it was agreed, on the recommendation of the Finance and General Purposes Committee, to enter into an agreement with the Great Southern Railways Company to provide for the maintenance of overline bridge approach roads by the Council, as agents for the Railway Company, at the rate of 3.404 pence per square yard.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Mr. William Rollins moved the re-appointment of Mr. T. H. Downey to the Dublin Board of Health.

Mr. P. J. Fogarty said that he thought a Labour representative should be appointed.

Mr. J. J. Clare expressed the opinion that all County Councillors should be members of the Board of Health.

Mr. Dooge stated that the borough contributed £66,000 towards the rates, and had a right to be represented.

The Chairman (Mr. J. Shiel) said that the position was extremely difficult, with three Boards of Assistance and a Board of Health, and the Local Government Department had been asked to reconsider it.

On a division, Mr. Downey was elected.

Concerning the proposed minor drainage scheme of the Bog of the Ring, the Chairman pointed out that no communication had been received from the Local Government Department since December, 1932.

Mr. Mulvany said that after spending hundreds of pounds on previous schemes, they had been let down by the riparian owners.

Mr. Belton, T.D., said that they should have a rough-and-ready way of estimating the cost of such schemes. Then they could go to the people who would benefit and tell them what it would cost, and what they would have to pay. If these people objected, they could refuse to go on with the scheme, and other ratepayers would not have to pay preliminary expenses.

It was decided to ask the Local Government Department to explain the delay in replying to the Council's December letter.

LOCAL APPOINTMENTS.

Arising out of a letter from the Local Appointments Commission relative to Local Authorities (Officers and Employees) Act, 1926,

Mr. P. J. Fogarty moved a protest against the decision of the Local Appointments Commission to ask that one name only should be submitted for their sanction by local authorities. This was reducing local authorities to a rubber stamp. To his mind the Local Appointments Commission had centralised bribery and corruption in the country, instead of doing away with it.

Mr. J. P. McCabe supported this protest.

Mr. Mulvany opposed the motion. He thought the time would come when they would have to vote against the people in authority. According to the present situation Labour would have to decide whether there was going to be democracy or dictatorship by any party, and Labour was opposed to dictatorship in any form.

Mr. Dooge said that he was opposed to Mr. Fogarty's motion. When there were three applications the members were pestered with applicants. The best qualified person should be appointed without canvassing.

Mr. Luke Duffy suggested that the letter was inspired by the experience of the Local Appointments Commission during the past twelve months. When three names were submitted in the past not more than fifty per cent of the local authorities submitted three names.

Mr. Belton said he was sure that in making appointments the son or daughter of a Dublin ratepayer should be given the preference as against the son or daughter of a ratepayer one hundred miles away. When the present Government was in opposition they were promised that the Appointments Commission would be wiped out and the power of selection should be left to the local authority. The present Government was simply going back and doing what its predecessors had done. The Government was not increasing its prestige by trotting after the previous Government.

Mr. Rollins supported Mr. Fogarty, and said that the present Government was using tracing paper on what the previous Government had done. Democracy was the last thing thought of.

The Chairman said that he had always resented the slur on local authorities which the erection of the Local Appointments Commission meant.

Mr. Fogarty's motion was carried by 11 votes to 5, three members not voting.

AN APPLICATION.

Mr. Kevin Lawless's application for reinstatement was discussed at some length.

Mr. Belton said that as the present Government, when in opposition, had induced Kevin Lawless to refuse employment under certain conditions, they should find him a job now, and not throw the onus on the Dublin County Council.

Mr. Fogarty said that they were there to administer local government as they found it.

The matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

In connection with the reported difficulty of getting country patients into the Meath Hospital,

Mr. Rollins said that if the Government had any consideration for the sick poor they would have let the Rathdown Union have a loan of £20,000 to build their own hospital.

The Chairman said it showed that the proposed scheme for a unified hospital was the right one.

ECONOMIC SITUATION.

Mr. P. Belton, T.D., had a motion calling for a conference of the County Council and all bodies set up by it, officials and employés, ratepayers, deputies and Senators, to consider "the alarming economic situation in County Dublin as regards unemployment, and the farmers' inability to employ and to pay rates," and the proposal of the Government that Local Government bodies should reduce salaries and wages of officials.

Mr. Belton said that the motion should be passed unanimously or not at all, and on the suggestion of several members he agreed to have its consideration deferred until the next monthly meeting of the Council.

A KERRY POST.

NO APPLICATIONS.

At a meeting of Kerry Board of Health yesterday John Creedon, Ballylongford, was appointed Clerk of Works to Ballylongford Water Supply, subject to the approval of the Minister and Consulting Engineer.

The Board made an order that turf be used for fuel in all institutions in the county.

The Appointments Commissioners wrote that, after advertising on two occasions no application had been received for the position of ophthalmic surgeon. The Board decided that Dr. Horan, Tralee, be asked to accept the position, and in the event of his refusing to do so, that the County Medical Officer of Health write to specialists in other centres for their terms.

CHARGE OF ASSAULTING A CIVIC GUARD.

At a special Court at Letterkenny, yesterday, Stephen McElhinney, fruiterer, Letterkenny, and Andrew Sweeney, attendant at the Donegal Mental Hospital, were remanded on bail, charged with assaulting Guard P. Costigan while in the execution of his duty.

Thomas Daly, junior, Letterkenny, was also remanded on a charge of obstructing the Guard.

AUTUMN FLOWER SHOW.

A Flower Show to be held this autumn under the auspices of the South County Dublin Horticultural Society was decided upon by the Council of the Society at a meeting held in Dún Laoghaire last night. The meeting also had before it the financial report of the Summer Show, which was considered very satisfactory.

WRECK OF THE ROUSSALKA.

LORD MOYNE'S DESCRIPTION.

TRIBUTE TO THE CAPTAIN AND CREW.

LORD MOYNE, whose yacht, Roussalka, struck a rock off the West Coast of Ireland and was wrecked, arrived back in London yesterday. He was accompanied by one of the guests who was on the boat when it went down.

"Look at us," said Lord Moyne to a reporter when he left the train at Euston. "We are wearing all the clothes we could save from the yacht."

Lord Moyne was wearing grey flannel trousers and a tweed sports coat.

Telling the story of the wreck, Lord Moyne said: "The matter was in no way the fault of the captain. Visibility was extremely bad. A fog had quite suddenly shrouded or hidden the various rocks in that part, which is absolutely an archipelago of rocks. It had completely hidden the mainland, and rocks near by had almost disappeared.

BEARINGS TAKEN.

"An officer had taken bearings from the ship's standard compass on two objects which five minutes before the yacht struck the rocks showed us to be absolutely clear of all dangers.

"There are three possible explanations for the mishap—either that in the fog the objects from which bearings were taken had been wrongly identified; secondly, that the strong tidal currents had set us off our course; or, thirdly, that the rock was uncharted.

"The captain had no alternative but to go by the bearings marked on the chart from the information given him by the other officer. The captain was navigating the ship at the time of the mishap.

"He had taken his place on the bridge owing to the very intricate navigation that was necessary. When the ship struck he snatched the chart and took it away with him.

"We owe much to the splendid discipline of the crew. The captain had always made a great point of boat drill at frequent intervals, and this discipline stood us in good stead. Two motor boats, a cutter and a dinghy were all in the water within about three minutes of our striking the rock.

PET MONKEYS SAVED.

"When the ship struck the rock the captain put it astern so that she might sink on an even keel. She lies in about twelve fathoms of water with the tops of the masts showing.

"It was blowing half a gale, and a heavy sea was running. She went down so quickly that there was no question of lowering gangways for getting into the boats.

"We just stepped off the rail into the boats and so got away. Everything was quite orderly." At this point Lord Moyne bent down to stroke his two pet monkeys who had travelled over with him. "They behaved splendidly," said Lord Moyne. "They just clung to me."

POLICE ACTIVITY.

SEARCH OF DUBLIN MOUNTAINS.

About a fortnight ago it was stated publicly that a body of armed men had been for some time encamped in the vicinity of the Pine Forest, County Dublin. There appears to have been no confirmation of these statements, nor any information as to the State authorities having taken action to relieve public anxiety occasioned by them, although the fact was admitted that people were camping in several places in the hills.

On Sunday a body of police visited a number of camps in the neighbourhood of Glendhu, in the Dublin Mountains. They were accompanied by members of the Special Branch of the Detective Division, who, it is stated, made close inquiries, and also searched the mountains over a wide area. The authorities appear to have satisfied themselves as to the bona fides of the campers, and their search of the hills does not appear to have resulted in any discoveries of an unusual nature. No official statement was, however, vouchsafed in response to inquiries made yesterday.

"GIGANTIC FRAUD."

MR. ESMONDE ON THE ECONOMIC "WAR."

Addressing a public meeting, held at Boolavogue, County Wexford, Mr. O. Grattan Esmonde, T.D., said that he was satisfied that the economic "war" was one gigantic fraud and huge swindle to mislead the people. The Governments of Mr. de Valera and Mr. Ramsey Macdonald were actually more closely and intimately associated than any other two Governments in the world. They were in constant and daily communication with one another, and carried out many working agreements.

There was a private agreement between the two Governments on all questions of immigration and the admission and control of aliens, and passports; about the whole question of double taxation and the exchange of private Government information.

Mr. de Valera's Government and Mr. Ramsay Macdonald's Government share many secrets that the Irish people were not allowed to know.

In all his Finance Acts imposing new tariffs, Mr. de Valera put in a special clause to give imperial preference to the so-called British enemy over all other foreign countries.

"You are probably not aware," continued Mr. Esmonde, "that under Mr. de Valera's Government the Irish seaports give British ships preferance not only over foreign ships, but even over ships from the other parts of the Commonwealth. While the people of this country are told that they must fight the economic 'war' to the end, the two Governments are as thick as thieves. Thieves is the right word, as they are both ready to rob the Irish farmer."

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

TOLL OF STORM IN MAYO.

Sunday night was a night of terror for the people of Erris, County Mayo, where crops were destroyed and bridges swept away by the heavy rains. Several people were forced to flee from their homes near Glenesatle.

Rain fell in a deluge from mid-day until midnight in Erris, and all crops along the swollen rivers were ruined. Glenamoy bridge was swept away, dislocating traffic between Belmullet and Ballycastle.

Muingnabo bridge was also demolished, cutting off the countryside from Belmullet. Doovork bridge, Geesala, was also demolished.

With three rivers flowing into the inlet of the sea near Glencastle the sea rose to an abnormal height, and residents along the coast, as well as those on the sides of the rivers, left their homes in terror.

The Glencullen area has suffered an irreparable loss of crops as a result of the swollen river.

MEATH'S NEW COTTAGES.

The building of labourers' cottages in Co. Meath has at length been started. The building is going on very satisfactorily all over Meath, and the Meath Board of Health intend to have at least 150 cottages fit for habitation within four months. This will be a great boon to many labourers.

KERRY COMMISSIONER.

Miss K. Breen, Killarney, who is a member of the Food Prices Commission, was, at a meeting of the Kerry Board of Health yesterday, appointed Commissioner, subject to sanction, in room of Mr. D. J. Flavin, Listowel, whose resignation was accepted by the Department.

Heat Wave Causes Bush Fires.

BRIGADE CALLED TO GOLF COURSE.

YESTERDAY'S heat wave in England was marked by several heath and woodland fires, in which well-known beauty spots were involved. Twenty acres of Dingley Warren, the woodland Pytchley Hunt fox covert on Earl Beatty's estate, near Market Harborough, have been destroyed by a fire, which was still smouldering last night.

Villagers were fighting in addition a fierce blaze at Windmill Hill, a Leicestershire beauty spot near Woodhouse Eaves. They declared that it was the worst bush fire for thirty years. Dense pillars of smoke made the roads almost impassable. The windmill was untouched, and no further danger is anticipated, as the fire was brought under control.

Eton Fire Brigade were called yesterday to an outbreak on Eton College golf course. The sun is believed to have set the grass alight on the fairway, and the fire spread rapidly across the ninth green and set a hedge alight. The firemen saved a number of chicken houses near the hedge.

A six-acre field of long grass at Moreton, Essex, was set alight by the sun, and although at one time it appeared that there was a possibility of a public-house and some cottages being in danger, the fire burned itself out.

Two large expanses of firs and undergrowth in Epping Forest, close to the main road at Loughton, were set afire by the sun and extinguished by keepers and visitors.

The woodlands fire at Shining Cliff, near Matlock, has extended so rapidly that efforts to allay it have been abandoned. Last night it covered over a mile and a half square, and it was estimated that it may take days to burn out.

FOUR BRIGADES—FIVE MILES OF HOSE.

The Ascot Brigade was called to another big heath fire yesterday—the fifth in a fortnight. For a time several big houses were in danger.

"We were only just in time to save Swinley Wood, the residence of Sir Stephen Quin," one of the Brigade members said. "The flames reached within a dozen feet of the building, and nothing could have saved the house had we been ten minutes later."

It was found necessary to call the Brigades from Bagshot, Bracknell and Egham. Nearly five miles of hose were in use before the flames were mastered.

For nearly five hours yesterday Sheerness Brigade were fighting a grass fire which threatened a laundry and a private house at Minster, Sheppey.

The outbreak occurred in a cornfield, and the flames spread quickly, burning up the fences and hedges and involving two haystacks.

In the orchard at the house occupied by Commander Bromley the apples on the trees were roasted.

Six acres of undergrowth and trees were destroyed by fire yesterday at a wood near Warren End, Ickenham, Middlesex. The Fire Brigade extinguished the outbreak after four hours.

The woodlands fire at Shining Cliff, near Matlock, is believed to have originated through a smoker accidentally dropping a lighted match into the undergrowth. He stamped out the blaze, as he thought, but later it flared up again. Unless there is rain the fire may last another week before it dies out.

AERIDHEACHT AT BAGENALSTOWN.

LIST OF AWARDS.

BAGENALSTOWN, Monday.

Competitors from nearly every county in Leinster attended an Aeridheacht at Bagenalstown yesterday. Owing to the heavy rain many of the items had to be postponed, and all the dancing competitions had to be decided indoors. The dancing attracted a large entry, and was of a very high order. The Silver Cup, for the best pipers' band (open to all Ireland), was won by Carlow Pipers. An Irish-Ireland concert followed by an all-night Ceilidhe concluded the programme. The awards were as follows:—

Hornpipe and Reel (Open)—1, Miss M. Foley, Enniscorthy; 2, Miss C. Clifford, Carlow; 3, Miss E. Copeland, Carlow.

Junior Hornpipe and Reel (Open)—Miss J. Jordan, Enniscorthy, and Miss P. Power, Thomastown, tied; 3, Miss K. O'Brien, Enniscorthy.

Horapipe, Jig and Reel, for Silver Cup; gold medal for second—1, Miss Eileen Murphy, Bagenalstown; 2, Master Matthew Murphy, Bagenalstown.

Junior Jig and Reel—1, Miss Marian Casey, Bagenalstown; 2, Miss Maureen Brennan.

Junior Hornpipe and Reel—1, Master M. Doyle, Bagenalstown; 2, Miss E. Doyle, Bagenalstown.

KERRY'S RELIEF BILL.

£1,000 DECREASE.

At a meeting of the Kerry Board of Health at Killarney, Mr. J. Flynn, T.D., chairman, presiding, the auditor's report for the four half-years ended 31st March, 1931, 30th September, 1931, 31st March, 1932, and 30th September, 1932, was considered.

The report showed that a decrease of almost £1,000 had taken place in the payment of home assistance during the period from March, 1931, to September, 1932, the figures for the half-year ended 31st March, 1931, under this head being £7,953, and for the half-year ended 30th September, 1932, £6,977.

The auditor referred to the abnormal increase in the number and cost of treatment of special medical and surgical cases sent to Dublin and Cork hospitals. Payments under this heading increased from £754 in the half-year ended 30th September, 1932, to £1,205 8s. in the half-year ended 31st March, 1933.

The arrears of rent on 1,985 labourers' cottages for the half-year ended 31st March, 1933, was £11,194. From answers to queries put to rent collectors during the audit, it was clear that the large arrears had resulted more from the refusal than from the inability of the tenant to pay.

BURIED IN SAND-PIT.

MONAGHAN LABOURER'S ORDEAL.

Timely assistance by workmen saved the life of a young labourer named Phillip Gillick, who while standing on the brow of a sand pit at Nafferty, Co. Monaghan, where he was employed, slipped and fell in.

He fell twenty feet, and portion of the bank collapsed and completely covered him. Workmen immediately descended with shovels and extricated him. He was unconscious and suffered severe leg injuries. He is at present under medical treatment, but is progressing favourably.

QUESTION OF A REPUBLIC.

GENERAL MacEOIN AND MR. DE VALERA.

LONGFORD, Monday.

"IF President de Valera wants to proclaim a de jure Republic for 32 counties and a de facto Republic for 26 counties, he has my support every day in the week. If he does not do that, but tries instead to fool and humbug the people, and keep one leg in the Empire and the other out, he will not have my support; he will have my definite opposition," said General Sean MacEoin, T.D., at a meeting yesterday in Drumlish.

"There is no use in trying to humbug the Irish people," he continued. "We who accepted the Treaty did so on many grounds. One of them was that it was a distinct advance on the road to national freedom, and also an instrument capable of expansion. It vested all authority in the Irish people, and that the advances made under it were really substantial is proved by President de Valera's tribute to the Irish leaders who brought it to us when in the Senate he said, 'Advances have been made which I did not think possible in 1922.' The position in which we now find ourselves is that we have the fruits of the labours of Collins, Griffith, O'Higgins and Cosgrave and do not know how to use them, or we are afraid to use them.

GOVERNMENT'S RIGHT.

"We have the right to declare the Republic; there is no one to stop us or interfere with us in the exercise of our undoubted right. Why, then, did not President de Valera declare the Republic in 1932 or in 1933? Because he wanted to have revenge on a section of the Irish people. If he declared the Republic, as I told him in the Dail on the removal of the Oath, we would all support him, and the hardships that the people would suffer owing to the economic situation could not be put on the shoulders of Cosgrave, McGilligan or Hogan. He would not be able to pretend that all your troubles were due to the so-called pro-British policy of Cumann na nGaedheal and the Farmers' Party.

"To all intents and purposes the Treaty is gone; the Oath is gone; the King is gone. His Majesty has been shoved back into a small house outside Dublin in the person of His Excellency the Governor-General, who could not go to the Horse Show nor to the Mount Melleray celebrations, because the President told him to stay at home, and smoke his clay pipe, and walk through his garden in his unlaced boots. (Laughter.) But he costs you £10,000 a year salary, and an allowance of £2,500 a year for the upkeep of the little house and garden, while you also pay £3,500 a year for the Viceregal Lodge, in order to accommodate President de Valera's garden parties in honour of British visiting citizens, with whom we are supposed to be at war. Is it not time for us to put a stop to this humbugging, while you are called pro-Britishers if you say a word against it."

POSITION GROWING WORSE.

General MacEoin, referring to the promises of Fianna Fail at the last election to reduce taxation, provide employment, increase the value of the agricultural output, said that it was common knowledge that none of those things had materialised, but, on the contrary, the economic situation had been definitely growing worse every day. The President had said in the Dail that the British markets for Irish produce were gone for ever, and at the same a Trade Commissioner was employed in London to further Irish trade, and the Fianna Fail Government representatives had gone to Ottawa, and came back with what Davy shot in the lough.

A Voice—"Nothing." (Applause.)

General MacEoin—You know the position too well, unfortunately. You know the Public Safety Act is now in force. Now that it is the law it must be obeyed in operation, and I demand that in the name of the Irish people the law will be brought against all wreckers, and would-be wreckers, whether they wear a blue, green, red, hair, or any other shirt. (Laughter.)

TWO SOLUTIONS.

There were two solutions to the situation. One was that Fianna Fail should insist on the President declaring the Republic, de facto, for 26 counties, and the obligation would be on them to shape the economic situation, and Fianna Fail would be faced with the responsibility of finding alternative markets for Irish produce, or, secondly, the people should accept the policy of remaining in the Commonwealth. There was no middle road between the policy of Griffith, Collins, O'Higgins, and Cosgrave, with acceptance of the Treaty, and its rejection, which is sponsored by Miss McSwiney and Mr. Brian O'Higgins. If Fianna Fail refuses to do this before the next election, they should clear out of the way, and let those capable of doing it perform the work of restoring our markets, negotiating a financial settlement with England, based on the farmers' ability to pay, the creation of friendly relations between North and South, to ultimately result in the abolition of partition, and the impartial and unpersonal administration of the law. (Cheers.)

Mr. James Keane presided.

SCOTTISH MINERS

ASKING FOR WAGES INCREASE.

On September 11th the Scottish Coal Conciliation Board—a body representative of the Scottish miners and coal-owners—will meet in Glasgow to discuss a new wages agreement. The date of the meeting was agreed on at a meeting of the Executive of the National Union of Scottish Mineworkers in Glasgow yesterday.

When the parties meet a request will be put forward by representatives of the Scottish miners for an increase of wages to surface workers and lower-paid underground workers.

In conversation with a reporter yesterday, Mr. Andrew Clarke, President of the Scottish Miners' Union, said: "I am hopeful that we will come to some understanding on this point. The meeting of the Board will be a momentous one, fraught with special significance for all the miners in Scotland."

At yesterday's meeting a sub-committee was appointed representative of the Engine Keepers' and Boiler Firemen's Association and the National Union of Scottish Mineworkers, to make arrangements to combine throughout the Scottish coalfields and concentrate on the question of better organisation throughout the entire industry.

UNITED FARMERS' ASSOCIATION.

DEMAND FOR MORTGAGE MORATORIUM.

Our Thurles correspondent states that a meeting of the United Farmers' Protection Association, representing the counties of Tipperary, Clare, Limerick and Cork took place in the Confraternity Hall, Thurles, yesterday.

Resolutions were passed, calling on the Government to declare a moratorium in regard to mortgages held by banks on Irish farmers "until England ends her unjust war against the farmers," urging the Government to take control of currency, credit and banking, and place them in Irish hands.

A deputation was appointed to visit Mr. de Valera and ask that the resolutions should be made effective.

Mr. T. J. O'Donnell (who presided) said that the present banking system was the cause of all their economic ills, and must be changed. Mr. MacDermot (Leader of the Centre Party), he added, "had made the unfounded statement in the Dáil that their Association was Communistic and Bolshevist."

CORK FISHERMAN'S BODY FOUND.

The body of Maurice Walsh, fisherman, Ballycotton, Co. Cork, was found yesterday, a short distance from the place where his empty boat was located three weeks ago. Walsh was fishing in Ballycotton Bay, when, apparently, he was washed overboard by the rough sea. An inquest will be held to-day.

BEER RAIDERS ACTIVE.

DESTRUCTION IN WATERFORD.

PUBLICAN'S SEARCH FOR WRECKERS.

WATERFORD, Monday.

SEVERAL parties representing themselves as members of the "British Boycott Committee" were very active in Waterford on Saturday evening. Raids were carried out on public-houses in several parts of the city simultaneously, and in one case, at least, serious damage was done.

The men concerned were not disguised in any way, and it is stated that some of them were recognised as belonging to the city.

At 6.30 p.m., when the majority of the citizens were at tea and business was at its slackest, three men hurriedly entered the licensed premises of Mr. Robert Grace, Ballybricken, and asked if Bass were on sale, or if British show-cards were displayed. Without waiting for a reply from the barmaid the raiders produced hammers and began to smash all the bottles of Bass's ale on the shelves behind the counters. Between six and seven dozen bottles were destroyed.

WARNING NOTICE.

Three other men entered the premises of Mr. John Quinlan at the corner of Ballybricken and the Mayor's Walk, and snatched three Bass show-cards from the walls. When leaving they placed a notice on the counter before the barmaid. Mrs. Quinlan and a customer were the only other people in the shop. The notice, which was signed "British Boycott Committee," demanded the discontinuance of the sale of Bass and all British beers, ordered the removal of all British advertisements, and concluded with the words in block letters, "Support Irish Ales."

Mr. John Quinlan, the proprietor, who was absent from the shop at the time of the raid, on hearing what had occurred, gave chase to the intruders, accompanied by his brother, Councillor Nicholas Quinlan, a member of the Waterford Corporation, but the raiders made good their escape.

THE THIRD RAID.

Two large Bass advertisement bottles were taken from the public-house owned by Mr. John Carran, at the opposite end of the city, by a third party at about the same time.

There was much police activity in Waterford yesterday and to-day, and it is said that three people have been detained.

RAIDS IN CORK.

CORK, Monday.

Some licensed premises in Cork were visited by unknown parties, who removed advertisement signs referring to English beers.

FATAL STREET QUARREL.

MAN CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER.

Robert Anthony Clay (34), an unemployed labourer, formerly in the Royal Ulster Rifles, was charged at Newport, Isle of Wight, yesterday with the manslaughter of Alfred James Urry (48), woodworker, who died from a fractured skull following a street quarrel on August 19.

Urry was an only surviving son, three brothers having been killed at the Suvla Bay landing.

Margaret Irene Ash, licensee of a public-house, said that on being told that Clay was using other public-houses when he owed her money, she went and complained to him.

When she asked him if he had seen Urry in another public-house, Clay replied: "I have had enough of him. I am only waiting my chance to have him."

Medical evidence was that death was due to a fracture of the skull.

Henry Charles Phillips, a young labourer, said that when he and Clay left a public-house Clay told him he was looking for Urry. He saw Urry at a street corner, and, after a short argument, hit Urry a hard blow in the face with his fist. Urry fell, struck his head on the pavement, and became unconscious.

They carried Urry to a seat, where Clay gave him a drink of water and washed the blood from his face. Urry partly regained consciousness, and they assisted him home, changed his clothing, and left him apparently asleep in a chair.

About twenty young men from various parts of Leix and Offaly, who, it is stated, have been called up as recruits for the Civic Guard, attended at Divisional Headquarters at Maryborough on Saturday. The local authorities are reticent about the matter, but it is understood that these men are being recruited for the regular force.

IRAQI REVOLT SEQUEL.

PROMOTION FOR ARMY.

MILITARISM SWEEPS POPULACE.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

BAGDAD, Monday.

ALL Iraqi officers engaged in the recent operations against the Assyrians are to be granted promotion, according to a proposal which is being considered by the Ministry of Defence. These include the commanding officer, Bekir Sidky Bey, whose actions have been much criticised in the British and foreign Press.

Public feeling in Iraq is at the moment decidedly militaristic, as was shown by the recent enthusiastic reception given to the Iraqi troops on their return to Bagdad, and the new promotions would be popular.

The Crown Prince, the Emir Hgazi, and the Prime Minister are now in Mosul attending a special army parade.

Bekir Sidky Bey is an intelligent and forceful officer, who was trained for a few years in London as member of an Iraqi military mission.

MASSACRE STORY.

During the recent operations against the Assyrians it was stated that five hundred or more had been killed and that some of them had been put to death in cold blood at the orders of Bekir Sidky Bey, in command of the operations. It was stated that he had ordered the shooting of fourteen unarmed Assyrians, and that there were other similar incidents.

It was also alleged that the excesses had been carried out by Kurdish irregulars under the Bey's command, and that these tribal enemies of the Assyrians had been especially enlisted to deal with the rising.

The British authorities took a serious view of the reports, and made strong representations to King Feisal that an inquiry should be held into the way in which the Assyrians had been treated. King Feisal promised that there would be such an investigation, and Sir Francis Humphrys, the British Ambassador, interrupted his holiday to return to Bagdad.

URGING CLAIMS FOR BEET FACTORIES.

LONGFORD DEPUTATION TO WAIT ON MINISTER.

A conference of delegates from Longford County Council, Longford Urban Council, and Granard Urban Council, at Longford, passed a resolution asking the responsible Minister to consider County Longford as a suitable centre for the establishment of a beet factory. A deputation was appointed to interview the Minister on the matter.

Mr. Clancy, B.Sc., county agricultural instructor, said that, apart from a particular section of the northern part of the county, County Longford was admirably suited for the growth of beet. A three years experimental cropping he had carried out in South Longford was eminently successful.

Mr. Victory, T.D., said that in the Carlow area the sugar content of the crop had been increased from 15 per cent. at the beginning to 17½ per cent., and the managing director of the factory had stated that no other country in Europe could grow beet with so high a sugar yield.

Mr. R. Belton—And Longford has beaten that with a yield of 19½ per cent. in New towncashel.

At the quarterly meeting of the Meath County Council a report was read from a meeting of the Louth, Meath, Monaghan and Cavan beet growers, stating that it was unanimously agreed that the object of the organisation should be to secure a factory in a place most advantageous to the various interests in the four counties, and, since so many suitable sites for a factory may be found within the boundary of those counties, that it would be a mistake to concentrate on naming any one centre.

It was felt that the organisation should rather leave the question of the site to be selected by the authorities concerned, and that there was every reason to believe that no difficulty existed in having more than enough beet grown within the four counties.

Reference was made to the disastrous effect which the present economic "war" had on the cattle industry in County Meath.

A deputation had been appointed to wait on the Minister for Agriculture, and to point out the position as affecting the various County Councils.

Mr. Patrick Hopkins, a member of the deputation, said that their case was very favourably considered, and he had great hopes of getting a factory in Meath.

Thurles Creamery, situated a short distance outside the town, was entered on Saturday night and a sum of £12 was taken. Some account books were also removed.

SLIGO GIRL SAVED.

BRAVE RESCUE FROM SEA.

While bathing at Rosses Point, Sligo, yesterday, Miss Peggy Mulligan, daughter of Mr. C. J. Mulligan, Sligo, got into difficulties and was carried out by a current.

Her cries for help attracted the attention of Mr J. Moffat, of Rosses Point Post Office, who, fully clothed, swam to her aid, and succeeded in bringing her ashore.

Miss Mulligan was unconscious when brought ashore, but after treatment she fully recovered.

PROSECUTION AT CARRICKMACROSS.

CARRICKMACROSS, Monday.

When the charge came on for hearing at Carrickmacross District Court to-day against a young man named Bernard Joseph Culleton, Mullinary, Carrickmacross, of being concerned in a fraudulent attempt, on July 18th last, to import into the Free State at Ballybinnigby, Co. Louth, a motor car, in respect of which the Customs duty had not been paid,

Mr. J. J. Keenan, State Solicitor, Monaghan, intimated that since the special Court from which Culleton was remanded, the Revenue Commissioners decided that proceedings should be taken against Mr. Patrick Conlon, Mullinary, Carrickmacross, whom he understood to be a cattle dealer, in connection with the smuggling of this car.

The Revenue Commissioners were of the opinion that both cases should be dealt with at the same Court.

The Justice agreed to an adjournment, and the defendant was remanded on continuing bail of £200 and two sureties of £100 each.

NEWS SUMMARY.

IRELAND.

General O'Duffy returned to Dublin last night from Cork.—(Page 7.)

Many of the drivers who will take part in next Saturday's Tourist Trophy Race over the Ards course have arrived in Belfast, and practices will begin to-day.—(Page 7.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

Six fire brigades were engaged for five hours last night on a fire which involved six business premises and two garages at Evesham, Worcestershire. Petrol and paraffin tanks were emptied to avert explosions.—(Page 11.)

ABROAD.

Mr. Montagu Norman, Governor of the Bank of England, had an important meeting with President Roosevelt yesterday, presumably on the future of the pound and the dollar.—(Page 7.)

Lord Willingdon, speaking at a dinner in Simla, referred to the future of India, and recalled his own efforts on behalf of Home Rule for Ireland.—(Page 7.)

The indignation of the Swiss people over the repeated violation of their frontier by German officials rose to boiling point yesterday, and a formal protest has been sent to Berlin.—(Page 8.)

FINANCIAL.

London Stock Markets were firm, and quotations in many departments advanced sharply. "Kaffirs" and British Rails were outstanding features of strength.—(Page 3.)

Gold fell 7½d. to 128s. 8½d. per oz. fine, and £250,000 in the market was taken for the Continent. Loan and discount rates were stiffer.—(Page 3.)

The End of Prohibition.

Prohibition in the United States probably will have ceased to exist within another three months. Twenty-three States, out of a necessary quota of thirty-six, already have voted for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. They include some of the States which fourteen years ago were the standard-bearers of prohibition—Indiana, Alabama and Texas. Of the twenty-five which have not yet voted the great majority are expected to decide in favour of repeal; in fact, the general opinion is that only two—Kansas and North Carolina—are likely to retain their faith in prohibition. Already the distilleries and breweries of the world are humming with high expectation. The whiskey trade both here and in Scotland looks to the West for an improvement in its fortunes, impaired by the heavy Excise duties that have reduced the consumption of whiskey in these islands. The wine-growers of France, Germany and Spain are brimful of hope—although they doubt if the American palate, hardened by fourteen years of "rot-gut," will take kindly at first to the soft outpressings of the grape. Contracts already have been signed for supplies of German and British beer to the United States—but here, again, it is possible to be too sanguine; for the United States' tariff on imported beer is greater than the actual price of beer in Ireland or England. Yet the eagerness of the liquor-makers on this side of the Atlantic, whether justified or not, is sufficient evidence of the general feeling that the "noble experiment" is coming to a close.

Some States were "dry" long before the Eighteenth Amendment was considered in Congress; and these States, in all probability, will remain "dry," or, at least, will retain a modified form of prohibition. The rest of the country before 1919 was one of the "wettest" communities on earth; every city outside the "dry" areas was overrun with saloons, which plied a day and night trade that any public-house over here might envy. We cannot suppose that these saloons will return in their old numbers and prosperity; for it is inconceivable that America's long abstinence has not revealed some of the merits, as well as all the disadvantages, of prohibition. In some States the liquor trade may become the monopoly of private corporations, according to the system which keeps Sweden a sober country; it may be controlled directly by the State Government, or it may be allowed to flourish almost at will, subject only to certain restrictions in the matter of closing hours—the practice followed in the British Isles. At all events, the United States hardly will recover its old reputation as the barman's paradise. It will be a more sober country after next November than it was before 1919.

Looking back over the history of prohibition in the United States, most people will judge that it was not a success. The initial mistake was to put it into operation immediately after the Great War, at a time when the virtues of steady citizenship were at a discount. In the next place, the United States was too large a field for such an experiment, and the law simply could not be enforced. The practical result of prohibition has been to encourage a wholesale disregard of law. People who, in the normal course of events, never would have drunk to excess have learned to carry their hip-flasks under the shadow of the Eighteenth Amendment. Furthermore, prohibition has forced into existence a huge army of illegal suppliers, who constitute a very grave menace to America's internal peace. Directly or indirectly, three-quarters of the serious crimes which disgrace the United States to-day—it is estimated that one American in every three hundred is concerned in crime—can be attributed to the traffic in illegal liquor. One of the most formidable problems that confront President Roosevelt will be the disbandment of this undesirable army. Some of its personnel will be absorbed in the legalised drink trade, but a great part must remain to trouble the country for a long time. The last fourteen years, and the next fourteen years, in the United States will provide highly important material for the sociologist.

Albania and Italy.

If it is true that history repeats itself, the present situation in Albania is a matter of grave concern. A few years before the Great War the Powers took a lively interest in Albania's fate. The German Prince, William of Wied, was raised to the throne, and kept some measure of peace for a time; but the troubles in Albania immediately after the Balkan War of 1913 heralded the greater conflict that was to convulse the world. Then the protagonists were Serbia and Austria; now they are Yugoslavia and Italy. The Southern Slavs still regard alien possession of Albania as a threat against their independence. Ever since the War Italy has had her eye on Albania—because its possession ultimately will have a decisive influence on the control of the Adriatic. In one of its many weak moments the League of Nations allowed Italy to assume a protectorate over the little Kingdom, and five years ago King Zogu, a former Premier, assumed the royal title. For a time the young king obeyed Italian orders according to plan; but of late he has been becoming rather difficult to handle, and has been arrogating to himself some of the rights of a real monarch. Signor Mussolini, therefore, has decided to bring King Zogu sharply to book. He has sent him a Note, which almost amounts to an ultimatum, demanding early compliance with eight Italian demands. The Italian Foreign Office denies that this document is an ultimatum, while admitting that "negotiations" are in progress; but the text has been published in Belgrade, and, if it is not an ultimatum, Austria's fateful Note to Serbia in 1914 was merely a billet doux. No country that placed the least value on its independence could accept such demands. Signor Mussolini insists that all officials in the Albanian service who are not either Italians or have been trained in Italy must be dismissed. All Albania's fortifications, aerodromes and war stores must be sold to Italy. Sir Jocelyn Percy, the British Chief of Police, and his British subordinates must be replaced by Italians; all existing commercial treaties must be abrogated, and in future such matters must be left in Italy's hands. The Italian language must be made compulsory in secondary schools, and the French gymnasium at Kortcha must be replaced by an Italian institution. King Zogu has refused flatly to accept four of these demands. The next move, apparently, lies with the League of Nations; but in the meanwhile Italy's pretensions are causing much uneasiness throughout South-Eastern Europe.

Woodland Fires.

Within the last few days large areas of English woodland and common-land have been ravaged by fire. Unfortunately, the harm has been worst in places that are famed for their scenic charm. Some two acres were damaged in Hainault Forest, the Essex beauty spot. A fire in undergrowth at Epping narrowly missed an isolation hospital. The Fairlight Hills, at Hastings, were threatened by an outbreak which destroyed several acres of gorse. A part of Ham Common, between Richmond and Kingston, was damaged last Saturday. Three-quarters of a mile of woodland have been ablaze for a week near Matlock, and twenty men are fighting the flames day and night. No malicious origin is suspected for these fires, which are attributed mainly to the carelessness of visitors. England's magnificent summer has brought unprecedented crowds of city-folk into the countryside. Motor cars are parked by thousands in fields and by-ways, and the rural landscape is studded with tent-encampments and caravans. Furthermore, a glorious succession of hot suns has baked the soil; gorse and grass-land have assumed the quality of tinder, and the leaves on many sorts of trees are already sapless. In these circumstances the frequent fires are explained easily. Casual visitors, "out for" enjoyment, are apt to be careless; too many of them forget that the unextinguished embers of a picnic fire, a burning match or a half-smoked cigarette thrown into a bush, not only can mean loss of somebody's money, but can destroy the delight of some enchanted spot for thousands of future visitors. Ireland, too, is a sufferer in this respect. Of late frequent gorse fires have mutilated the splendid scenery of Howth, and one of them nearly involved one of the most gracious houses on the Hill. On many recent days also a pall of disfiguring smoke has hung southward over the Dublin Mountains. The remedy, if it is to be found at all, must be found in an improved sense of civic responsibility. The Irish man or woman who, through carelessness or selfishness, mars any aspect of Ireland's beauty is unworthy of her citizenship.

Young Gangsters.

A disquieting feature of life in Great Britain during the past year or two has been the growth of the "gangster habit" among boys and young men. Often it begins harmlessly enough. Boys everywhere tend to form themselves into rival and secret groups, whose antics are troublesome; but in these days the habit is apt to persist, and reproduces itself on a larger and more destructive scale. Dr. H. T. P. Young, the Medical Officer of Health for Wormwood Scrubbs Prison, has published some sidelights on the subject in the British Medical Journal, where he takes a serious view of the new habit. The cases, he says, of 1,000 young offenders were studied; they included thirty groups or gangs, in which three or more lads were concerned together, numbering in all 100 cases. Dr. Young has made an elaborate study of the influences which have encouraged these boys to associate for purposes of crime; but his conclusions need not concern us. The point is that this ebullition of gang work among the youth of Great Britain is causing genuine anxiety—particularly since it coincides with the outbreak of various other forms of crime, including "car banditry" and "smash-and-grab" raids. In some ways the growth of these juvenile gangs is more sinister than the breaches of law by their elders. The latter can be suppressed, in a normally law-abiding country like England, with fair ease; but the taint of crime, when it has once obtained a hold upon the young mind, is dislodged only by a hard and slow process. Experts differ on the extent to which the prevalence of the gangster film moulds a boy's outlook; but they cannot deny that crime to-day is being presented to the young as a romantic affair. It would be worth while to try the effect of a stricter supervision of such films before the gang habit becomes more widespread.

FRENCH MOROCCAN SURRENDER.

END OF THE GREAT ATLAS CAMPAIGN.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

RABAT, Monday.

With to-day's surrender of Ou Skounti, the "diehard" Berber chieftain, French forces have won over completely the dissident tribesmen of the Jebel Badou, which they have been fighting in their conquest of the Atlas region.

Ou Skounti, the last of the Berbers to resist the French, was reduced to a choice of dying of thirst in the arid district of the Great Atlas or of surrendering his weakened force of 110 fighting men. The men, women, and children remaining with him in his last desperate stand only numbered 500. He had been hemmed in on all sides by the French; his stronghold reduced to a few acres of rocky barren tableland.

Coincident with the surrender of Ou Skounti is the submission of 43 families in the Tadla region to French authority. These operations complete the pacification of French Morocco, with the one exception of the anti-Atlas region in the extreme south.

COURT AND PERSONAL.

The Queen left Harewood House yesterday morning for Balmoral, where she and the King will be in residence for some time.

MR. MacDERMOT AND THE GOVERNMENT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I think that Mr. MacDermot deserves a mild rebuke for a statement of his which appears in your columns to-day, to the effect that "there had already been occasions on which the Government would have been defeated in the Dail except for poor attendance on the part of the Opposition." I have looked up the records of the House for the last session, and I find that out of 177 divisions I (a humble common backbencher of the Opposition) voted against the Economic War-Government 161 times. During the same period Mr. MacDermot only voted against the Government 60 times (out of 177). In other words, it may well be argued that—by almost exactly two to one—the cold figures of the division lists go to prove that Mr. MacDermot either actively supported or passively assisted the Economic War-Government throughout the whole of the last session since the general election.

Whether his reasons for so doing were good or bad, I do not think he can criticise with much authority the "poor attendance of the Opposition."—Yours, etc.,

O. GRATTAN ESMONDE.

Hemsworth (Yorkshire) Joint Hospital Committee were informed yesterday that there were two cases of spotted fever in the local hospital. One is that of a ten weeks old child, and the other a seventeen-year-old girl.

THE QUEEN.

JOURNEY TO BALMORAL.

The Queen left Harewood House yesterday by motor car, on her way to Scotland. She was accompanied by the Earl of Harewood as far as Harrogate, whence she travelled by train.

The Queen arrived at Aberdeen at 5.3 p.m. in a special saloon, attached to the first portion of the afternoon train from Edinburgh. She was welcomed at Aberdeen by Lord-Provost H. Alexander, and was presented with a basket of roses by the Lady Provost.

During the halt the Queen chatted in her carriage with the Lord and Lady Provost. A large crowd gathered on an adjacent platform to catch a glimpse of Her Majesty.

MYSTERY OF CAPE FLIGHT ATTEMPT.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

The mystery of the disappearance of Carl Nauer, the Swiss airman, has not been solved. Nauer left Cape Town on August 4th in an attempt to break Mrs. Mollison's "record" for the flight to England. No news was heard of him after he left Mossamedes, in Portuguese West Africa, on August 7th.

A search for him was organised, the Swiss Government guaranteeing expenses.

The Swiss Consul here has received information which he has accepted as definitely establishing that Herr Nauer has been drowned. A Swiss lady invalid, Madame Ecneider, states that she was sitting on her verandah on August 10th, when she saw an object descend three miles away, off the mouth of the Congo River. It floated thirty minutes before disappearing, she said.

This report confirms previous theories that Nauer had been drowned, and the Swiss Consul has accepted it as conclusive.

BITTER ABOUT BODY-LINE BOWLING.

TEST CRICKETERS' VIEWS.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

SYDNEY, Monday.

"We must have no body-line bowling in junior cricket. There is nothing that would smash it more quickly," said Alan Kippax, the Australian Test cricketer and captain of New South Wales, at the annual meeting of the City Houses' Cricket Association.

"It takes all the art and science from the game, and on concrete and matting wickets it is nothing short of murder," he added.

Kippax said that if "body-line" bowling were allowed to continue the Australian youth would drift into some other sport, such as lawn tennis or surf bathing, preferring to swim than to be bashed about on the cricket field.

"One ambulance officer on Moore Park told me," continued Kippax, "that the first Saturday after the exhibition of 'body-line' bowling at the cricket ground the number of casualties treated was three times the number of any previous playing day."

Another famous Australian Test player, C. G. Macartney, speaking at the same meeting, said that he would prefer to call it "intimidation" not "body-line." The term "body-line" could never be successfully proved in a court of law, because the only man who could tell you was the bowler—and he would not.

"Therefore, if you call it intimidation, you cover the same ground and you mean the same thing. It is a menace to the game and should be dropped. The juniors can set a wonderful example to all cricketers by having nothing whatever to do with it," he added.

Dr. E. P. Barbour, a former New South Wales Selector, speaking at the annual meeting of the University Cricket Club, said that he did not agree that an Australian team must go to England next year at any cost. A satisfactory arrangement must be reached before our team goes home, he said.

Dr. Barbour added that in his opinion the whole body of cricketers in Australia was behind the Board of Control, and that the Board was acting correctly in standing up for its rights.

BY-ELECTION NEWS.

CLAY CROSS.

Interest in the Clay-Cross by-election is increasing. The polling takes place on Friday next.

Mr. Moores, the National candidate, descended a pit yesterday, and in addition to his usual round of meetings addressed miners at the pithead at Danesmoor Colliery.

Mr. Pollitt, Communist, yesterday claimed that the fight was between Mr. Henderson and himself. No worker, he said, takes any notice of the National candidate, and his advocacy of capitalist remedies.

Mr. Edwards (General Secretary of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain), speaking on behalf of Mr. Henderson at Pilsley, yesterday, asked whom Mr. Pollitt represented in the contest. Cut out all the camouflage, he said, and you will find that he represents the Third International of Moscow. If Mr. Pollitt were elected he would not represent his constituents, as, according to the constitution of the Third International, he is answerable not to his constituents, but to the Communist Party.

EAST FULHAM.

It was announced yesterday that the name of Lieut.-Colonel Sir Martin Archer-Shee, the former Conservative member for Finsbury, will be before the local association when the selection of an official Conservative candidate in the East Fulham by-election is considered.

The by-election has been caused by the death of Colonel Sir Kenyon Vaughan-Morgan.

Sir Martin Archer-Shee is known to be a critic of the Government's India policy, as set out in the white paper. It is unlikely that there will be a meeting of the local association before October.

PRINCE'S HOLIDAY AT BIARRITZ.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

BIARRITZ, Monday.

The Prince of Wales, who is on holiday here, is particularly gratified that his wishes not to be disturbed are being respected. He continues to enjoy his golf and sea bathing.

Several parties in the Prince's honour have been organised by personal friends, and last evening he invited some twenty friends to dine with him at a well-known restaurant here, while the Casino Jazz Band played for them.

THE DUKE OF YORK ON THE MOORS.

The Duke of York, who is the guest of the Earl of Moray at Darnaway Castle, Morayshire, had excellent sport in delightful weather on the moors yesterday.

THE BRITISH PREMIER.

Mr. Ramsay Macdonald, who is at Lossiemouth, was busy at work yesterday morning. He spent the afternoon in visiting friends.

LONDON LETTER.

PROFESSOR MOLEY RESIGNS.

59 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
MONDAY NIGHT.

Little surprise was caused in diplomatic circles here at the announcement that Professor Raymond Moley, the United States Assistant Secretary of State, had resigned his post in Mr. Roosevelt's Government. The professor came to London for the World Economic Conference with great ideas—presumably inspired by the President—but no sooner had he arrived than it became apparent that he could do nothing with them, and he left London, greatly disappointed and annoyed at the position in which he had been placed. His return was expedited. He had announced his intention to pay a visit to the Irish Free State before he went home, but was compelled to abandon it. The professor, who for some time past has been one of the President's principal and most trusted advisers, will now be quite outside the White House circle.

The French Exchange.

The erratic movements of the French Exchange have compelled attention in the city, where speculators are now selling pounds, as well as dollars, against francs, and a rumour says that a syndicate is bearing the pound. Big blocks of sterling have been offered, but at the moment there is little support. Francs for forward delivery command such a substantial premium over spot that it has become profitable for London financial interests to place further sums in French Treasury bills, and big lines of these have come to Lombard street, where the yield is as much as 2½ per cent. At the same time, the situation is very delicate for the speculator, and those who look for a further sharp fall in the pound in terms of French francs must be careful. The Exchange Equalisation Account has not yet shown its hand, and it almost certainly will support the pound if speculators press sales too heavily.

Insanitary Settlements.

Some little time ago public attention was drawn to the condition of a number of holiday camps, caravan grounds and other settlements around the coast. Some of them were said to be most insanitary, and, in cases, they were dangerous to health. Since then inspectors of Urban and Rural Councils throughout the country have been seeking busily for unsatisfactory or insanitary camps, and the evidence that they have secured will be placed before the Minister of Health. Some glaring examples of destruction—particularly on the Yorkshire coast—also have come to light, and a plea for stronger power to impose regulations for camps generally has been made to Sir E. Hilton Young, the Minister of Health, through the Rural Districts Councils' Association. A bill has now been drafted, and will be considered by the Cabinet next month.

The Pig Plan.

In agricultural quarters it is stated that the first contract prices for pigs under the new scheme will be announced by the middle of next month, and it is thought possible that the first contract period will begin on November 1st. As this will be in the nature of an experiment, the period will be comparatively short, and the real testing time will come next year. Pig-producers, however, will now be in a position to make their plans for the future, and foreign bacon imports will be regulated in advance according to the home production promised, so that the greater the home production the smaller will the quota be.

Mr. Shaw's New Play.

"The Wandering Jew" has just been revived at the Prince's Theatre by Mr. Matheson Lang with great success, after its thirteen years' absence from London. This production will be followed by a new play by Mr. G. Bernard Shaw. The theme of his play, "On the Rocks," deals with politics, and the scene is placed in Downing street, with the Prime Minister as the chief character. Mr. Shaw says that there is a great deal of talk in the play, but he hopes to keep it within a margin of three hours. It has two female characters, one of whom is a doctor from South Africa, possessing Communist views. Mr. Shaw is having his new play produced at the Prince's Theatre, in order to help the movement to secure "star" casts in good plays at low prices.

The Colorado Beetle.

Nearly a week has elapsed since the Ministry of Agriculture declared war on the Colorado beetle, owing to the appearance of the specimen on an allotment at Tilbury; but since then nothing further has been seen or heard of the pest. The Ministry of Agriculture issued a warning against the danger from the beetle, and asked that anything answering its description should be sent to London. There has been a rather poor response to the invitation, and, though a number of match boxes have contained insects, all are innocent, and there has been no trace of the Colorado beetle. The Ministry of Agriculture is now rather hopeful that the Tilbury specimen was solitary; for the whole district for miles round has been inspected carefully, without result.

Mrs. Wills-Moody's Defeat.

The defeat of Mrs. Helen Wills-Moody by Miss Helen Jacobs, in the final of the United States Women's Singles Championship, was not quite unexpected here. It was noticed in Paris over a year ago that Mrs. Wills-Moody was forced to put up a strenuous fight to avoid defeat by Fraulein Krahwinkel and Mdme. Mathieu, and there was some surprise later that she was able to get through Wimbledon so well. No lawn tennis champion can reign for ever, and it appears that about seven years is the limit of rule. Mrs. Lambert Chambers won the Wimbledon title on seven occasions, while Suzanne Lenglen also had a reign of seven years. Mr. H. R. Macdonald, writing on the subject in the Evening News to-day, says that Mrs. Wills-Moody's exit—for this is what her defeat by Miss Jacobs seems to be—was not quite in keeping with her grandness; to retire when your opponent is within a few games of victory is one of the unforgivable sins of lawn tennis.

The Channel Islands.

The autumn meeting of the National Assembly of the Church of England will gain interest from the fact that for the first time a member directly representing the Channel Islands will be present. These islands, which originally were in the French Diocese of Coutances, were transferred in the middle of the fifteenth century by Act of Parliament to Salisbury, and shortly afterwards to Winchester. Disputes were many until Queen Elizabeth decided that they were to be ruled in matters ecclesiastical by the Bishop of Winchester. In consequence of the many changes in the islands the legal position has been difficult, and they have been left out of many Church reforms. As a result, a number of the measures passed by the National Assembly could not be applied until the Assembly decided to set up a commission to consider the relation of the islands to the rest of the country. Later, measures were passed providing for the representation of the islands in the House of Laity, and a representative has been selected to represent Jersey in the person of Mr. V. J. Bailhache.

During the two weeks that Mr. Washington Singer has been at his Devonshire residence at Leighon Manaton, near Newton Abbot, his condition has shown steady progress. Yesterday he had so far improved that he was able to spend half an hour in his garden.

MR. NORMAN'S TALK WITH MR. ROOSEVELT.

THE FUTURE OF THE POUND AND THE DOLLAR.

WORLD REACTION TO NEW GOLD CRISIS.

MEETING WILL CLARIFY POSITION OF U.S. ADMINISTRATION.

THE new crisis in the world's gold position gave greater significance than usual to the movements of Mr. Montagu Norman, Governor of the Bank of England, who is at present in America.

Yesterday he was the principal guest at a luncheon given by the Federal Reserve Bank, at which, in addition to the Governor of the Federal Reserve Board and the Secretary to the Treasury, several leading Wall Street bankers were present.

Afterwards he left with Mr. Harrison, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, for the country residence of President Roosevelt at Hyde Park, for a tea party à trois.

It was expected that during the conversations an earnest plea for some sort of temporary stabilisation of the dollar-sterling exchange would be made.

Official circles, however, are at pains to stress that the meeting is at the suggestion of Mr. Harrison, and that it in no way implies that any change is pending in American financial policy.

The meeting should, at least, clarify the attitude of the Administration towards early stabilisation of the dollar, and it is possible that it will not be wholly without effect in determining its future policy on the vexed question of monetary inflation.

BOOM DEALINGS ON THE RAND.

How the world is taking the new crisis in the gold position is shown by the following Reuter messages:—

Johannesburg, Monday — Johannesburg went mad this morning when the Stock Exchange opened, and frenzied dealings took place.

Gamblers, speculating on a further rise in the price of gold, bought heavily, but profit-taking limited the rise in prices at high 'change.

Dealings were more exciting than at the height of the boom in January. Brokers, however, were nervous, because the reasons for the rise in the price of gold are unknown here. Cautious investors, fearful of some European collapse, sold their holdings.

GUILDER FEAR GONE.

Amsterdam, Monday—The price of gold is rising slightly owing to the decline in the dollar and sterling since Friday. The ten guilders coin was at 10.8 to-day, after being at 10.03 last week: but there is no question of renewed gold hoarding or of gold being bought by foreign buyers.

Sterling was being quoted at 7.915 this afternoon owing to end-of-the-month liquidations.

Last week's buying of sterling was caused by fear for the guilder, which has now disappeared. The rise in the price of gold is very small compared with the quotation of 10.50 some months ago.

NOTE HOARDING.

Paris, Monday — French financial authorities are watching the movement of the dollar and pound with an eagle eye. They do not disguise the ultimate danger to the franc, remote though that may be to-day.

The British policy of following the dollar in the interest of British trade is fully appreciated here, but the question arises how long French foreign trade can stand up against the depreciation of the two Anglo-Saxon currencies.

Some reassurance is found in the statement to-day by the Governor of the Bank of Belgium, at the annual general meeting of the Bank, that the gold currency countries are in a position to keep on gold.

At the same time, the threat to the franc and other gold currencies admittedly exists.

There is little speculative activity on the Paris Stock Exchange, but not less than there has been for the past year. The French tendency to hoard is certainly stimulated by their nervousness, but it does not appear to have assumed vastly increased proportions. What is hoarded incidentally is notes, not gold.

STERLING SLUMP.

NEW YORK, Monday.—The twelve cents slump in sterling to-day is attributed to various causes, among which are the sale of British Government Bonds, stabilisation rumours, and the impending French Budget.

NORMAN-ROOSEVELT MEETING.

NO REACTION IN WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, Monday.

Wall street has so far not shown the slightest interest in the meeting at Hyde Park to-day between President Roosevelt, Mr. Montagu Norman, Govrnor of the Bank of England, and Mr. G. L. Harrison, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. This apathy is possibly due to the mystery with which the Hyde Park "tea-party" has been shrouded.

There was no reaction on the foreign exchange market, which displayed only very slight activity. In Washington Government fiscal authorities displayed the keenest interest, but professed complete ignorance of the aim of the meeting, declaring that they would have to await a disclosure from Hyde Park or from Mr. Norman. The British Embassy was equally lacking in information.

The President is represented as being still opposed to stabilisation, but as leaving the way open for a private stabilisation of currencies.

President Roosevelt himself said that he was reluctant to stabilise until other nations of the world had balanced their Budgets and placed their own currencies ou a firm foundation.

THE DIFFICULTY.

In Washington official and diplomatic circles it was thought that, if stabilisation was not at present feasible, the President and the bankers might arrange for a temporary steadying of the two currencies by the equalisation fund method.

The Herald-Tribune stated that Britain's willingness to co-operate in raising prices might permit a modification as far as dollar-sterling stabilisation was concerned, but that it was extremely improbable that such co-operation would be forthcoming.

Hitherto the sole obstacle in the way of such temporary steadying was the question of who was to reimburse the New York Federal Reserve Bank for any loss incurred by the establishment of an equalisation fund.

The Journal of Commerce believed that the Hyde Park talk would clarify the United States attitude towards early stabilisation, and that Mr. Norman would make a personal effort to stress the disadvantages of competitive currency depreciation and the dangers of further delay, and would plead for at least temporary stabilisation.

NO COMMITTAL.

It is not thought likely that President Roosevelt will commit himself to any fresh monetary policy until he is in a better position to see the results which are being obtained by the present recovery campaign. The President has throughout regarded his power to resort to monetary inflation as his real triumph, and it is hard to believe that he will give it up before he is convinced that the game can be won without it.

Complete accord is reported to have been reached between President Roosevelt and Mr. Woodin, who was rumoured recently to be thinking of resigning from the Treasury Secretaryship, owing partly to disagreement with the President's alleged inflationary leanings.

"A SOUND POLICY."

Mr. Woodin is quoted as declaring that his meeting at Hyde Park was "magnificently satisfactory," and predicted that Mr. Roosevelt's programme for recovery, "though experimental, is so fundamentally sound that it cannot fail."

Mr. Woodin is understood to have discussed with the President the problem of financing the Government's great 3,300,000,000 dollar (£660,000,000 at par) public works programme, intended to put millions of men to work and increase purchasing power. He said that he had assured the President that the Treasury was well able to handle this gigantic task. He denied that the question of monetary inflation or his resignation from the Government had been discussed.

U.S. RECOVERY STIMULUS.

SIXTY-DAY CREDITS FOR "BLUE EAGLE" FIRMS.

HYDE PARK (N.Y.), Monday.

President Roosevelt has directed that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall establish a medium for quick temporary credit to firms which are members of the National Recovery Administration to enable them to tide over the period of increased overhead expenses and later returns.

Mr. Jesse Jones, Chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, has left immediately for Washington to carry out the President's order.

It is believed that a sixty-day credit will be enough to tide over the period of readjustment.

WORK WANTED FOR BROWN SHIRTS.

BERLIN, Monday.

An appeal to all firms and business houses to fill vacant posts from the ranks of the Storm Troops is made by the German Trade and Commerce Association, which says in its manifesto:—

"If you give the old fighters in brown shirts employment you will be following the leader and his great work."

MYSTERY MAN'S ARREST AT METZ.

METZ, Monday.

A well-dressed man has been detained by the police here on a charge of spying for a foreign Power. The utmost secrecy is being maintained, but inquiries are proceeding.

LOCKED 'PLANES LAND SAFELY.

AFTER A MID-AIR COLLISION.

PRETORIA, Monday.

Two military aeroplanes have landed safely at the Swartkops Aerodrome, locked together after a collision in mid-air.

When the machines hit each other an appalling crash seemed inevitable. With superb skill, however, the two pilots managed to bring their craft safely to earth.

One pilot was an experienced airman, Captain Hector Daniel. The pilot of the other machine was a young Cadet.

GENERAL O'DUFFY IN DUBLIN.

ARRIVAL LATE LAST NIGHT.

SOUTHERN TOUR TO BE RESUMED.

WREATH-LAYING AT COLLINS MEMORIAL.

GENERAL O'DUFFY'S tour of the South was unexpectedly interrupted yesterday, and he returned to Dublin last night by motor car.

He had planned to spend most of this week in the Counties of Cork and Kerry, and it was reported that a number of meetings were to be held at various centres which General O'Duffy would address.

During yesterday morning he visited a number of persons in Cork and Bandon, and spent some time talking with them. In an interview before he left Cork he said that he had been called back to Dublin for some conferences, and expected to be able to resume his tour within the course of a few days.

MR. BLYTHE ALSO BACK.

Mr. Ernest Blythe, who was with General O'Duffy during his "hide-and-seek" journey around County Cork on Sunday to frustrate the Guards who were following him before he addressed the meeting in Bandon, left for Dublin by the early train yesterday morning, and was in the city some hours before his companion.

After his private conferences in the Cork area General O'Duffy left for Dublin by road, and arrived at his home in Wilton place shortly before midnight.

He did not divulge the nature of the meetings for which he returned to Dublin so hurriedly. It was suggested in one quarter, however, that the conferences may be connected with the possible forming of a new united opposition party, consisting of Cumann na nGaedheal, the Centre Party and the many followers of General O'Duffy.

THE VISIT TO KERRY.

It is learned that preparations are being made for the reception of General O'Duffy in Listowel to-morrow evening, and it is believed that it is at that town he will resume his interrupted tour—although it may be delayed until later in the week.

Invitations have been sent out to representative citizens in Listowel and throughout North Kerry to meet the General, but it is not stated whether the meeting will be public or private.

Arrangements have also been made for a conference to be held at Killarney, which General O'Duffy is to attend.

THE COLLINS MEMORIAL.

MANY WREATHS LAID.

CORK, Monday.

Professor Porter and Mr. J. M. Buckley, Secretary, on behalf of the Cork Branch of Cumann na nGaedheal, travelled to the Collins Memorial at Beal-na-Blath to-day and laid at the base of the monument the wreaths that they were prevented by Civic Guards from laying yesterday.

They found a number of other persons visiting the memorial, and the wreaths which were laid there last night by General O'Duffy's supporters and by the Women's Branch of Cumann na nGaedheal were resting at the base of the monument.

GRAVES VISITED IN SLIGO.

SLIGO, Monday.

It was learned here to-day that members of the National Guard, stated to be forty in number, visited Sligo Cemetery at half-past eight yesterday morning.

The assembly took place at the graves of Lieutenant O'Daire and Volunteer Sweeney, members of the Free State Army, who were killed in an ambush at Rockwood, near Sligo, in July, 1922.

The Rosary was recited in Irish.

SOVIET TEXTILE WORKERS.

GENERAL INCREASE OF WAGES.

RIGA, Monday.

The Soviet Government has ordered a general increase of the wages of textile workers by 17 per cent. to raise the standard of living and improve production. The order affects 350,000 workers, whose wages will, from August 15, average 101 roubles (nominally about £10) a month.

At the same time the Soviet Government has announced its intention to advertise the rise in wages widely, in order to make it a lever for increasing the productivity of labour.

As a further stimulus the policy of closing unprofitable factories, and dismissing the workers employed in them, will be continued. To emphasise the seriousness of the decision the Government has closed ten factories and given four others "final warning" that they will be closed unless they improve the quality and quantity of their output.

BOTH SIDES OF THE RHINE.

FRANCE'S REPLY TO PAN-GERMANISM.

PARIS, Monday.

The coincidence of yesterday's Pan-Germanist demonstrations at Tannenberg, and more particularly at Niederwald, and M. Daladier's presence at Alsace inspecting the new lines of fortification, is stressed in the Press as symptomatic of two mentalities and two policies.

Across the Rhine, it is observed, there is a cult of the war spirit; on this side there is defence of national security in the interest of peace.

Dealing with the German parades, the Temps, in an article headed "German Tumult," writes:—"Germany must recover her calm before one can usefully talk with her. She can only do that if she comes up against the calm face of force in the service of order and peace."

Other newspapers describe Chancellor Hitler's speech at Niederwald as provocative, and call attention to Nazi terrorism in the Saar.

The new French fortifications were voted by Parliament four years ago at a cost of three and a half milliard francs. They were to be completed in four years, so that they are now virtually finished.

Spanish Prisoner Swindle.

BARCELONA LETTER TO DUBLIN FIRM.

THE Spanish prisoner swindle, though it has been exposed a thousand times, is still in existence. Messrs. Kapp and Peterson, Dublin, have sent us the following letter, which they received last Saturday from Barcelona:—

"Barcelona, August 22nd, 1933.

"Dear Sir,—Excuse my liberty in addressing you without your knowing me, but I am in a desperate position, and you are the only person I can trust, as you will later on realise.

"I am prisoner here for bankruptcy, caused by reasons it would be too long to explain herein. If, as I expect, you are prepared to help me, upon receipt of your cable I will write you again explaining my history and how your name has been known to me.

"Of my whole capital I have only been able to save from bankruptcy two checks for $235,000, which before my arrest I had hidden in a secret inside pocket in one of my bags. This luggage was embarged and searched when I was detained, but, fortunately, the checks for the above amount were not found.

"Therefore, what I propose you is to come here to cancel the embargo and get my luggage, thus recovering my money and saving the future of my poor daughter, who is at present in an orphan asylum.

"To cancel the embargo it is necessary to pay my trial expenses and a fine I was sentenced to pay. The whole amounts to approximately 500£. As a reward for your help I shall give up to you one-half of the check's value, $117,500.

"Of course, before you pay a cent you will have on hand every proof and security on the identity of the checks, as well as on the honestity of all I am hereby proposing you. Also you will not have to cancel the embargo until the checks will actually be in your possession. To make this possible I count on the assistance of one of my warders, whom I have offered $3,000 for his co-operation. In my next letter I will give you full details for carrying this proposition to a successful end. I can't receive your reply in prison, but if you decide to help me I shall safely receive your cable, as it will be addressed to the warder's brother-in-law.

"Anxiously looking forward to your reply, when I shall intrust you my secret. I sign now only,

"R. de S.

"I beg your closest discretion.

"To save time, don't write; cable exactly as follows and sign:

[An address in Spain is attached to the "Prisoner's" letter.]

STRIKE PARALYSIS IN ANDORRA.

"ARMY OF OCCUPATION" INCREASED TO 70.

BARCELONA, Monday.

Twenty more French gendarmes, making a total of seventy altogether, have been drafted to occupy the tiny Republic of Andorra. The hydro-electric power companies are threatening to suspend work indefinitely if the 800 strikers do not adopt a more reasonable attitude. The strikers, whose leaders were imported from Spain, demand improvement in their conditions of employment. The Co-Princes, representing both Spain and France, have announced that they are prepared to expel the trouble-makers.

Extra Civil Guards have been drafted into Seo de Urgel, in adjoining Spanish territory.

TENNIS CHAMPION'S WEAK HEART.

ORDEAL OF MISS HELEN JACOBS.

The report that Miss Helen Jacobs, the American champion, was bothered with her heart throughout the American Championships, was substantiated by her doctor here to-day.

He said that the condition of her heart was by no means so good as it should have been, but her insistence on what she called her "duty" in playing to the finish was such that he was compelled to yield to her request to allow her to play.

£40,000 TO RELIEVE DUBLIN WORKLESS.

GOVERNMENT GRANT.

The Dublin Corporation has received an intimation from the Department of Local Government and Public Health that the Government has made a grant of £40,000 to be expended in relief of unemployment in the city.

This grant falls short of the amount that the Corporation sought some time ago when a deputation waited on the Minister with a request for a grant of £100,000. The Lord Mayor (Alderman A. Byrne, T.D.) made urgent representations to the Government at the time with a view to securing a grant of the full amount, and a guarantee was given by the Corporation that if the grant of £100,000 was acceded to they would expend £30,000 on the provision of material to enable sanctioned relief works to be carried out.

The Corporation will now be compelled to curtail their expenditure to a sum commensurate with the Government grant.

The action of the Government is welcomed, however, as with the amount that the Corporation will expend—possibly £15,000 on materials and implements—immediate relief will be given to the unemployed in the city. The City Manager and the Borough Engineer have their schemes prepared, and it is expected that between 300 and 400 men will be put at work before the end of the week.

NEW MINISTER AT BUDAPEST.

SIR PATRICK RAMSAY'S APPOINTMENT.

The King has approved the appointment of the Honourable Sir Patrick William Maule Ramsay, K.C.M.G., His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Athens, to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Budapest.

The Honourable Sir Patrick Ramsay, after four years at Athens, goes to Budapest to succeed Viscount Chilston, who early this month was appointed Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary in Moscow, in succession to Sir Esmond Ovey. Sir Patrick Ramsay, who is fifty-four years of age, is the second son of the thirteenth Earl of Dalhousie.

VICEROY LOOKS AHEAD.

HURRYING ON REFORM OF CONSTITUTION.

SIMLA, Monday.

THE Viceroy declared at a dinner to-night that he looked forward to Home Rule and Dominion status being India's destiny. His Excellency, who was accompanied by Lady Willingdon, was speaking at a banquet given by Sir R. K. Shanmukam Chetty, President of the Legislative Assembly, to one hundred and forty-five guests.

Lord Willingdon said that, whether the policy inaugurated since he became Viceroy was approved or otherwise, at least it had the merit of consistency—while refusing to countenance violation of the law of the land in any circumstances, he had made every effort to push on as quickly as possible the policy of constitutional reforms which would lead India to take her place in a position of absolute equality with that of the other Dominions.

IRISH SYMPATHIES.

He was not afraid of the terms "Home Rule" and "Dominion status." He looked forward to that being India's destiny, and recalled his family's Liberal traditions and associations with the agitation for Home Rule for Ireland.

Lord Willingdon said that he had every intention to remain in office, if allowed, and if health and strength permitted, for the full term.

He alluded to Sir Shanmukam Chetty as his political godson, recalling old days at Madras, and complimenting him on having so youthfully won his spurs. He foreshadowed for him a brilliant career in the service of India.

Sir Shanmukam urged that no time should be wasted in implementing the Government's proposals, and paid a high tribute to the Viceroy.

He described Lord Willingdon as possessing a remarkable combination of tact, strength, sincerity and sympathy with Indian aspirations, and trusted that reforms would be inaugurated under his wisdom and experience.

BLACKMAILING OF PRINCES.

Sir H. Haig, the Home Member, introduced in the Assembly to-day a bill to protect Indian States from activities tending to subvert their subjects or to excite disaffection. The bill in particular deals with blackmailing Press attacks.

It is designed to strengthen the law by which libellous publications against ruling Indian Princes may be more effectively prevented.

DROWNED IN MAYO LAKE.

TWO YOUTHS OVERCOME WHILE BATHING.

While bathing in Lough Saleen, County Mayo, yesterday evening, two Castlebar youths, Frederick Kenny (19) and Thomas Worthington (20) were drowned.

The lough had been swollen by the recent heavy rains in the district, and although the two young men had been accustomed to bathing at the spot where they lost their lives, they apparently did not realise the danger caused by the rise in the level of the water.

Two brothers named Kinsella recovered the body of the younger man from the lough, and Mr. Charles Hanley succeeded in bringing Worthington's body to the shore a short time afterwards.

Dr. Mongey and Dr. Moran endeavoured for some considerable time to revive the drowned youths by means of artificial respiration, but their efforts were unavailing.

EVEREST CLIMB INCIDENTS.

A HEAVY, BITTER JOB.

Mr. Hugh Ruttledge, who recently returned to England after leading the unsuccessful climbs up Everest, last night described some incidents of the climb in a broadcast talk from London.

The expedition made two separate assaults on the peak, one by Mr. L. R. Wager and the other by Mr. F. S. Smythe and Mr. E. E. Shipton. They were about 1,000 feet from the summit when compelled to turn back.

Mr. Ruttledge said that Smythe had a desperate time, having to cut handholds as well as footholds in the hard ice, and to cling on with one hand while using his axe with the other. In the working parties men took it in turns to lead and cut steps for twenty minutes at a time, while their companions drove in stakes and fixed ropes.

"It was a heavy, bitter job, and camp was established on an ice ledge which was the lower lip of a big crevasse. You had to move about with a certain amount of caution. One step too far on the right and you would fall into the blue depths. On the left you might easily begin sliding down, then over an ice cliff, down more slopes over the ice wall, to end up in a great crevasse seven hundred feet below."

Mr. Ruttledge said that they had learned from the expedition that May and June are probably the only months in which the climb can be made; that once a man has gone really high in the mountain he is unlikely to be able to repeat the effort that same year; that a really well-acclimatised party can eat the ordinary foods of civilisation at great altitudes; that almost certainly the last 1,000 feet are climable in good conditions without oxygen, and that you must have a strong reserve of men well accustomed to guideless climbing.

U.S. ORDERS 15 P.C. WHEAT ACREAGE CUT.

WASHINGTON, Monday.

The Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Henry Wallace, has formally announced a reduction of fifteen per cent. in the seeded acreage which will be required of the farmers who are joining in the United States Government plan for the restriction of wheat output.

Mr. Wallace stated that he expected approval for the American supplement to the London Wheat Agreement to-morrow. A statement was issued yesterday that certain details of the supplement as it affects three of the exporting countries are still being discussed. Details of the supplement have been kept secret.

Mr. Wallace pointed out that the acreage reduction plans apply to next year's wheat harvest.

OPPOSITION MERGER.

GENERAL ELECTION PROSPECTS.

By Our Political Correspondent.

THE speech of Mr. Frank MacDermot at Mullingar on Sunday last confirms the rumours which have been current for some time past, that negotiations for a merger of Opposition Parties in the Dail have been in progress.

The possibility of a successful outcome of such negotiations remains.

That the Cumann na nGaedheal Party, the Centre Party, and, perhaps, the followers of General O'Duffy may be associated in one party, is the hope of many who have given thought to the present rather confusing situation.

This hope is intensified by the belief which is commonly held, notwithstanding assertions to the contrary from Government quarters, that a general election is very likely to take place in the near future.

In these circumstances the meetings of the Standing Committee of Cumann na nGaedheal and of the Centre Party which, it is understood, will be held this week, are looked forward to with more than usual interest.

PRICE OF GRAIN.

Dr. Ryan, Free State Minister for Agriculture, to-day will meet representatives of the grain merchants at Government Buildings, when the prices of oats and barley will be discussed.

FROM "THE TIMES."

(BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT.)

DOLLAR AND POUND.

The Times, in a leading article to-day, says:—In the case of the dollar and the pound particularly, the interests of both countries, of Great Britain no less than of the United States, demand that there should be no excuse given to all concerned for apprehending anything remotely resembling a race in depreciation between the two currencies. This, of course, involves consultation and a certain amount of co-operation between the Bank of England and the Federal Reserve Banks. Relations of mutual confidence and mutual helpfulness, always desirable, are to-day indispensable between the institutions which control the two great managed currencies of the world. It is the realisation of this which has caused so keen an interest in the visit of Mr. Montagu Norman to the United States, in his conversations with American bankers and officials of the American Treasury, and, above all, in his interview yesterday with President Roosevelt.

At this interview Mr. Norman was accompanied by Mr. Harrison, the Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, and the inevitable assumption is that the opportunity was taken informally and confidentially to review the whole currency position as it affects Great Britain and the United States.

Conversations of this kind can only do good, but it would be going too far to anticipate any immediate or concrete result from yesterday's talk around the tea-table in the President's country home. Mr. Roosevelt's monetary policy must depend very largely on the progress of his campaign for economic reconstruction. He will not and, indeed, cannot tie his hands by any engagement until he can see more clearly how that campaign will develop.

NO OWNER FOR THE ATLANTIQUE.

COMEDY OF BURNT-OUT LINER.

CHERBOURG, Monday.

The time limit given by the Navy to the Sud-Atlantique Company to remove the liner Atlantique from the naval dry dock here expired to-day. The company had asked for an extension of one month while awaiting the decision of the Seine Court as to the disposal of the ship, but the Minister of Marine has refused to grant this, as he considered that the dock, which may be needed at any time for urgent repairs to a warship or a liner in service, can no longer be kept out of action. The company has, therefore, been asked to remove the ship immediately.

As the owners have formally abandoned her as useless and the underwriters refuse to take charge of her except for repairs, nobody now knows to whom she belongs.

Experts appointed by the Seine Tribunal of Commerce are understood to have come to the conclusion that the Atlantique is beyond repair. The vessel was insured for a total of 170,120,000 francs (£1,371,935 at par), a large proportion of which is covered at Lloyds. The insurance companies estimate that the repairs will cost about 95,000,000 francs (£760,000). But the owners prefer entirely to abandon the wreck to underwriters, in which case, they argue, they are entitled to the whole of the 170,000,000 francs for which the ship was insured.

The underwriters, who are British, have called for tenders for the reconstruction of the ship from Belfast and other builders, and it is unlikely there will be any final decision as to what is to be done for some weeks.

DEFENCE AGAINST AIR ATTACK.

PREPARATIONS IN BERLIN.

The thoroughness of the preparations that are being made under the auspices of the Air Defence League against air attack continues to attract attention. The head of the Berlin area, a Nazi Storm Battalion Commander named Major von Loper, announces that measures will be introduced under which all new buildings will have to conform to regulations issued by the Air Ministry. The aim of these will be to make them as resistant as possible to fire, and to provide shelters proof against gas and bombs. Berlin, under his supervision, has already been divided into twenty air defence districts and 173 air defence sub-districts. The latter are sub-divided again into areas under air defence superintendents, into blocks of apartment houses under block air wardens, and houses under house air wardens. A main air defence school and several district schools have been formed.

From September 4 to September 9 there will be an air defence week, and the proceeds from various entertainments and spectacles will be used to support the organisation. In the Horst Wessel Platz, one of the biggest squares, a 15ft. model of an air bomb has been set up, to impress on the minds of the population the dangers of aerial attack.

TOURIST TROPHY RACE.

MANY DRIVERS ARRIVE.

PRACTICE TO BEGIN TO-MORROW.

FREE STATE AND THE MOTOR RALLY.

From Our Motoring Correspondent.

ALTHOUGH the entry is rather small, the Tourist Trophy race of this year is regarded as one of the "most open" of the races yet held on the Ards circuit in County Down. The race will be held on Saturday next, and practising will commence to-morrow morning. When the practise lap times are known the result of the race may no longer be so uncertain, but in the meantime speculation as to who will win is so much guess work.

In Belfast the favourite at the moment is the Hon. Brian Lewis. The Belfast man has a keen appreciation of what is good motoring, and he made Brian Lewis one of his heroes from the very first year that the Talbots were led so skilfully by this excellent driver. Mr. Lewis's subsequent performances on the Continent and in the Isle of Man have enhanced his reputation.

CARS AND DRIVERS.

If the ability of the driver was the only deciding factor in the race, the choice of Mr. Lewis as favourite would have a lot of justification. The handicap, however, can extinguish the chance of one or more classes of cars, and it remains to be seen which type had been most and least favourably treated in the handicap.

The cars and their drivers are as follow, supercharged cars being indicated by (S.):—

Over 3,000 c.c. and up to 5,000 c.c.

FEW MANUFACTURERS' ENTRIES.

In only one section is there likely to be an inter-factory struggle; for very few of the entries for this year's race are from manufacturers. The Invictas have a class to themselves; the Alfa-Romeos will surely have the measure of the solo Maserati; and the M.G. Midgets in the Isle of Man were very much faster than the Sullivan Special.

In the 750-1,100 c.c. class, however, there is material for a first-rate fight between the small Rileys and the M.G. Magnettes, notwithstanding the fact that the former, being unsupercharged, will have the advantage in the handicap allowances. In the race at Douglas the Magnettes were faster than any of the Rileys, but in the end it was F. W. Dixon's Riley which won the race. The M.G. factory will have learned a lot from the Manx event, and it will probably be found that they have introduced a great deal of reliability.

KEEN DRIVERS.

It must not be imagined that because there is only one class with prospects of an inter-margin duel that the race lacks interest outside the efforts of the drivers in each class to beat the handicap and the class versus class aspect. In each division there will be keen rivalry between individuals.

There will, no doubt, be a few teams in the race, and where there are teams there are competitors driving to orders and placing the success of the car before any personal desire for honours. But in Saturday's race the bulk of the entrants are private—from individual motorists, who are competing for their own pleasure and profit. All of these will be out to win, and where such is the case keen racing usually results.

A GREAT WEEK.

It can be taken that the handicappers will have succeeded in equalising, as far as possible, the chances of the various classes, and that the best drivers will be the most prominent during the race. Many of them could be included among the "best drivers." Brian Lewis, T. E. Rose-Richards, Earl Howe, G. B. T. Eyston, C. R. Whitcroft, C. S. Staniland, F. W. Dixon, G. Nuvolari, E. R. Hall, H. C. Hamilton, S. A. Crabtree, and W. Sullivan—every driver named is a possible winner, whose success would cause no surprise.

The T.T. Race will be the culminating thrill in Ulster's great motoring week, which commenced on Saturday last with the Craigantlet hill climb. Yesterday the Ulster motor rally, promoted by the Ulster Automobile Club, commenced, and drivers set out from Dublin, Belfast, and a number of places across the Channel to drive 750 miles.

To-day the rally ends at Bangor, Co.

Down. Closeness to the schedule speed of the run at hidden checking places in the last twenty miles will decide the placings.

With practising for the T.T. in the morning and the Concours d'Elegance at Bangor in the afternoon, to-morrow will be a busy motoring day in the North. There will also be T.T. practising on Thursday.

The General Executive Committee of the Motor Union of Ireland will meet in Belfast to-morrow evening to consider the matter of the International Six Days' Trial, in which two Irish teams have been entered. Since the team nominations were made two additional Irish motor cyclists have entered—H. C. Hamilton and H. G. Tyrell Smith. This will be only the third meeting of the General Executive Committee since it was constituted in 1927.

THE MOTOR RALLY.

The Irish Free State competitors in the Ulster motor rally left St. Stephen's Green, Dublin, yesterday about 1 p.m. They were to drive throughout last night and all day to-day, reaching Bangor, Co. Down, where the rally concludes, about 8 o'clock this evening.

There were six Free State competitors—D. C. MacLachlan (Humber), M. J. McQuaid (Riley), T. Brindley (Austin), D. H. T. Smith (Armstrong-Siddeley), K. D. McClure (Standard), and R. A. Crawford (M.G.). Messrs. McQuaid, Brindley and Smith were driving as an Irish motor racing club team.

The only woman travelling with the party was Mrs. D. C. MacLachlan, who will take turns at driving with her husband. As Mrs. MacLachlan two years ago herself piloted a car through the Ulster rally she is well qualified to render such assistance.

Mr. McQuaid had as spare driver Mr. H. G. Tyrell Smith, the well-known motor cyclist, who won the Junior Tourist Trophy Race a few years ago. Another noted motor cyclist, Mr. C. H. W. Maundy, was travelling as spare driver with Mr. T. Brindley.

Although the weather did not look at all pleasant, the Free State competitors were a very cheerful party, and before they started such questions as where hasty meals should be snatched were discussed and settled.

Captain R. D. Greer and Mr. S. T. Robinson, of the Royal Irish Automobile Club, were in charge of the Dublin starting arrangements, which worked very smoothly. A number of Dublin motorists were at St. Stephen's Green to wish the competitors success.

GETTING READY FOR SATURDAY.

COMPETITORS IN BELFAST.

BELFAST, Monday.

Most of the competitors who are to take part in the Ulster T.T. Motor Car Race over the Ards course on Saturday have arrived in Belfast, and to-day were engaged in getting their cars ready for the first official practice on Wednesday. The extra seventy miles this year will, in the opinion of Captain Phillips, Press Secretary of the Royal Automobile Club, make a big difference, and he is of the opinion that it will be necessary for all the drivers to keep themselves well in check, and not drive flat out from the very start, if they hope to be running in the final stages of the race.

The Ards Circuit, he declared, tests both the car and the driver to the utmost, and the additional distance will call for greater stamina on the part of the driver and a greater measure of reliability on the part of the car than in any of the previous contests.

Commander F. P. Armstrong, Secretary of the R.A.C., arrived in Belfast to-day, and, with Captain Phillips, made a tour of the course. He expressed appreciation for the excellent arrangements that were being made for the race.

MOTOR RALLY BEGUN.

EIGHTY CARS ON THE ROADS.

The Ulster motor rally, which might be regarded as a preliminary to the T.T. Race, is now in full swing. Over eighty competitors from the North, the Free State and Great Britain are taking part in the event. The main body, numbering over sixty, started from Belfast between 10.30 a.m. and 12.30 p.m. to-day, and are now racing around the northern area on the most zig-zag tour they have ever attempted. As an instance of the round-about nature of the course, it might be mentioned that the competitors first head for Kilkeel (South Down); then they cut across to Enniskillen and Belleek. From there they go north to Strabane, and then south-east through Omagh and Ballygawley to Portadown, and on to Belfast. They next go north to Antrim and Ballymena, east to Larne, and then via the coast road to Ballycastle, cross the country again to Omagh, Cookstown and Armagh, taking the Sperrin Mountains on the way. Then they go back to the County Down to Newcastle, and the concluding stages are through Downpatrick, Comber and Newtownards to Bangor, where the first competitor is due at 5.50 on Tuesday. The total distance of the run is 750 miles, which must be covered at an average speed of 24 miles an hour. No time is allowed for meals, and any time taken for these must be made up in the same section.

SECRET CHECKS.

In addition there will be timed sections and secret checks, and at the finishing point braking and kerb-driving tests will be carried out. The latter is a new feature this year.

The competitors in the Birmingham, London and Glasgow sections started at 11 p.m. on Sunday, and are now making their way to Liverpool. In their case the greater portion of the mileage is covered on the other side.

The Dublin competitors started after noon yesterday. The route to be followed by them is Dublin, Waterford, Fermoy, Cork, Limerick, Mullingar and on to Newry, where they cross the border and do the remainder of their mileage.

Large crowds were present at the departure of the Belfast competitors from the Antrim road end of Fortwilliam, and animated scenes were witnessed.

Mr. R. H. Wright was starter, and amongst those present were Captain R. L. Henderson, president of the club; Mr. W. Noble, chairman, and Colonel F. Lindsay Lloyd, representing the R.A.C.

ILLEGAL FISHING FINES.

At Fermoy District Court yesterday, before Mr. G. Farrell, James Fanning, Clondulane, and Denis Breen, Kilmurry, were prosecuted for the illegal use of a net for the capture of salmon on the freshwater portion of the River Blackwater.

Mr. Farrell imposed a fine of 40s. on each defendant, with 20s. costs in each case, and ordered the net, boat and gear to be forfeited.

MONAGHAN 6D. FINE.

SWISS BORDER INCIDENTS.

NAZIS CARRY OFF CZECH.

BASLE CITIZEN LURED INTO TRAP.

BERNE, Monday.

A NEW frontier incident is reported to-day from Ramsen, not far from the famous Falls of Schaffhausen.

The victim, a Czechoslovak subject, was walking on Swiss territory some three hundred yards from the frontier when he was suddenly seized and carried off by three Germans, who stated that they were police officers.

A Swiss Customs officer, who saw what was happening, hastened to the rescue, but was unable to do anything against the three Germans.

The Swiss Political Department is making an official inquiry into the matter, which has caused intense indignation in Switzerland.

Although it is admitted that the man Weber was wanted by the German police on a charge of smuggling, it is pointed out that this does not justify the forcible violation of the Swiss frontier and the abduction of an individual who had sought sanctuary on Swiss territory.

The Political Department at Berne has, therefore, telegraphed to the Swiss Minister in Berlin, instructing him to make urgent representations to the German Government requesting that severe punishment should be meted out to the police officials concerned.

ALLEGED SPYING.

The full story of how a Nazi, under the guise of friendship, spent his time in the home of the Swiss "Lieutenant" Dietschi, in order to lure him into a trap, is related by a Basle newspaper.

Dietschi was decoyed over the frontier by the Nazi, and has been arrested, accused of having stolen important documents from the Lorrach office of the Nazis and of spying for the French.

The Nazi, who is stated to have acted as decoy in order to curry favour with the authorities, spent much time with Dietschi, both at his home and his factory. On the day of the arrest the Nazi went to an amusement place with Dietschi, who, lulled into such a sense of security, walked right into the trap.

Dietschi, who is described as a German naturalised Swiss, about eight years ago was in reality only a sergeant in the Swiss Army, but said that he was a lieutenant in order to "cut a dash." A few months ago he used to go quite openly to Lorrach with his wife, child and chauffeur.

CHARGES AGAINST ARCHITECT.

ALLEGED STORY OF SILVER MINES.

Robert Douglas Beresford (46), described as an architect, was committed for trial at Liverpool yesterday charged with obtaining £6 1s. by false pretences from a Liverpool tramcar conductor.

He was alleged to have met William Hennessy, the conductor, showed him an autograph of the Prince of Wales and a pipe with the Prince of Wales's feathers inscribed on it, and told him he was responsible for arranging the Prince of Wales's tour of Canada in 1919. Afterwards it was said he induced Hennessy to cash three cheques for him, and these were returned marked "R.D."

The prosecution alleged that these cheques were made out by Beresford. They purported to be signed by a wealthy shareholder in the Canadian Pacific Railway and almost a millionaire.

Beresford was alleged to have told Hennessy he owned silver mines and large farms in Canada.

When Beresford was committeed for trial at next Saturday's City Sessions bail was refused because the prosecution stated that Beresford was wanted by the police on another charge.

CANADIAN CROP REPORT.

Cutting and threshing are progressing throughout Western Canada, except where rain has delayed operations, and in some southern areas where cutting is completed. Threshing in these areas is half to three-quarters advanced, states the digest of the weekly crop report of the Canadian National Railways, cabled to London. The out-run of wheat, oats and barley, continues the report, shows great variation.

In Southern and Central Manitoba, threshing is proceeding rapidly. Cutting is almost completed. Yields vary, and in some districts exceed those of an average year.

General rainfall in Southern Saskatchewan has come too late to do material benefit, except for pastures and Fall ploughing. In Central and Northern Saskatchewan rains have delayed operations.

Warm and dry weather prevails in North and Central Alberta, and in some sub-divisions yields range from 16 to 25 bushels an acre.

Harvesting has begun in the Peace River district in fine, warm weather, interspersed by a few showers. The crops are in good condition.

Cattle prices in all classes, except good quality grass-fed butcher's cattle, are lower than a week ago. Lowered receipts of hogs have strengthened prices, which should continue for some time.

"THINGS THAT ARE CÆSAR'S."

REVIVAL AT ABBEY THEATRE.

Paul Vincent Carroll's "Things that are Cæsar's," which was revived at the Abbey Theatre last night, is technically one of the outstanding pieces in the Abbey repertoire, and its theme strikes a note of courageous morality which is too rare in Irish drama. It is an intensely moving attack on the easy philosophy which attributes to God responsibility for the things that are Cæsar's. Last night it had an excellent performance, for which honour is due chiefly to Kate Curling, as the girl who sees things as they are, and is, therefore, "cynical"; Maureen Delany, who cleverly carries off a part which is not quite in her accepted tradition, as the scheming mother and wife, and Michael J. Dolan and Barry Fitzgerald, as the two different types of men whose difference means so much to the plot.

REVUE AT QUEEN'S THEATRE.

A bright little revue, "Down South," is being presented by Mr. Lorcan Bourke at the Queen's Theatre, Dublin, this week. The principals are Homes and Edwardes, comedians, and Ray and Elsie, who have some very pleasant harmonised songs. Alec Fryer and his band, together with the Queen's "Moonbeams," also appear. The film, which is included in the programme, is "Laughter in Hell." It is good entertainment.

CHARGE OF THEFT.

George Edward Travers, an ex-footballer, who figured in the Barnsley team which won the F.A. Cup, and had played with Swindon and Gillingham, was at Chatham yesterday committed for trial on a charge of breaking and entering a public-house at Gillingham and stealing £20 9s.

Charles Major, licensee of the public-house, said that on August 19 he found that the kitchen door and window had been forced open. His Alsatian dog was sniffing at a bedroom door, and he found that money was missing from the bedroom. Travers was a customer at the public-house, and was friendly with the dog.

Travers, who was allowed bail, said that he had been very ill for a considerable time, and he had been unable to obtain work.

CHANNEL SWIM "RACE."

THREE OUT FOR GOLD CUP.

MISS GLEITZE AND HER RIVALS.

THREE swimmers are to start from Dover this morning in a race across the English Channel for the Dover Town Gold Challenge Cup.

Miss Mercedes Gleitze and Mr. E. H. Temme are to leave from the South Foreland between 7 a.m. and 7.15, and the third starter is Mr. Charles Zimmy, the legless American swimmer, who will enter the water about the same time from the Shakespeare Beach, to the west of Dover.

The Gold Cup will be awarded to the man or woman who swims from Dover to France in the shortest time this year.

CHAMPION EXHAUSTED.

An attempt on the Dover to France crossing was made yesterday by Mr. F. G. M. Milton, holder of the long-distance championship of the Amateur Swimming Association, who entered the water at the South Foreland at 6 a.m. A slight south-westerly breeze and a perfectly calm sea made the conditions ideal.

Mr. Milton, who had been training at Dover for some weeks, was accompanied by the Gravesend tug, Muria, and among those on board were his father and the Mayor of Dover. Milton made very good progress, but when well out in the Channel he found the sea was choppy, and after swimming 17½ miles he was taken out of the water at 1 o'clock. He was then eight miles from the French coast. His father said on their return that the swim had to be abandoned, as his son was utterly exhausted, but he might make another attempt later

GIRL'S SECOND TRY.

Swimming in the reverse direction, Miss Sunny Lowry, the English girl, who was the first person to start the Channel swimming season this year, left Cape Gris Nez on another attempt at 6.30 last evening. The sea is smooth and the conditions favourable.

Miss Lowry is escorted by the tug Isabelle from Boulogne, with her trainer, Mr. Jabez Wolff, and her sister, Miss Betty Lowry. Another passenger on the Isabelle, M. Bajin, has been entrusted with the task of timing the venture.

On her last attempt in July Miss Lowry had to compete with strong currents, which carried her in a south-westerly direction, and made the sea so rough that she was obliged to give up after swimming for six hours.

THE FATHER OF SEVEN.

RIZZIO'S ATTEMPT ON MALTA CHANNEL.

MALTA, Monday.

Arthur Rizzio, the Maltese swimmer, and holder of the world's open sea endurance record, who is attempting to swim from Sicily to Malta, was accorded a magnificent send-off by a large crowd when he left just after midnight for Sicily.

The Minister of Police is among those accompanying the swimmer.

Rizzio intends to start his swim on Thursday, and hopes to cover the sixty-five miles in about seventy hours.

Rizzio's world "record" was established three years ago, when he remained in the sea for sixty-eight hours. He is thirty-nine years old, and is the father of seven children.

HEAVY RAINFALL IN SCOTLAND.

BRIDGES CARRIED AWAY BY FLOODS.

The retaining embankment of a loch, from which Stornoway, Isle of Lewis, draws its water supply, collapsed over a space of 20 feet on Sunday night as a result of exceptionally heavy rain, and the waters, after carrying away three footbridges, invaded the Castle policies, where four bridges were destroyed, and a considerable length of carriage-way washed into the river.

Houses were flooded, some to a depth of two feet.

SOVIET GOVERNMENT GUARANTEE.

CONTRACTS OF TRADE ENVOY TO BE RECOGNISED.

The Foreign Office have been informed by the Soviet Embassy in London that for the purpose of facilitating the carrying on of commercial operations in the United Kingdom pending the conclusion of a new trade agreement, the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has authorised Mr. Alexandre Osersky, in virtue of his position as Soviet trade representative in Great Britain, to sign letters of guarantee and to enter into other commercial transactions on their behalf, and that accordingly the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics will accept full responsibility for all obligations entered into by Mr. Alexandre Osersky acting for and on behalf of that Government.

RABIES SPREADING TO CATS.

GRIM FIGHT BY GIBRALTAR AUTHORITIES.

GIBRALTAR, Monday.

The rabies outbreak here is now apparently spreading to cats. A five-year-old child, the daughter of Sergeant Wills, of the 2nd Battalion, Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry, was rushed to Tangiers this morning for treatment with anti-rabies serum in the Pasteur Institute. She had been scratched by a cat which is suspected of being rabid.

Rabies broke out here on August 21st, when five men were taken to Tangiers for treatment after being bitten by mad dogs. They have returned to Gibraltar after treatment.

Ordinances have been enacted imposing heavy penalties on holders of unmuzzled dogs.

PACIFIC SOCIALIST PROPOSAL.

BANFF, Monday.

Tentative plans for the formation of a new Pacific Socialist organisation have been made by certain delegates at the fifth biennial convention of the Institute of Pacific Relations. It is stated that Lord Snell, formerly Parliamentary Under-Secretary to the India Office, and Mr. Walter Nash, the New Zealand politician, would play leading parts in its activities. The object of the new body would be to forward the general movement for a league of the Pacific nations to ensure peace and for the solving of mutual economic problems.

MISSING DUBLIN DRUGS.

TWO LOTS RECOVERED.

The mystery of the drug "dump" which was discovered at Fortunestown, Tallaght, by a Civic Guard last Friday night, was finally cleared up yesterday.

It appears that a Dublin doctor was changing his residence, and was conveying the drugs to his new house by motor car. He left the car for a few minutes and when he returned found that his freight had been removed. Apparently the thieves, discovering that their haul was not one which would be easily disposed of, abandoned it at Tallaght. The doctor has now collected his property from the Civic Guard barracks.

Yesterday it was reported that the drugs were believed to have been part of a consignment which fell from the van of a Dublin wholesale druggist, the door of which had opened unknown to the driver on last Friday afternoon. This mystery has also been solved; the chemicals which fell from the van have been found near Naas.

PROTECTION FOR INDIAN COTTON.

FIVE MONTHS' EXTENSION FOR JAPANESE TALKS.

SIMLA, Monday.

A bill to continue until March 31st next the operation of the Cotton and Textile Industry Protection Act was introduced in the Assembly to-day by Sir Joseph Bhore, Commerce Member of the Executive Council. The Act, which imposes duties for the protection of Indian cotton piece goods, expires on October 31st.

Sir Joseph Bhore said that, in view of the impending discussions with Japan, the Government of India felt that it should not proceed to give legislative effect in the present session to its conclusions regarding the Tariff Board's report, because the latter might require radical alteration in the light of any agreement which might be reached. The Tariff Board's report, which was submitted in September, 1932, has not yet been published, despite pressure from the interests concerned.

The Japanese boycott of Indian cotton had been ineffective up to the present, Sir Joseph Bhore added.

GERMAN TOURISTS.

CYCLING PARTY LED BY SEPTUAGENARIAN.

GORESBRIDGE, Monday.

A cycling party of seven Germans have been seen going towards New Ross, en route, they state, for Killarney.

The leader was a man of seventy years, and was attired in "shorts" and a light "sweater." He was able to speak tolerably good English, and conversed with people along the way.

The party has already cycled through Clare, Galway and Donegal and across the North to Belfast, thence to Dublin and down through Wicklow. Their cyclometers recorded a distance of 570 miles since they started.

WAR DANGER IN THE PACIFIC.

MR. DOWNIE STEWART'S WARNING.

BANFF, Monday.

Grave danger of war threatens the countries of the Pacific unless immediate steps are taken to create peace machinery in the hemisphere, according to Mr. Downie Stewart, former Finance Minister of New Zealand.

This was what he told the fifth biennial convention of the Institute of Pacific Relations to-day.

Mr. Downie Stewart warned the conference that unless immediate steps were taken to create peace machinery in the Pacific there was grave danger of war, with the nations feverishly adding to their armaments.

TREASURE OF THE LUTINE.

DYNAMITE USED TO FRUSTRATE SALVAGE.

TERSCHELLING, Monday.

Widespread investigations by the police are taking place in an attempt to discover those responsible for the destruction of the specially constructed tower which was made to raise the gold cargo of the frigate Lutine, which sank off the coast of Holland in 1799.

It is generally assumed here that, in view of the fact that the directors of the enterprise received letters warning them not to carry out their attempt, the outrage was committed by persons wishing to salvage the Lutine themselves.

According to the police, the outrage was committed during the night, and they describe the case as "most mysterious." Divers who examined the wreckage report that the damage was caused by the explosion of a dynamite cartridge, and that the tower is a complete loss.

M.Beckers, the Dutch engineer, who constructed the tower, declared to-day that he intends to construct a new tower during the winter, and that he will begin his salvage work again next spring. "I will salve the gold," he declared, "even at the cost of my life."

Shares in the company declined sharply on the Stock Exchange this morning.

The Lutine, whose bell is known throughout the world as the famous "Lutine Bell" of Lloyds, sank off the island of Terschelling in 1799 while carrying gold and silver worth nearly two million pounds from the Bank of England to bankers in Hamburg.

Many attempts to salve the cargo have since been made, but up to the present only about £100,000 worth of gold has been brought up.

IRISH LONGEVITY.

Three Irishwomen, whose ages totalled two hundred and ninety-two years, died yesterday.

The oldest was Mrs. Louise Isabell Kilkelly, widow of the late Surgeon-General C. E. Kilkelly, of 12 Upper Fitzwilliam street, Dublin. She died at St. Albans, Hertfordshire, in her hundredth year.

Mrs. Margaret Murphy, of Pipe street, Thomastown, Co. Kilkenny, was ninety-nine, and for fifty years had been caretaker of the local Protestant church.

At the age of ninety-three, Mrs. Alicia Kirkpatrick, widow of the Rev. A. T. Kirkpatrick, former Rector of Craigs, County Antrim, died at Pleasance, Larne Harbour.

MEMORIAL WINDOW UNVEILED.

The unveiling ceremony of a beautiful stained-glass window in Ballybay Church to the memory of the late Mrs. Mary Mills, wife of the late William Mills, J.P., Hilden, Ballybay, was performed on Sunday evening by the Rev. R. Tyner, Rector, Ematris, Rockcorry.

The window has just been erected in the church by Mr. J. V. S. Mills, LL.D., who is legal adviser to the Northern Minister for Agriculture.

HEAT WAVE IN LONDON.

The present heat wave in London, which seems likely to last for several days, is challenging its record-breaking predecessor.

At 10 a.m. yesterday it was four degrees hotter than on Sunday at that time. Men travelled to work carrying their coats, with their shirt sleeves rolled up, and women wore the flimsiest of dresses.

At noon yesterday the shade temperature in London was 80—the same as that recorded at the same time on Sunday.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cuffe, Derrpark, Clonegal, Co. Carlow, an aged widow, was found dead in bed. A verdict that death was due to natural causes was returned at the inquest.

AN OFFICER'S DEATH.

DROWNED AFTER SAVING SOLDIER.

SPEED BOAT THAT TURNED BACK.

"His death was just as honourable as if it took place in action, but I think it is a pity that someone was not given to understand in time that this gallant gentleman was missing," said the East Dorset Coroner, Mr. R. Neville Jones, at the inquest at Swanag last night on Lieutenant J. W. Agar (23), Royal Corps of Signals, stationed at Bulford.

Lieutenant Agar lost his life in attempting to save the lives of two drivers who got into difficulties while bathing at Studland. He got one man ashore, but on returning to save the other was himself drowned.

The second soldier was saved by Mr. Derek H. Kitchin, a London barrister, and his wife, Dr. M. K. Kitchin, who were bathing near by.

Mr. Kitchin said that when he and his wife helped the second soldier ashore they did not know that Lieutenant Agar was there. Eventually Lieutenant Agar's body was recovered by someone from a speed-boat. He added that subsequent investigations showed that where the accident occurred there was a spit of sand, and about one hundred yards from shore there was a very steep shelf from this spit, which was dangerous to non-swimmers.

COULD SEE NOTHING.

Captain Geoffrey Hill, of Yeovil, said he saw a motor-boat and waved to it. The boat went towards the spit of sand, but when within a reasonably short distance of where the bathers were in trouble it turned and went back.

Frederick H. Bryant, of Poole, skipper of the motor boat referred to, said that when he saw a man waving on the shore he turned and went back, but could see nothing. He grounded on a sandbank, and, seeing that it was impossible to get over the sandbank, turned back to Studland. "I did not realise anyone was in trouble," he added.

The Coroner—It never occurred to you to stand by?

Witness—No.

The Coroner—You did not worry? I think your conduct is open to considerable question.

The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, and declared that no blame attached to anyone. They requested that notice boards should be erected at the spot warning bathers of danger.

INSULL EXTRADITION HEARING.

FIRST MOVE IN APPEAL COURT TO-DAY.

From Reuter's Correspondent.

ATHENS, Monday.

The new application of the United States Government for formal sanction for Mr. Insull's arrest is to come before the Appeal Court here to-morrow morning.

Mr. Forest Harness, the official of the United States Attorney-General's office, who has been sent over here in connection with the case, declared this evening, however, that he could not give any information regarding the nature of the indictment, since the papers regarding the extradition demand had not yet been filed, and the Greek Foreign Office was still unaware of the charges.

Nevertheless, he said, justice was the same all over the world, and he felt confident that the Greek standards would be the same as those of the United States when the case came to be tried.

One of the chief difficulties in the affair is that of translating all the legal documents into Greek and finding the corresponding Greek legal terms, but Mr. Harness said that he hoped that the papers would soon be ready and submitted to the Foreign Office.

Mr. Insull was to-day unofficially notified by a plain clothes officer at the nursing home where he is staying that he should be ready to appear, if so desired, before the Court of Appeal at 9.45 to-morrow morning, when the formal sanctioning of the prosecutor's writ is expected to take place.

The head of the Athens police has strictly forbidden the local newspaper men to attempt to interview Mr. Insull or to disturb him in any way on account of his ill-health and old age. Mr. Insull, who was taken into custody on Saturday following the receipt of a formal request from the United States for his detention and extradition, has so far refused to make any statement beyond the complaint that the "great secrecy" of the authorities is handicapping the defence in its preparations.

It is understood, however, that the note verbale handed to the Greek authorities asked for the seizure of all Mr. Insull's private papers with the object of finding evidence to support the new charge brought against him of transferring property in anticipation of bankruptcy.

SHYOK DAM BURSTS AGAIN.

FLOOD WATERS RUSH DOWN FROM KASHMIR

The Shyok Dam burst yesterday morning, and flood waters are pouring down the Indus. They are expected to reach Sukkur within a week, by which time they will have spread out and dissipated.

This is the third occasion since 1929 that the Shyok Dam has burst. In 1929 the flood caused by the bursting of the dam reached as far as Sind, devastating many villages and causing damage to a total of millions of rupees. The rush of flood water also drove a tidal wave up the Kabul River, and the flood worked its way up the Kabul and inundated the whole of the low-lying area round New shera, causing considerable damage there.

In 1932 the dam burst again, releasing a flood which leapt down the course of the Shyok River into the Indus, near Skarda, where the level rose from 14 to 26 feet in 40 minutes.

POPE RECEIVES IRISH PILGRIMS.

ROME, Monday.

The Pope to-day received in audience thirty pilgrims from Ireland. The pilgrims were introduced by Father Browne.

BODY IN UNCLAIMED PARCEL.

When an unclaimed parcel was opened by a clerk in the parcels office of the Irish Omnibus Company, at Aston's quay, Dublin, yesterday morning, it was found to contain the dead body of a female infant.

The parcel, which was wrapped in brown paper, was left in the office some days ago. An inquest will be held on the child's body, and the Civic Guards are investigating the identity of the person who deposited the parcel.

COTTAGE TENANTS' CLAIMS.

At a largely-attended meeting of South Westmeath Cottage Tenants, held in Athlone (Mr. P. Mulvihill presiding), resolutions were passed calling for a 50 per cent. reduction in rents, a division of any untenanted land in each area, and a satisfactory purchase bill. The resolutions were ordered to be sent to the Government and to the representatives in the Dail for the constituency.

The Chairman said that cottage-holders should have the first claim on any land that was being divided in their respective districts.

At Thomastown yesterday 54s. per cwt. was paid for bacon pigs, an increase of 1s.

THE AMERICAN MARKETS.

PRICES MOVE WITHIN NARROW LIMITS: STEADY CLOSE.

Reuter's Telegrams.

Business on the Stock Exchange to-day was dull and listless, and at the close the only price changes recorded were a small number of one point advances and declines. The turnover amounted 2,120,000 shares.

Irregularity was shown at the opening, and activity during the morning was restricted. With the easiness of wheat and cotton constituting a disturbing influence, however, some small selling throughout the list caused recessions of fractions to 2 points, with numerous Industrial, Rail, Metal, Farm Implement, Chemical and "Wet" Stocks 1 to 2 lower.

The aspect of the market in the afternoon was dull and uncertain. Little pressure was noticeable in the more active issues, while Motors and some specialties were given support.

In the late dealings prices continued to move within a narrow range, and the close was steady. The final changes were negligible.

The general belief that Labour Day on September 4 will mark the deadline (final date) in the Administration's programme for bringing industry under the National Recovery Act is, apparently, acting as a restraining influence at present. Many traders on Wall street however, are expected to take up more definite positions after the Labour Day holiday.

Several of the heavy industries are now showing a seasonal contraction of production. The publication Steel, in estimating the activity of mills last week at 48 per cent. of capacity, says that the steel-makers are hoping that a general rise in prices shortly will arrest the decline.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Monday.

Hedge pressure, coupled with liquidation by commission houses, caused early recessions on the grain market to-day. The easier tone of stocks also had a depressing effect, while the delay by the Argentine representatives in signing the agreement reached by the London Wheat Conference had a further disturbing influence. There was a general absence of outside interest, and the news was featureless, the market drifting listlessly and within a narrow range. Bullish crop advices were ignored. Local operators adopted a bearish attitude on the wheat market. Maize declined under the influence of favourable weather reports and in sympathy with wheat. Rye and oats moved in unison with other cereals.

WHEAT opened easy, 1⅛c. to ¾c. down, and closed easy, 1⅜c. to 1¼c. lower.

ROTARIANS IN CONFERENCE.

THIRTY-ONE NATIONS AT LAUSANNE.

LAUSANNE, Monday.

Thirty-one nations from three Continents—Europe, Africa and Asia—were represented at the International Congress of Rotarians, which opened to-day in Lausanne's recently-rebuilt Municipal Theatre.

The Congress began with a reception at a hotel attended by the Mayor of Lausanne, who is himself a Rotarian.

The subjects discussed to-day were Customs tariffs and European monetary standards. The latter subject was opened by Mr. John Crabtree, of Walsall, President of the R.I.B.I.

JEWISH RUPTURE AVERTED.

ZIONIST MEETING PASSES OFF CALMLY.

PRAGUE, Tuesday.

To-day's meeting here of the Zionist Congress passed off in comparative calm, although it was expected that there would be a rupture betwen the Jewish Revisionists and the other Zionist sections.

The final clash over the dispute regarding responsibility for the death of Dr. Chaim Arlosoroff, the Labour leader who was shot in the streets of Tel Aviv last June, has for the moment been averted.

At this morning's session the members of the Zionist Labour Party distributed a pamphlet with new telegrams from Palestine alleging that the Revisionists had participated in the murder. The Revisionists defended themselves in an answer condemning the murder and stating that Revisionists had nothing in common with the murderers, who have not yet been discovered.

Meanwhile negotiations between the opposing parties continue behind the scenes.

Lord Melchett made a short speech before leaving for Vienna. He said that he brought the good wishes of the Naccabi movement.

BATHER DIES AFTER DIVE.

Charles Ernest Walter Mitchell (18), of Caves road, St. Leonard's, Sussex, lost his life while bathing in the sea at St. Leonard's last night.

With Percy Holding, of Edmund road, Hastings, he dived from a groyne. Holding did not wait for his friend to come to the surface and struck out to sea. A few minutes later, realising that his friend was not accompanying him, he turned back and saw Mitchell's head just showing above water. He found Mitchell upright in the water and in a dazed condition. He towed him ashore and artificial respiration was tried without success.

Death is believed to be due to a broken neck, and it is presumed that Mitchell struck his head on the groyne when he dived.

Mitchell, who was in the employ of a local butcher, had been accustomed to bathe at that spot for several years.

LIMITING DRUG MANUFACTURE.

GENEVA, Monday.

The Opium Board of Control, appointed under the 1931 International Convention for limiting the manufacture and regulating the distribution of narcotic drugs, held its first meeting to-day.

The Convention, which came into force in July for thirty countries, applies to cocaine, codeine, dionin, heroin, morphine and peronin.

In accordance with the terms of the agreement the estimates of the amounts of the drugs needed by each country next year for medical and scientific purposes must reach the General Opium Board not later than this month.

HEAVY FINES AT BELFAST.

A fine of £72 was imposed on James R. M'Neilly, Newry street, Banbridge, at the Belfast Summons Court yesterday for using a motor vehicle on which the tax was not paid.

For a similar offence Hugh Drennan, Auburn terrace, Donaghadee, was fined £90. In each case the fine was treble the amount due.

Mr. James Craig prosecuted for the Corporation.

BEET FACTORY SITES.

CHEAP TRANSPORT BY WATER.

KILLALOE, Monday.

AT a large and representative meeting of the farmers and shopkeepers of the parishes of Killaloe and Ballina, held in the Courthouse, Killaloe, yesterday, the claims of Killaloe as a site for a beet factory were set forth.

The Rev. P. J. O'Sullivan, C.C., Killaloe, who presided, stated that no individual district could give the acreage required to supply a sugar factory, and even if this were possible for one year there would still be the problem of rotation of crops. The only alternative was to select a site for a factory which was within economic reach of various agricultural districts. Killaloe provides such a site. It was very central, water provided a very cheap form of transport, and Killaloe, being on the Shannon, was within economic reach of South Clare, North Kerry, North Limerick, North Tipperary, East Clare, East Galway, South Roscommon, West Offaly, and West Westmeath.

The railway, which is a short branch line, runs on to the water, and gives short connections with North Tipperary, County Limerick, mid-Clare, and other places farther afield. In the area opened up by the waterway there are piers at very many centres, so that it was only a matter of re-opening traffic. The same factors which apply to the economic transport of the roots to the factory appdy to the export of the finished product and various by-products. Killaloe possessed, too, an abundant and unfailing water supply, which was essential for a factory.

As coal would be required, the existence of a Killaloe beet factory would give a fillip to the development of the Arigna coal mines. Coal could be brought very cheaply by water from Arigna to Killaloe.

It has been shown, the Chairman added, that the valley of the Shannon is very suited to the growing of the beet crop.

Another meeting will be held on Sunday next, when Dail members and County Councillors of East Clare and North Tipperary will be invited to attend.

OFFALY FARMER'S DEATH.

MOTORING ACCIDENT.

A verdict in accordance with medical evidence was returned by the jury to the Dublin City Coroner, Dr. D. A. MacErlean, yesterday, when an inquest was resumed in Jervis Street Hospital on John Guinan (68), a farmer, who resided at Corslair, Rohan, Tullamore, Offaly, and who died in that institution on June 26th last, following injuries received in a collision between a motor car in which he was driving and a motor van, the property of Messrs. John Wallis and Sons, Ltd., at Enfield, County Meath, on 12th of June.

The jury added that, in their opinion, both drivers showed contributory negligence—John Cahill, driver of the motor car, in not keeping a stricter look-out, and the lorry-driver, Joseph Lee, in cutting over to his wrong side of the road.

Mr. Charles F. Casey (instructed by Mr. J. J. McDonald) appeared for Messrs. Wallis, the owners of the lorry, and the driver, Mr. J. Lee. Next-of-kin were represented by Mr. R. Brereton-Barry (instructed by Mr. S. Matthews), and Mr. P. J. McEnery (instructed by Mr. Ennis, Tullamore) on behalf of Mr. John Galvin and Mr. John Cahill, both of Tullamore, and, respectively, owner and driver of the Austin motor car involved in the collision.

Inspector Doody, Trim, had charge of the case on behalf of the Civic Guards.

Mr. John Cahill, Tullamore, said that on the morning of June 12th last he was driving Mr. Guinan, his wife and daughter up to Dublin from Tullamore. On approaching a sharp corner into Enfield which he knew to be dangerous he slowed down and sounded his horn. As he did so he saw a motor lorry coming up the middle of the street from the direction of Dublin. It was at that time about thirty-five yards away, and he estimated its speed at about thirty-five miles per hour.

Witness tried to get his car on to the footpath out of the way, when the motor lorry swerved over on to its wrong side, and, without decreasing speed, crashed into the side of witness's vehicle, driving on four yards in front of it, and knocking down a direction post. Witness's car then turned over. Mr. Guinan was thrown through the left-hand window, and the car fell over on top of him.

The driver of the express delivery van, Mr. Joseph Lee, 53 Cadogan road, Fairview, said that he was driving a lorry on the day in question from Dublin to Athlone. As he neared Enfield he decreased speed to about fifteen miles per hour. When he was about six yards from the junction of the Edenderry with the main road an Austin four-seater car, driven by the last witness, came around the corner at a very fast speed. Witness knew that he could not hope to pull up in short distance, and swerved over to the right, applying brakes. His car had come almost to a stand-still when it hit the passenger vehicle.

CAR SMASH MYSTERY.

The Cheshire police yesterday circulated the description of a man believed to be the driver of the motor car bearing a West Bromwich registration, which crashed on the main Knutsford-Warrington road, a few miles from Lymm, Cheshire, on Sunday. After the car had turned three somersaults a youth saw a man scramble out, and walk away, apparently uninjured. The man has not been seen since.

Motor patrols, assisted by detectives from West Bromwich, have scoured all the main roads and country lanes, holding up traffic to question drivers.

Plain clothes and uniformed men, with the help of game-keepers and farm hands, have also "beat" woods and meadows.

The search for the man is being carried on in Manchester, all towns in Cheshire and Lancashire, and on the countryside between Warrington and close to Macclesfield.

DUBLIN PENSIONER'S DEATH.

The City Coroner, Dr. D. A. McErlean, yesterday held an inquest on Michael Beirne, aged eighty-four years, who was found dead in bed at the Corporation lodging-house in Benburb street on Sunday morning.

Bernard Beirne, a grand-nephew, gave evidence of identification; he said he had not seen the dead man for six months. His grand-uncle was in receipt of an old age pension, and lived in different lodging-houses.

Dr. J. F. Falvey said death was due to congestion of the lungs, accelerated by chronic heart disease, and the Coroner recorded a verdict that Beirne died from natural causes.

ELIXIR MADE OF GOLD AND BRAINS

Doctor's claim to put 10 years on life

A new Elixir of Life which, it is claimed, will lengthen man's life on earth by 10 years, was on view at the London Medical Exhibition recently.

The preparation is the discovery of an Italian doctor, who has spent 20 years on his investigations. It consists of

Iodine Palladium
Brain Extracts

and many other ingredients. (Palladium is a rare metal of the platinum group.)

The inventor claims that his elixir will arrest senile decay. It is in liquid form and is taken in minute doses only.

Ask your local chemist for CASALI-ALPHA or write to-day for full details to the ANGLO-AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL CO., LTD., 59 Dingwall Road, Croydon. (27633)

ULSTER MOTOR RALLY : THE SHANNON AT ATHLONE

The abnormally low level which the water of the River Shannon has reached can be seen in this picture taken at Athlone. The embankment, on which bathers can be seen, is usually covered with swiftly-flowing water.

WOODBROOK ROAD COLLISION.

INQUEST OPENED ON TWO VICTIMS.

THE inquest on the two victims of the motor accident on the Bray-Dublin road on Saturday night was opened yesterday at St. Columcille's Hospital, Loughlinstown, by Dr. J. P. Brennan (Coroner for South County Dublin), sitting with a jury.

The persons who were killed when the car in which they were travelling collided with an Irish Omnibus Company 'bus at Woodbrook were:—Michael J. O'Brien (37), a civil servant, who resided at Cabra road, Dublin, and Miss Nancy Coughlan (18), filing-clerk, of Frankfort House, Upper Rathmines.

Thomas Smyth, Camac Park, Inchicore, driver of the 'bus involved in the accident, is now on remand, under bail, on a charge of causing the deaths of Mr. O'Brien and Miss Coughlan.

Superintendent O'Reilly, Bray, with Sergeants O'Reilly and Ryan, represented the Guards at the inquest, and Mr. E. H. Burne, solicitor, appeared for the Irish Omnibus Co. and the driver, Thomas Smyth.

William Christopher O'Brien, 155 Cabra road, Dublin, said that his brother suffered no infirmity of hearing or eyesight. His brother was the owner of a Bean car, and witness was aware on Saturday evening at 5.30 o'clock that he was "going for a run" to some place.

George Patrick Cunningham, Frankfort House, Dalkey, said that his niece was employed in their filing department by Hospitals Trust, Ltd.

Dr. Joshua Pim, F.,R.C.S.I., said that O'Brien was dead when admitted to hospital at 11.15 p.m. A post-mortem showed numerous scalp wounds, and the fracture of the breast-bone, in witness's opinion, caused instantaneous death, from perforation of the lungs and internal hemorrhage.

Miss Coughlan was also dead when admitted to hospital at 11.15 p.m. Death would have been caused by a wound in the throat.

Sergeant N. O'Brien said that he arrested the 'bus driver, Smyth, at 2 p.m. on Sunday, and that there would be proceedings at the next District Court.

To Mr. Burne—I was on the scene of the accident twenty minutes afterwards, and Smyth was then perfectly sober.

This concluded the evidence.

Mr. Burne—I have been asked by the directors of the Irish Omnibus Company and Driver Smyth to tender their sincere sympathy to the relatives of the dead persons, and also their heartfelt sympathy to those who are at present lying as patients in the hospital, and hope that these will recover rapidly.

The Coroner expressed sympathy on his own behalf and that of the jury, and added that he had never had to investigate an accident of similar severity.

Superintendent O'Reilly, after joining in the expression on behalf of the Guards, formally applied for adjournment of the inquest until the criminal proceedings have been concluded.

The Coroner agreed to this course, and the inquest was adjourned.

BRITTAS COLLISION.

INQUEST ON MOTOR CYCLIST.

A verdict of death in accordance with the medical evidence, the jury exonerating the driver of the pony and cart from all blame, was returned at an inquest held yesterday at the Meath Hospital by Dr. D. A. MacErlean on William Dobbie (24), Hermitage, Inchicore, who died a few hours after admission to that institution on Thursday night last, following a collision between the motor-cycle which he was riding and a pony and cart, near Brittas, Co. Wicklow, on the same night.

Dr. Crowe, house surgeon, Meath Hospital, who described the injuries, stated that death was due to shock and hæmorrhage.

Mr. Deegan, egg merchant, driver of the pony and cart involved, said that while returning from the city to Wicklow, he lighted the lamp when he was at a point between Brittas and Blessington. At a spot generally known as Sandybanks, he saw a very bright light coming towards him in the centre of the road. When within twenty yards, the light, which he recognised as that of a motor bicycle, swerved towards him. He felt a bump on the left-hand side of the cart, which nearly upset the vehicle, and the pony immediately got out of control and started to run. He succeeded in bringing the pony to a stand-still near a gate, and witness, in company with a man named Purcell went back.

In reply to Mr. C. Gainsbury (instructed by Messrs. Norris, Goddard and Coulter), who appeared for Mr. Philip Deegan, witness said that the motor-cycle was travelling faster than he had ever seen a motor-cycle travel before.

Superintendent Sheridan, who represented the Guards, stated that the general indications were that the bicycle swerved into the cart.

Sympathy was expressed with the relatives of Dobbie by Mr. Gainsbury.

TOOK POISON AFTER KILLING WIFE.

MAN'S DEATH AFTER ARREST.

A rider, exonerating the police from all blame, was added by the jury at the inquest at Longton, Stoke-on-Trent, yesterday, when they returned a verdict of suicide by arsenical poisoning while not of sound mind on William Clutton Tomlinson (45), a potters' mill hand, of Spotacre, Fulford, Stoke-on-Trent, who died in Longton Police Station shortly after his arrest, following the discovery of the body of his wife, Elizabeth Tomlinson, with knife wounds in the chest.

Chief Inspector Reader stated that he was pleased the jury raised the point, as there might be suspicion in people's minds that Tomlinson took the arsenic after he was taken into custody.

At the inquest on Mrs. Tomlinson, who was found dead on the floor of a house in Chadwick street, Longton, where she was living apart from her husband, a verdict was returned that she died from wounds inflicted by Tomlinson.

It was stated at the inquest yesterday that while the police were searching Tomlinson's clothing he began to vomit, and although given an emetic he collapsed and died.

The Coroner, Mr. W. M. Huntbach, read a report from Dr. E. C. Myott, a pathologist, stating that the condition of Tomlinson's stomach was consistent with acute arsenical poisoning.

SLIGO MAN'S MANY AILMENTS.

REJECTED BY FOREIGN LEGION.

When John Hill, of no fixed abode, who stated that he was a native of County Sligo, was charged at Clonmel yesterday with breaking a window in a premises in the town, he said that he suffered from eight or nine ailments and was "down and out," and unable to travel any further. He would not be admitted to the County Home because he did not belong to the county. He had last worked in July as a farm labourer in England. He had not been in Sligo for twenty years. "I am so unfit," he added, "that I would not be taken into the Foreign Legion when I applied at the recruiting office in Dunkirk last July."

The Justice imposed a sentence of seven days with hard labour, not to operate if Hill was not found either in County Tipperary or Waterford.

THE ST. LEGER MARKET.

FANCIED CANDIDATES AT YORK THIS AFTERNOON.

FROM OUR TRAVELLING CORRESPONDENT.

LONDON, Monday Night.

ALTHOUGH all appears to go well with Hyperion, there is a certain amount of hesitancy about supporting him at present for the St. Leger, and this may continue until the eve of the race. When the card was called over at the Victoria Club this afternoon 11 to 4 was offered against him, as against 7 to 4 in the middle of July. This was taken to a small sum, but there was no disposition to accept 5 to 2.

Scarlet Tiger shed a few points following on his defeat at Stockton, and after 15 to 2 was taken 7 to 1 was the best offer.

Following this the French candidate, Thor, hardened to 8 to 1. It is not exactly in his favour that Assuerus, who finished within a neck of him in the Grand Prix de Paris, was beaten into third place yesterday in the Grand Prix de Deauville behind Queen of Scots, owned by Mr. Clem Hobson, a well-known Englishman, who breeds and races in France.

Raymond, who may be the mount of Gordon Richards, and is likely to be the best from Manton, came to 100 to 7, while Harinero went out to 22 to 1. Altogether the proceedings were not illuminating.

The heat wave continues, so we go to York to-morrow to face more racing on iron-hard ground. There is no watering system in use there, and it can get terribly hard on that heavy clay land, especially on the far side of the course. If such conditions continue, several intended candidates will not run on Wednesday for the Ebor.

I dealt yesterday with the prospects for the Nunthorpe Stakes to-morrow, so there is no need to go over the ground again. I believe MYROBELLA will beat Gold Bridge and Concerto.

Brown Betty has not been sent for the Yorkshire Oaks, but her stable companion, Eclair, will be on the spot to oppose Solfatara (who was on offer for the St. Leger at 50 to 1 to-day), Chatelaine, Dona Sol and others. ECLAIR has not so far attempted a mile and a half, but, remembering how far she ran before she could be pulled up after winning the Leicestershire Oaks—10 furlongs—I see no reason why she should not get the distance here and win as well.

There was not a great deal to choose between her and Brown Betty in the spring. Brown Betty runs in the Park Hill Stakes at Doncaster, and this may be her only race before she is sent to her owner's place in America.

Captain Boyd-Rochfort may also be expecting to win a two-year-old race for another American patron, Mr. Joe Widener, with Autumn, who won the Selsey Stakes at Goodwood. He is in two races—the Badminton Plate and the Prince of Wales's Plate. In the former he has to give 10lb. to Mr. Victor Gilpin's FLAMINIUS. The latter is an improving colt, who may win. I see better chances for AUTUMN in the Prince of Wales's Plate, for which Lord Derby's Haytime has not been sent.

The Clifton Welter, the last race of the afternoon, is open. Fountain Pen, who has won his last four races, has been sent for this, and should run well. I like also the chances of Debonair and SARAFAN, and the latter may win.

GALTEE MORE.

NUNTHORPE CHANCES.

BEAUTY CREST MAY WIN THE YORKSHIRE OAKS.

THE three-day York meeting, which starts to-day, ushers in what is generally termed the "back-end" of the season, a period during which racing from day to day has a very attractive appearance, with big fields for events of handicap company the predominating feature. Naturally the Knavesmire has been affected by the prolonged spell of exceptionally hot weather, and the probability is that in some cases this week runners will not be up to the usual average.

Of the three "thousand pounders" on the first day's card, the Nunthorpe Sweepstakes should produce a sparkling finish; for, although only four may run, the field will be representative of the speediest horses in training. The meeting of such brilliant sprinters as Myrobella, Gold Bridge and Concerto, in fact, should be one of the "titbits" of the year.

The race presents a bit of a problem, because the three named have never met over five furlongs. Myrobella has beaten Concerto twice over six furlongs, by a head in the July Cup at Newmarket, when receiving 15lb., and by two lengths in the King George Stakes at Goodwood on a pound worse terms. Only 8lb. separate the pair now, and I can well imagine that of Bell's charge will have plenty of support. My preference is for the Beckhampton trained filly, because five furlongs is undoubtedly her best distance, and she does not mind the going in its present condition.

Gold Bridge, who has recently changed hands, seems to be a better horse this year than ever. He won the King's Stand Stakes at Ascot and the Molyneux Cup at Liverpool in comfortable fashion, and several of his victims have since paid tribute to the form. He can produce a tremendous burst of speed from the half-way mark, and, providing Myrobella does not get too far in front by the time he is fully extending himself, he will have a distinct chance of winning.

Brown Betty gives way to Eclair in the Yorkshire Oaks, and Mr. M. Field's filly should prove a creditable substitute. She has won her last three races, one of which was at Leicester over ten furlongs. If she can get the additional quarter of a mile it will take something smart to lower her colours.

Beauty Crest is better off here with Eclair than would be the case in a handicap. Over seven furlongs at Newmarket in June she ran Eclair to a neck, and is now 7lb. better off. She is a winner over a mile, and being by Gainsborough is bred to stay this trip at least. Chatelaine, the Oaks winner, comes into it, and Solfatara, who is greatly improved, will give them all plenty to do. I take my chance with

BEAUTY CREST.

Turbotin has made such great progress since running Lo Zingaro to a length and a half at Goodwood that he is likely to start a warm favourite for the Prince of Wales's Plate. I anticipate, however, a Stockbridge success for

PADDINGTON,

Havelock, Fountain Pen and Decadence II. are all well fancied, and I sum up in favour of the first-named, who is probably the best treated in a cleverly-framed affair.

The Badminton Plate may be fought out between Autumn, Flaminius and Vallip. I have an idea that the two first-named have been slightly overrated, and who made a very promising début when fourth to Her Eminence, Credenda colt and Bay Monk at Kempton, gets my vote.

NEWMARKET NOTES.

FOX-EARTH IN FORM FOR THE EBOR HANDICAP: TO-DAY'S HINTS.

NEWMARKET, Monday.

THIS morning Brigadier Tomkinson witnessed the Egerton House trainer, W. Jarvis, give his Ebor Handicap horse, Fox-Earth, a good stripped mile spin with Craig Park, and it is perfectly obvious that if he is beaten on Wednesday it will not be through lack of condition.

Major Beatty gave Commander III. a half-speed gallop over one mile with Rosenkavalier, while Manacle, who may miss the Badminton Plate at York to-morrow for a later engagement at Manchester—the Autumn Breeders' Plate—was slipped along over five furlongs with Jeruel. Rock Star, Copra and Red River were then stripped and sent one mile and a half at a good pace, the first-named going well throughout.

The Hon. George Lambton was one of the first to begin operations on the Limekilns, and, after Pricket, Lavendula II. and Guiscard had cantered five furlongs, the four St. Leger candidates—Hyperion (W. Rickaby), Highlander, Scarlet Tiger and Beacon Hill—were given similar exercise, but to-morrow they will be more actively employed.

Frank Butters stripped Felicitation, and, with Taj Ud Din, he was given a good seven furlongs spin, while two of the Ebor Handicap charges, Robber Chief and Shamsuddin, both moved well in a good seven furlongs spin, as did Grey Wonder in a similar gallop.

One of the best gallops on the Limekilns was that which J. Cannon gave to his Ebor Handicap charge, Within-the-Law (Wells), who was accompanied by Moonlighter. After six furlongs had been covered the latter was holding out signals of distress, and Cannon assisted the first-named on his hack the remainder of the distance.

Whatever may be the performance of Day's Wild Son in the Falmouth Handicap on Wednesday, I must say I have not seen him so fresh and well as he is at present, and he moved well in his good mile gallop with Hussar.

I am hopeful of Powney winning a minor handicap shortly with Mazeppa, who moved well in a good stripped mile and a quarter gallop, in which he was assisted by Solano for the first mile.

C. Waugh gave Trustee (G. Nicoll) a good mile and a half spin with Peer Gynt (W. Rickaby), Roseate and False Point.

We have great hopes of winning a few races at York to-morrow. Dare You, Ladygold, Autumn and represent us in the Badminton Plate, and I prefer the last-named.

Swiftsure did not run up to expectations at Redcar, and I prefer the chance of Peace Pact for the Melrose Selling Sweepstakes. She will give

On the strength of her second in the Epsom Oaks Solfatara should run well for the Yorkshire Oaks, but Star of England, who was behind her, has made good headway of late. I prefer Parsan to Divine Lady and Beauty Crest, but has shown in her gallops that she possesses stamina, and she has my vote.

GOLD BRIDGE

will be meeting some very smart sprinters in the Nunthorpe Sweepstakes, but I am in hopes of his being successful.

Of the stable companions, Autumn and Lady Rosemary, in the Prince of Wales's Plate the latter may do duty, but on their Goodwood running Turbotin should again beat her. Gatacre and Enchantment will be making their debut, and may do better later. Grasmere colt is well, but my vote goes to

TURBOTIN

Fountain Pen will find plenty of supporters for the Clifton Welter, and he should beat Talpra and Paddington, but I regard as our best.

LITTLE DOING ON THE ST. LEGER.

SUPPORT FOR HARINERO AND SOLFATARA.

There was very little doing at the Victoria Club yesterday on the St. Leger. The only bet taken about the favourite Hyperion was 255 to 100, leaving 5 to 2 the best offer.

Harinero and Solfatara were each backed to win £1,000 at their quoted rates. Trifles only went on the others dealt with.

ASCOT BLOODSTOCK SALE.

Mr. David White held another of his bloodstock sales at Ascot yesterday, when horses in training, mares, yearlings and foals were offered. The highest prices of the sale were for Lord Rosebery's pair. Vitruvius, a three years old colt by Sansovina out of Verona, was purchased by Mr. M. Marsh for 240 guineas, and Mr. George Duller went to 140 guineas for the five years old gelding, Huron, by Hurry On out of Halidome.

The best of the yearlings was a bay filly by Pommern out of Swinemunde, sent up by the West Grinstead Stud. She was sold to Mr. C. Green for 110 guineas, and the same purchaser went to 85 guineas for another yearling sent up by the same vendors, a filly by Tremola out of Warrior's Star.

NO OCTOBER MEET AT DOWNPATRICK

MARCH FIXTURE TO BE APPLIED FOR.

At a meeting of the Stewards and Committee of the Down Hunts' Steeplechases at Downpatrick yesterday a discussion took place on the proposal to hold a meeting at Downpatrick on October 26. This, however, was considered to be impracticable, in view of the difficulty of getting horses from the Free State.

On the motion of Colonel Gordon, seconded by Captain Lindsay, it was decided meanwhile to apply to the Stewards of the Irish National Hunt Steeplechase Committee for a fixture next spring on the ordinary dates in March—namely, Wednesday, 7th, and Thursday, 8th.

On the proposition of Colonel Gordon, seconded by Captain Forde, a vote of sympathy was passed with the relatives of the late Captain R. Blakiston-Houston, D.L., of The Roddens, Ballywalter.

Those present at the meeting were:—Mr. James Hurst, J.P. (in the chair); Captain Forde, Captain D. C. Lindsay, Messrs. W. J. Murland, J.P.; F. W. Uprichard, W. Hutton, R. J. Carr, W. J. Porter and T. Hughes; Major Beamish (hon. secretary) and Colonel Gordon, M.P. (hon. treasurer).

DINGHY CHAMPIONSHIP RACE.

It has been decided to sail the 12ft. Dinghy Championship Race (for the cup presented by Mr. R. N. Guinness) at Howth on Saturday next, instead of at Dun Laoghaire, as previously arranged.

The change of venue is simply one of convenience for owners, the majority of dinghies remaining over at Howth after the regatta, that harbour providing a more central point for the race than Kingstown would under the circumstances. At the moment the starting time has been provisionally fixed for 3.45 p.m.

D.B.S.C. WATER WAGS' MATCH.

Pansy finished first in the D.B.S.C. match on Saturday, but could not concede Kittiwake her handicap for first club prize. The race was sailed in a fresh southerly breeze. Starting at 3.20 p.m., the finish was:—

| | H. | M. | S. |

17-FOOTERS EVENING RACE.

The D.B.S.C. evening race for 17-Footers, which stands postponed from the 17th inst., will be sailed this evening. The handicap is:—Pauline, Silver Moon, and Bobolink (scr.) allow Anita and Hera 1m., Rosemary and Oona 2m., Deilginis and Eileen 3m., Leila and Echo 6m.

ENNISKILLEN CLUB CUP.

The race for the Enniskillen Yacht Club Cup took place on Lower Lough Erne, six yachts starting from Rossclare at 4.15 p.m. in a W.N.W. wind over the No. 1 starboard course. The finishing times were:—

GREAT SUSSEX DOUBLE.

THEIR SECOND VICTORY OVER CHAMPION COUNTY.

SUSSEX gained their second victory over Yorks this season, defeating the champions at home by an innings and 20 runs. When play was resumed Sussex held a lead of 33 runs, with three wickets still to fall, and as the result of just over an hour's most entertaining cricket they increased their advantage to 134. Pearce, a promising all-rounder from the county nursery, hit out most confidently, driving Verity for a 6, in addition to obtaining six 4's; while Cornford (W.) played very stylish cricket, eventually carrying his bat.

On going in a second time 134 in arrears, Yorks again fared badly, Holmes being leg before at 24, while Sutcliffe was taken in the slips at 41. Another disaster befell the champions nine runs later, when Leyland was sent back. After lunch Sussex maintained their advantage, Mitchell alone offering any real resistance. Fifth to leave at 96, he batted for an hour and a half, but once he had gone the end was not delayed. Pearce followed up his valuable innings by securing five wickets at a cost of 34 runs.

PARKER'S FIRST CENTURY.

Gloucestershire played themselves into a strong position at Bournemouth, where they compelled Hampshire to face arrears of 182, and with the latter collapsing badly in their second innings, Gloucester won by an innings and 89 runs. The biggest individual triumph of the day was scored by G. W. Parker, who made his initial century in first-class cricket. Going in at the fall of the fifth wicket he was last out, having stayed two and three-quarter hours to see the total raised from 198 to 403. Spectacular driving featured his display. Twice he drove the ball clean over the spectators' heads, and on the second occasion it was lost in a garden adjoining the ground. He also hit fourteen 4's. Using his feet cleverly, he timed his strokes in front of the wicket perfectly and hit skilfully on the leg side.

GODDARD DEADLY.

The Hampshire second innings was a dismal failure. Mead was unable to bat, and the innings was all over in an hour and fifty minutes for 93. Goddard was chiefly responsible for the debacle. Going on after the first two wickets had fallen to Matthews, with only 16 scored, he found a worn spot, and was practically unplayable, taking four wickets for eight. He was splendidly supported in the field, Hammond and Lyon making brilliant catches. Sixth out at 90, Brown made an heroic attempt to stop the collapse, staying an hour and forty minutes, and hitting eight 4's.

At Northampton, where 383 runs were scored for two wickets on Saturday, batsmen yesterday were again in the ascendant, and by tea time 333 more runs had been obtained, and only four wickets had fallen. Derbyshire, who added 155 and declared at 538 for three, dismissed three Northamptonshire men for 178 before the tea interval arrived. In just under three-quarters of an hour Townsend and Smith added 83, their partnership producing 177 in two hours and thirty-five minutes. Townsend had four 6's and thirteen 4's in a faultless 142, occupying three hours and three-quarters. Worthington, driving well, hit three 6's and seven 4's in 70 out of 112 in fifty minutes, and Smith, batting three hours and a half without giving a chance, made 15 boundary strokes.

SANDYCOVE BEAT PEMBROKE.

LEAGUE FORM BORNE OUT IN CUP TIE.

SANDYCOVE the Senior, and Clontarf 2nd the Junior League champions, were both engaged last evening in the Senior and Junior Cup semi-finals, the former playing in each competition. League form was borne out in the two games, Sandycove beating Pembroke, and Clontarf 2nd defeating Sandycove 2nd (holders) in well-fought-out encounters.

SENIOR CUP SEMI-FINAL.

SANDYCOVE ........ 3 PEMBROKE ........ 0

The first half was vigorously and evenly contested, Pembroke being a shade the better. The marking was too keen for their forwards to have much opportunity, but, nevertheless, McCormick was called on several times to save difficult shots. One of the Pembroke backs was unable to stay out the hot pace, and after the change over Sandycove gradually gained the ascendancy. A smartly-taken free by Fagan let O'Brien through to open the score. Wallace swam through and had hard lines in not equalising.

From another free to Fagan Kelly, unmarked, swam in to place the ball past Shannon for the second. Ellerker hit the Sandycove crossbar with a fine shot, and subsequently a Pembroke score was prevented by a fine save by McCormick from the same player. Judd made an opening for Kelly to score a third goal. Generally, the play was of the Cup-tie variety, ultra keen marking spoiling combined moves.

Sandycove—W. J. McCormick, G. C. Higginbotham (capt.), N. F. Judd, J. K. Doran, M. Kelly, L. O'Brien, C. Fagan.

Pembroke—J. P. Shannon, J. P. Wallace (capt.), F. Murphy, H. L. Harte, D. Rudd, H. G. Ellerker, J. H. Morton.

Referee—Mr. H. F. Brennan.

JUNIOR CUP-HOLDERS FAIL.

CLONTARF 2nd ...... 4 SANDYCOVE 2nd ... 1

Smart combination in the opening minute gave Clontarf the lead, Sheridan placing nicely for Case to score coolly. Clontarf should have had another score, a "sitter" being missed. From the goal throw Cremin sent up a long pass to Healy, who equalised smartly. Sandycove played up well, and Poole scored brilliantly. Clontarf made several combined moves, but the Sandycove defence was good.

Clontarf were clearly superior in all-round play in the second half. Doyle gave them the lead with a well-placed back-flip, and he again scored within a couple of minutes. Sheridan and Mulally worked out an opening, and the former scored a great goal from the touch line. The combination in this game was better than in the senior match, the winners giving a polished display.

Clontarf 2nd—W. F. Poole, B. Gaffney, J. B. Mulally, R. Sheridan, E. J. Doyle (capt.), W. F. Case, and C. P. Grier.

Sandycove 2nd—P. Kelly, A. Cullen, A. Duffy, W. Cremin, J. Tallon, S. Healy, P. Hogan.

Referee—Mr. H. G. Ellerker.

TO-NIGHT'S MATCH.

Senior Cup—Clontarf v. Dublin University, Clontarf Baths 7 o'clock.

A burglar put his fist through a picture of Venus in the dining room of a house he had entered, because he disapproved of it, states Reuter from Johannesburg. His bleeding hand afterwards aroused the suspicions of a policeman, and led to arrest.

AN IRISH SUCCESS AT DEAL.

LIONEL MUNN WINS FROM PLUS 2.

LIONEL O. MUNN, the former Irish champion, won the Borough of Deal tournament on the Royal Cinque Ports course yesterday.

Munn in the final defeated Major-General G. W. Howard (Royal St. George's) by 4 and 3. It was a notable victory in that the Irishman was backmarker at plus 2, and had to concede Howard five strokes.

In the semi-final Munn beat G. O. Dunsmore (4), of Wanstead, by 2 and 1, and Howard defeated A. J. Peech (Worplesdon) plus 1 by 2 and 1.

Lionel Munn, a native of Derry, is 46 years old, and before the Great War was one of the leading golfers of the time. An Irish international, he also represented the amateurs against the professionals at Sandwich in 1911. Perhaps the greatest match he ever played was against Charles Palmer in the third round of the 1908 amateur championship at Sandwich, in which he was beaten at the 28th hole—a record tie for the championship. He was a semi-finalist for the Amateur Championship last year, losing his match to John de Forest through a putting lapse.

He was thrice a winner of the Irish Open Amateur Championship (1909-10-11), a semi-finalist in 1912, and won the Irish "Close" amateur title in 1908, 11, 13 and 14, being runner-up in 1910; while his championship successes also included the South of Ireland in 1911, and the Belgian Amateur in 1931-32.

He was selected to play for Ireland in the matches which precede the Irish Open Amateur Championship at Newcastle next month, and as he is playing first-class golf it is to be hoped that there is no truth in the rumour that he has declared off the team, and that J. Carr (Royal County Down) has been offered the vacant place.

THE £1,040 TOURNAMENT.

James Braid, J. H. Taylor, and Alex. Herd winners of the event about thirty years ago, are among the 147 entrants for the Southern sectional qualifying competition for the £1,040 tournament. Twenty-eight places will be at stake at Pinner Hill, Middlesex, on September 6 and 7, and the final stages will be held at Purley Downs from September 19 to 22. Henry Cotton, now attached to the Waterloo Club, Brussels, who won the tournament last year, is one of four overseas entrants. W. Nolan (Portmarnock) will be a competitor.

Other past winners in the field are A. H. Padgham, Abe Mitchell, C. A. Whitcombe, and Archie Compston. Alfred Perry, last year's runner-up; Edward Ray, Percy Alliss, Arthur Havers, and Arthur Lacey also are in the list.

ARTHUR LACEY'S RECORD.

A. J. Lacey, the Selsdon Park professional, and British Ryder Cup player, had two successive 2's in a record-breaking round on his own course near Sanderstead, Surrey, yesterday. He went 65. At the sixteenth, a hole of 370 yards, an enormous drive finished a yard from the hole, and he holed the putt for a two. The details of his round were:—Out—4 3 3 3 5 4 4 4 4—34. Home—4 4 3 4 5 2 2 3 4—31.

AMATEUR RECORD FOR GREYSTONES.

Out—4 5 4 3 4 5 3 4 3—36
In —3 4 3 5 4 4 4 4 4—33
69

MISS WILSON'S RECORD ROUND OF 76.

Miss Enid Wilson, the British champion, with a round of 76, created a record for the qualifying stages over the Exmoor Country Club's Course at Illinois, where the American Women's Championship began yesterday. Miss Wilson is making her third attempt to bring off the "double," of winning the Ladies and the American Ladies' titles in one year. In her two previous bids she failed.

She was the only English player among the 119 competitors who took part in the eighteen holes qualifying test, to decide thirty-two players who will contest the match play stages, commencing to-day.

Miss Wilson headed the qualifiers. Two strokes behind her were Miss Virginia Van Wie (the holder), Miss Maureen Orcutt and Miss Helen Hicks, winner in 1931.

Miss Wilson's card was:—

Out—5 6 4 4 4 5 3 4 4—39
In —4 4 4 3 6 5 4 4 3—37
76

MONOLOGUE UPSETS THE ODDS.

LAST SIX IN THE IRISH DERBY.

THE last of the semi-finals in the Irish Derby was won at Shelbourne Park last night by Monologue, who beat the much-fanced Mooncoin Captain by four lengths. The latter was unlucky in the early stages, and Monologue, cutting in for the lead at the first bend, was never headed. The final will be decided on Saturday night. Those qualified are Treasure Hopeful, Swift Heart, Right Incline, Lacken Warrior, Monologue, and Mooncoin Captain.

Top's Audacity won the Clonmel Stake, but had Butler's Gift not been baulked coming into the straight he would likely have succeeded, as only a neck separated them.

IRISH GREYHOUND DERBY.

Third semi-final—Mr. L. Maher's bd. b. MONOLOGUE (2) (Mutton Cutlet—High Force), 5 to 2 agst., 1; Mr. R. Moore's MOONCOIN CAPTAIN (1), 6 to 4 on, 2; Mr. J. McCarthy's ORMONDE LOAFER (5), 100 to 6, 3. Also ran—Silvery Sail (6), 20 to 1; Cacography (4), 100 to 7; Mr. Moon (3), 7 to 1. Four lengths. One length. 30.70 secs.

DUBLIN STAKE — Mr. H. O'Leary's f. b. LIVELY MOVER (3) (Wily Warrior—Manly Mover), 6 to 1, 1; Mr. T. Killane's HELEN'S HE RAY (6), 3 to 1, 2; Mr. J. O'Connor's DEBONITA (5), 3 to 1, 3. Also ran—Flaxen Beauty (1), 3 to 1; Joyous Greetings (4), 5 to 1; Castle Flyer (2), 7 to 4. A head; a neck. 31.80 secs.

CELTIC HURDLE — Mr. T. Meehan's bd. d. SAIL (4) (Oh Call Boy—Balkaun Lass), 4 to 1, 1; Mr. T. A. Parkins' WALTZING DICK (1), 2 to 1, 2; Mr. R. Cully's LISTING SERGEANT (3), 3 to 1, 3. Also ran—Brindle Berry (6), 7 to 4. One length; three lengths. 33.58 secs.

POLAND REFUSE PRENN.

WARSAW, Monday.

Daniel Prenn's request to be allowed to play for Poland, the country of his birth, has been turned down by the Polish Lawn Tennis Association. Prenn, who was born a Polish citizen, of Jewish parents, was formely Germany's leading Davis Cup player. He left Germany on the introduction of the Hitler régime, and has now settled in England. The Polish Lawn Tennis Association, after due consideration, came to the conclusion that as Prenn had refused hitherto to play for Poland there was no reason why he should now be allowed to wear Polish colours, especially as in 1932 he abandoned his Polish nationality and adopted that of Germany.

VINES AND GLEDHILL BEATEN.

BROOKLINE, Monday.

Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill were to-day beaten in the semi-finals of the American men's doubles championship by F. X. Shields and Frankie Parker, the latter pair winning by 3-6, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2. Shields and Parker will oppose the young Australians, A. Quist and D. P. Turnbull, in the final. On Saturday the Australians defeated Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn in a match which went to 63 games.

ROAD SCHEME INQUIRY.

MR. GEORGE GIBBS'S DEFENCE.

THE Committee appointed by Monmouthshire County Council to inquire into allegations of corruption against members of the County Council held its second sitting at Newport yesterday. After further witnesses had been heard the Inquiry was adjourned until September 5.

During the latter stage of yesterday's proceedings, Councillor George Gibbs (Chairman of the Main Roads and Bridges Committee of the County Council) charged Councillor D. J. Vaughan, ex-M.P. for the Forest of Dean, with using "undue influence."

Councillor Gibbs handed up a batch of letters, which were read. They concerned chiefly events in the years 1926-27-28, when the main road between Cardiff and Newport was under construction by the Council Council, by direct labour.

One letter, addressed by Mr. Vaughan to Major Vincent, engineer-in-charge, read—"I wonder whether you could, without inconvenience, make up an order now and again of ironmongery, tools, etc., required, for which you could give a few days' notice to a very deserving ironmonger, Mr. Sam Filer, J.P., O.B.E., Tredegar. He is having a hard struggle, and is a very worthy man."

Other letters referred to the purchase of cement and overalls, and the hire of a lorry.

Councillor Vaughan, who insisted on taking the oath, denied that he had used "undue influence" as chairman, vice-chairman, or as a member of the Roads and Bridges Committee. He said that he only wanted to ensure that people who were county ratepayers became the agents for supply, instead of Newport and Cardiff firms.

Alderman J. Crew (a member of the Committee)—Do not you think that in writing to these firms, and Major Vincent, or to other officials, you were leaving yourself open to criticism?

Councillor Vaughan—My answer is that I was the only one out of 86 members of the County Council who had any knowledge of the Cardiff road schemes. I was qualified to deal with things like the Cardiff road. I wrote as I did, and I make no apology for what I did.

GAVE NO ORDERS.

Councillor Vaughan added that he did not give orders in connection with the work, and did not give instructions to Major Vincent, or to Mr. Bennett, the County Surveyor, but he made recommendations.

Referring to the fact that he wrote to a Bristol firm for samples of material when the order had already been placed, and that he then suggested that the order should be divided among three, Councillor Vaughan said—"There is a tremendous amount of vengeance imported into a simple, above-board transaction."

Councillor Gibbs—Never have I had a venemous tongue, a dictatorial manner, and never have I been violent in speech, or rude to anyone in the Council Chamber. I resent that very much from a man of your standing.

Councillor Vaughan (referring to the letter)—It is a recommendation.

Councillor Gibbs—God save us all.

Alderman W. Dunn (a member of the Inquiry Committee)—It is news to me that any member of the County Council could go and divide a contract.

Councillor Vaughan—That is a lie. Continuing, Councillor Vaughan said that he took such interest in the Cardiff road scheme because he had practically given up business, and had hardly anything else to do, except devote his life to public service. He considered it a moral obligation to watch the progress of the scheme and give all the advice he could without interfering.

Councillor Gibbs—Can you tell the Committee if there is any truth in the suggestion that the gates of your premises were at one time the property of the County Council?

Councillor Vaughan—That is absolutely a baseless suggestion, and I repudiate it with contempt. The answer is emphatically "No."

AN ELECTION AGENT.

Councillor Vaughan was further questioned with reference to the fact that Enoch Griffiths was his election agent, and he said that Griffiths was secretary of Caerwent Labour Party when he was asked to become their candidate. By virtue of the constitution, the Secretary became his election agent. He ascertained on his return from Palestine that Griffiths had been paid for four days' work by the County Council when, in fact, he was engaged in electioneering, and he told the Labour Party that they had to pay the four days or he would pay it. Griffiths went every morning when the timekeeper came round, and as soon as the timekeeper entered his presence off he went on electioneering business. "I protested that I would never have an election agent who would carry on this practice," said Councillor Vaughan. He added that he reported the matter to the Clerk and the Accountant of the County Council, and brought it before the Labour Party before the Committee of Inquiry was set up.

Mr. Percy Stafford, the County Accountant, confirmed this fact in the witness box, and in reply to the Chairman said that there was something definitely wrong. The time book filled up by one man showed Griffiths as working for eight hours a day, and time cards certified by another official, and certified by the workman, himself, showed that he worked a full week.

WELSHMAN'S WIN IN AUSTRALIA.

SYDNEY, Monday.

George Thompson, the Welsh boxer, who is touring Australia, scored an easy win over Johnny Burke, of New South Wales, here last night. A clean and keen contest, scheduled for 15 rounds, was stopped by the referee in the eighth round, the Welshman being given the verdict on a technical knock-out. Thompson scaled 10st. 4lb. and Burke 10st. 10lb.

McGUIRE BEATS GYDE.

Mickey McGuire, of Newcastle, defeated Praxille Gyde of France, the I.B.U. European fly-weight champion, on points in a twelve rounds contest at 8st 2¼lb at Newcastle-on-Tyne last night.

McGuire, who has twice beaten Jackie Brown, the world's fly-weight champion, fought with confidence throughout. The Frenchman gained most distinction for his boxing at close quarters, but for generalship McGuire was easily the better man. Gyde was inclined to be erratic with his swings and many of the blows did not connect. McGuire scored points with a straight left. His defence was sound, and he was a worthy winner at the end.

THE LOUGH NEAGH FISHERY.

CASES DISMISSED.

There was further mention of the Lough Neagh fishery dispute yesterday, when at the Crumlin (County Antrim) Petty Sessions a trespass prosecution was heard and dismissed.

The case was one in which Andrew King, Inspector of Fisheries, Toomebridge, summoned William McConaghy and Henry McConaghy, Derrymore, for at Derrymore, Lough Neagh, "not being duly licensed by the owner, lessee, or occupier of certain several fishery in Lough Neagh, they did enter into or upon said several fishery for the purpose or under the pretence of killing eels therein and taking eels therefrom."

Alfred King, fishery inspector, said that on the date in question he was on duty at Lough Neagh, and observed the defendants in a boat. He saw them throw something out of the boat. Witness proceeded to the spot, marked it with a buoy, and followed defendants. Subsequently he came back and dragged the place where the buoy was, and brought out an eel line with bag attached, but the bag broke off when they got it to the surface. When witness spoke to defendants they denied throwing anything.

Mr. McCorry said he had two defences, one on the merits and the other on the question of title. Defendants said that they were not fishing for eels, that they threw nothing over the side of the boat, and that the net produced did not belong to them. He further submitted that identification had not been established. On the question of title to the eel fishery, there had been no title shown to the resident magistrate that the Toome Eel Fishery Company possessed the said fishery with a good and valid title at law. The case involved the livelihood of 800 fishermen with their dependents, totalling 3,000. This was merely an attempt to prevent them fishing in Lough Neagh.

Mr. Bell, R.M., addressing Dr. Maginess, said—"You have not proved that the Toome Eel Fishery Company are the owners, lessee, or occupier of this several fishery in Lough Neagh, and, therefore, the case must be dismissed without prejudice."

The result was received with loud applause in the Court, which was crowded with fishermen. The outburst brought a strong rebuke from the R.M.

On the application of Dr. Maginess the Court marked the case, "dismissed on the merits."

WHEN THE STAIRCASE DISAPPEARED.

FIREMEN TO THE RESCUE OF MAROONED TENANTS.

Six persons had to be rescued with slings when a stairway gave way and they were marooned in the upper storey dwellings of a residential tenement building at Windsor terrace, Glasgow, yesterday.

Three painters who had been white-washing the stairway had just removed the scaffolding and were standing together on the third storey when the stairway fell with a thunderous crash. A young woman who was alone in a second-storey house with a maid rushed to the door of her house, but on looking out she saw that the landing had disappeared.

A maid employed in a neighbouring dwelling was sweeping the stairs when the stairs began to crumble. She had just sufficient time to rush back to safety before the entire structure of the stairway fell into the well.

The plight of the people in the affected dwellings was observed by passers-by, who were attracted by shouts from the windows, and within a very short time the Fire Brigade were on the scene, and the marooned victims were able to descend to safety by means of slings. One of the young maids was too frightened to use the sling, and it was only with great difficulty that she was ultimately persuaded to leave a second storey flat.

No one was injured by the mishap.

THE WEST BROMWICH MURDER.

NO ARREST YET.

Up till last night no arrest had been made in connection with the mysterious murder of Mr. Charles William Fox (aged 24), a metal strip cutter, of Moor street, West Bromwich, Birmingham, who was stabbed to death at his home in the early hours of Sunday.

Throughout the day detectives were engaged in trying to trace the murderer's movements after he escaped through a window. Footprints were found on an adjoining railway, on a garden leading to the home, in the kitchen and on the sofa, while there were finger-prints all over the place.

West Bromwich Police yesterday issued a statement that they were desirous of interviewing Stanley Eric Hobday, aged 21, height five feet five inches, brown eyes, very dark brown hair, sallow complexion, slim build, a native of West Bromwich.

His hair is brushed back with oil. He speaks very quietly and has a reserved disposition. When last seen he was dressed in a blue serge jacket and trousers and no waistcoat, soft collar and striped shirt. He may be wearing a round trilby hat with fawn band, turned down in front.

The police also ask that any person who has recently sold a knife answering the one used to commit the crime should communicate with the nearest police station. The knife is described as eight and three-quarter inches long, with blade four and seven-eighth inches long, with the words "J. Clarke, Sheffield," on one side, and "Made in Sheffield" on the other. The handle has narrow white rings, with red rings at each end and a nickel plate at the extreme end.

BANNS OPPOSED IN SCOTTISH CHURCH.

PROTESTING WOMAN DISAPPEARS.

There was considerable speculation in Kinross yesterday as to the identity of a woman who in a local church on Sunday opposed the banns of a marriage.

The minister before beginning the Service read two proclamations.

No sooner had he concluded the formal reading of the notices than a woman who occupied a rear pew jumped to her feet and, thumping the book-board with her hand, exclaimed in a loud voice, "I forbid," adding some remark about "judgment."

The woman then resumed her seat, and the minister proceeded with the Service.

At the close the beadle of the church approached the woman, and later he was joined by one of the elders, who requested her to complete a formal protest if she so desired.

The minister and the session clerk remained in the vestry, but the woman declined, and is believed to have left the town without making any further comment.

Inquiries made by the members of the congregation failed to trace her identity. She is believed to have come from a country district a few miles from Kinross.

DEATH FROM OVER-RIPE FRUIT.

Eating an excessive number of over-ripe plums, which caused gastritis, and led to an attack of apoplexy, resulted in the death of Mrs. Grace Mary Harris, aged 48, of West Derby, Liverpool.

Mrs. Harris, along with other friends, went to camp near Abergele on Friday, and then appeared in good health. On Saturday she visited Llandudno, where she purchased and ate the fruit. On her return to camp she was taken ill, and became unconscious.

A doctor was called in, but Mrs. Harris died without regaining consciousness on Sunday. It has been decided that an inquest will not be necessary.

Mr. Venn Waugh won first prize for a duchesse set and second prize for a supper cloth which he had crocheted, at the Mildura Show, states Reuter from Melbourne, Victoria. He took up crochet work fifteen months ago, after his niece had challenged him to do it as well as she did.

AN EXTENSIVE FIRE.

PETROL TANKS EMPTIED.

PARAFFIN POURED INTO DRAINS.

SIX fire brigades fought for five hours last night one of the biggest fires known in Evesham, Worcestershire, for many years. The blaze, which broke out about 5 p.m., involved six business premises, two garages and a photographer's studio in High street and Avon street.

All were badly damaged, and for two hours five dwelling houses were enveloped in dense volumes of smoke.

The outbreak started at the rear of the Army and Navy Stores, in High street, and within a few minutes a block of business premises and dwelling houses was in imminent danger of being reduced to a mass of twisted iron and steel.

Petrol was syphoned from four 500-gallon tanks in the Army and Navy Stores, and from the tanks at the garage belonging to Mr. A. H. Westmacott, which is adjacent. Paraffin storage containers were emptied, and paraffin was poured away down the drain.

Five oil drums burst in the Army and Navy Stores, and the explosions dislodged a quantity of bricks, one of which fell on a fireman, rendering him unconscious. There were other minor injuries to people who were assisting at the time of the outbreak.

SIX BRIGADES AT WORK.

The Evesham fire brigade was at Dumbleton, the home of Sir Bolton Eyres-Monsell (First Lord of the Admiralty), where there was a rick fire on an estate farm, and only a manual pump was available for fifteen minutes. The Evesham Rural District Council, Redditch, the City of Worcester, Stratford-upon-Avon brigades, and the Squire of Evesham's private brigade were summoned, and the Evesham town brigade was recalled and police were summoned from a radius of twenty miles.

All six brigades arrived within half an hour and were soon fighting the biggest fire known in the borough since 1906, when tan yards were destroyed. Meanwhile the occupants of adjacent houses obtained the services of every available lorry in the district, and furniture and household utensils were quickly removed to safety.

When the fire spread to the confectionery shops of Mr. A. Reynolds and Mr. A. Winward, and Godfrey's china bazaar, flames shot 40 feet into the air. The roofs were shattered, walls fell under the intense heat, and what furniture remained was eaten up in the flames. Flying glass and tiles were hurled into the crowd below.

Water became scarce, and the fire engines ultimately collected on the River Avon, a quarter of a mile away, from which they drew a plentiful supply.

Gradually the flames were driven to the rear of the premises, but from here they spread to Avon street, where the Central Fruit Market became involved.

Three business houses in this street were severely damaged, and some damage was done to the extensive market buildings before the fire could be got under control.

The occupants of four shops were compelled to sleep at the homes of friends, and the police kept watch on the furniture and shop stock which had been removed to the opposite side of the street by some of the 2,000 people who watched the fire.

Searchlights had to be used to enable the brigades to keep a watch on the smouldering goods at the rear of the shop premises.

100 FIRE FIGHTERS.

The fire brigade reported at ten o'clock that the fire was under control.

"Only the walls are standing in the buildings of the Army and Navy Stores and the next door bazaar, which were most badly burned."

"The petrol dump has been covered with sand and rubbish, and firemen are playing their hoses on the smouldering debris around."

"The flames spread on both sides of the Army and Navy Stores and partly damaged a private house belonging to Mrs. Watkins. All her furniture and bedding was moved out.

"It is still burning at the back of the Army and Navy Stores," stated a member of the brigade at 10 o'clock. "Paint and oil stocks have made a big blaze.

"More than 100 men have been fighting the fire. Some of them will be here all night."

An eye-witness vividly described the scene at 10.30: "Garage floodlights are being turned on firemen in places where the flames have died down, in other parts tongues of fire are still shooting out.

"It was an appalling sight when the flames were at their worst. Firemen were pumping water furiously from the river a quarter of a mile away, the flames were climbing high above the buildings and men were frantically working in their shirt sleeves to save hats, sewing machines, sweets, furniture and bedding. The flames were seen for miles around."

RIVER POLICEMAN'S SUICIDE.

A verdict of suicide while of unsound mind was returned at an inquest at Orpington, Kent, yesterday, on Police-Constable William Killick, of the London River Police, whose body was found in a wood near Farnborough on Thursday last.

Police-Constable Mealyer said that during the last two months Killick had suffered from sleeplessness and had complained of terrible pains in the head. Last Monday he reported sick because of nervous debility. The next day he left without saying where he was going.

Dr. John Douse, of Farnborough, said that death was due to disinfectant poisoning. The man had been dead a day or two when found.

SIXTY YEARS A CLERGYMAN.

HAS NO NOTION OF RETIRING.

The Rev. Stewart Smyth, vicar of St. Mark's, Silvertown, London, is 90 years old, and has no intention of retiring for years yet.

He was ordained sixty years ago by Bishop Jackson in St. Paul's Cathedral. He served curacies in Islington and Clerkenwell parishes, and in 1887 the Corporation of the City of London appointed him to the living at Silvertown, and he has remained there ever since.

He is believed to be the veteran incumbent in the Diocese of Chelmsford.

Mr. Smyth was born in Derry, and his father was a farmer there. He was the youngest of a family of twelve, eight of whom became octogenarians, and three of his brothers were doctors.

Although the vicar is the directing head of the Parish of St. Mark's, his son, the Rev. J. H. Smyth, who has been his curate for many years, carries on most of the spiritual work nowadays. Miss Eva Smyth is her father's secretary, and he never goes out unless accompanied by her. They were both guests at the Royal garden party a month ago. Mr. Smyth was one of the pioneers of children's outings in East London. He began these in Clerkenwell, and has personally conducted a huge excursion every year for forty-six years from Silvertown to Southend or the Epping Forest.

His wife died twenty-five years ago.

AN EXPENDITURE OF £60,000.

CARRICK-ON-SHANNON, Monday.

The Leitrim County Board of Health had under consideration to-day the provision of water and sewerage schemes for many of the principal towns in the county, and these works, with others to be provided for smaller towns and villages, are estimated to cost £60,000.

Mr. B. B. Connolly, a North Leitrim member of the Board, said that he considered that each area should pay for its own scheme, but the Department of Local Government considered otherwise. Manorhamilton wanted an improvement of their present sewerage system, and the Department had written to the Board of Health that any proposal to restrict the area of charge could not be sanctioned in view of the statutory provisions in the Public Health Act, 1878, governing the raising of loans for such works. Ballinamore was looking for a new water and sewerage system, Mohill was making the same application, as was also Drumshambo and Drumkeeran.

Mr. Mooney stated that at Drumshambo the water supplies from local wells had run dry, and at the moment they were without a water system. The county was poor, he agreed, but was it fair to argue that they should leave over the schemes when they could get from 30 to 50 per cent. of the cost of the schemes by way of a grant from the Government. On a £60,000 basis scheme to embrace all the schemes in the county it would mean £30,000 of a grant on a fifty per cent. basis, and the other half could be raised by a rate by way of county-at-large charge. It would come very light on the rates when spread over an extended number of years. The schemes for which they had plans before them at the moment were:—Drumshambo £10,000, Manorhamilton £6,500, Ballinamore £14,000, Drumkeeran £2,500, and Mohill £8,000, making in all £41,000.

Mr. Stephen Flynn, T.D., said that the Department would not sanction a scheme which did not embrace the whole of the county.

LARGE GRANT ASKED.

Mr. A. Mooney proposed and Mr. Flynn, T.D., seconded a resolution, which was carried, pointing out to the Department that they had plans for water and sewerage schemes in the towns of Mohill, Ballinamore, Drumshambo, Carrick-on-Shannon, Manorhamilton, and Drumkeeran involving an expenditure of £41,000, and finding it necessary to carry out other similar schemes in the smaller towns involving an expenditure of about £20,000 more and making an estimate of £60,000 approximately, they asked the Department to give them the largest possible grant to enable them to carry out these schemes on a county-at-large basis before incurring any further expense in preparing plans.

MOTOR WEEK IN THE NORTH.

MANY HOUSE PARTIES.

FROM A CORRESPONDENT.

Motor week in Northern Ireland is one of the busiest, and, socially, most important weeks in the year, and in its honour hostesses throughout the North are arranging house parties.

Among their guests at Government House the Governor and the Duchess of Abercorn have Sir W. Morris. At Clandeboye, Lord and Lady Dufferin have with them Lady Veronica Hornby, Lord and Lady Stanley of Alderley, the Hon. Brinsley and Mrs. Plunket, Mr. and the Hon. Mrs. Noel Guinness, Mr. K. Guinness, Mr. Hornby, Mr. Michael Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Davison, Mr. Shaw Kennedy, and Mr. Warner. Brenda Marchioness of Dufferin and Ava will join the party later on.

At Ballywalter Park, Lord and Lady Dunleath are entertaining a large party. Their guests include Lady Farnham and her brother, the Hon. Berna Maxwell, the Earl of Caledon, the Hon. Somerset and Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Robert, who is a cousin of Lord Dunleath; Major and Mrs. Handford, the Hon. Mrs. H. Mulholland, Captain Lawrence and Mr. Massy Beresford.

Lord and Lady Bangor have a party at Castle Ward, who include Major and Mrs. Stockley, Mrs. Fullerton, Mr. Peter Weatherby, Mr. Anthony Fullerton, Miss Hamilton, and Miss Arkwright.

The Right Hon. J. Milne Barbour, D.L., M.P., has staying in his house party a visitor from New Zealand, Mr. George Mathers. Other members of the party are Miss Ashton, Mr. J. M. Barbour, jun., who has just returned from Canada; Mr. John Paul, from Glasgow, and Miss Elizabeth and Miss Rebecca Barbour.

CHINESE SEAMAN SENT TO PRISON.

FIGHT ABOARD SHIP.

A fight between Chinese seamen in a British steamer at sea, off South Russia, had a sequel at Dover Police Court yesterday, when Tchang Nin Tchi (35), a fireman, of the steamer Oiltrader, pleaded guilty to wounding Kung Fook, with intent to do grievous bodily harm, by stabbing him with a knife. There was a similar charge against him in respect of Chang Yu.

The original charge of attempting to murder Kung Fook had been reduced to the present charge.

Mr. G. Ball, on behalf of the Director of Public Prosecutions, stated that on July 25 Captain Barlow, the master of the Oiltrader, was awakened by a commotion in the fo'casle, and saw Kung Fook, a greaser on the ship, rushing towards him covered with blood. A few seconds later Chang Yu, a fireman, came from the fo'casle with blood streaming from him, and screaming with pain.

In the fo'casle he found the prisoner with a knife. This was taken from him, and he was placed in irons. The wounded men were attended to, and subsequently conveyed to hospital at Uapse.

Tchang Nin Tchi then made a statement, which he signed. In it he was alleged to have said that he had some trouble with Kung Fook. He wanted to finish it off, and intended to kill him.

Captain Andrew McGregor Barlow, of South Shields, gave corroborative evidence.

Mr. William Scorer, who defended, said that evidently there was a terrific fight in the fo'castle. Tchang Nin Tchi had previously asked the men to be quiet so that he could sleep. He said Kung Fook had often hit him with an iron bar a foot long. He attacked Kung Fook because opium had got the better of him.

The Bench sent Tchang to prison for six months, with hard labour, on the charge in respect to Kung Fook, and three months on the charge in regard to Chang Yu, the sentences to run consecutively.

STUDENT STRAPPED TO BED.

BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN EXPERIMENTING.

A mother's tragic discovery of her son's body fastened to the bed rail, with three straps, was described at the Paddington Coroner's Court, yesterday, at the inquest on John Davidson, aged 18, a law student, living with his father and mother in a flat in Queen's road, Bayswater.

The victim of the tragedy was the only son of Mr. Thain Davidson, a solicitor, and a grandson of the Rev. John Thain Davidson, who was a preacher of national fame during the latter part of the last century.

Sir Bernard Spilsbury said that the cause of death was asphyxia by hanging. He had known other cases in which people had hanged themselves up in an experimental way.

Sir Bernard said that it would have been possible for the boy to tie himself up while lying on the bed. If he then fell, purposely or accidentally, so that he dropped face downwards towards the floor, he might have lost consciousness at once.

The Coroner recorded a verdict that the youth died from asphyxia by hanging, at a time when he was tying himself up experimenting with straps. He would say that his death was due to misadventure.

TRACING THE CRIMINAL.

CARD INDEXES AND MOTOR CARS.

CAPTAIN SILLITOE, Chief Constable of Glasgow, arrived at Glasgow on Sunday last from America, where he has been investigating police methods.

"Everywhere I went," he told the Glasgow Herald, "I was forcibly struck with the great difficulty of the job that the police of the American cities have to perform; in their cosmopolitan populations they have to deal with so much of the scum of the world.

"As regards their organisation for the detection of crime, I was very much impressed with their recording system relating to the modus operandi of all known criminals. They have developed also the use of wireless for police work to a very high degree of efficiency. I feel that if this recording system and their development of wireless were to be adopted in Glasgow it would add very much, indeed, to the efficiency of the police service of the city and to the discomfiture of the criminal."

Captain Sillitoe described briefly the operation of a central recording bureau of the kind which came under his observation at Sacramento. There they had a card index of an extensive filing documentation of the habits and methods of criminals, going into the minutest details of the little tell-tale ways of the individual and the type. When reference had to be made to this elaborate record the cards were mechanically assorted to bring out the classifications which the detective workers wished to consult.

The reference work was simplified by this machinery to a remarkable extent, and the officer could often, by means of it, quickly "get a line" on the probable perpetrator of the crime from the knowledge of the manner and circumstances in which it was committed.

Admitting that the conditions differed so widely in Great Britain from those encountered in America that the detection problems of the British police were not, perhaps, of the same scale and difficulty, Captain Sillitoe indicated that he has in mind adaptations of the American practice in this regard that would make the system applicable in Glasgow and other parts of Scotland, with promise of very effective aid in crime elucidation and the tracing of the criminal.

USE OF WIRELESS.

Speaking of the employment of wireless, the Chief Constable stated that the apparatus in use on the American police cars was compact beyond anything of the kind which, so far as he knew, had been evolved by the industry of this country. The receiving sets on their cars were only about eight inches square, and the loud-speakers, fixed on the dash-boards, were no more than the size of an ordinary bread plate. "I have brought specimens of these with me," he added.

The automobile was now put to a great variety of uses in the police service of America. In one place virtually no foot work was done by the policeman. The policing of the city was all done by motor car and wireless.

The fleet of cars in commission was so ample that a guarantee was given that response would be made to any call or signal within a space of three minutes. The arrangement was that cars were stationed in every district, ready to proceed immediately to any point in their area of service. By means of this system there had been a great increase in the capture of criminals caught red-handed.

Asked if he had made any inquiries about "racketeering," the Chief Constable said that he had gathered that the activities of these gangs were dying down since the sale of beer had been permitted, and the expectation had grown that Prohibition would be gone by the end of this year.

He mentioned that in Chicago he had accompanied police officers on a visit to an Italian restaurant for the purpose of seeing a man who had just recovered from serious injuries received in an attack by another. The police went to ask this man if he was prepared to give evidence against his assailant. The man definitely and emphatically refused to do so. He said that if he gave evidence he would most certainly be shot next time, either by the arraigned man on his release or by some of his confederates. The police had to accept the situation.

Kidnapping, he learned, was still rife all over the country. The feeling was certainly strong in America that there was so much political jobbery in the country that a man could not look for justice, and public citizens would fain see British practice followed in the judicature and in such matters as police appointments. The policeman in America was to be regarded as a hero. He did his work honestly against great difficulties and in frequent danger. Undoubtedly many persons carried firearms, and, with the variation in the law between the different States in this regard, any partial prohibition or control was hopeless.

FASCISTS IN A SCUFFLE.

TITHE CLAIMS DISPUTE.

There was a lively incident at Gesthingthorpe, Essex, yesterday, when the bailiff, ousted by Fascists from Delvyns Farm barn, attempted to regain possession.

He jumped the barrier and claimed possession. The Fascists closed on him, and there was a scuffle, during which the bailiff was lifted over the barrier into the stackyard.

The bailiff has been ordered not to make any further attempts to enter until he receives assistance. Police were ordered to patrol in the vicinity last night.

At one time yesterday it was thought that a settlement was being arrived at regarding the tithe claims for about £50, for which a distraint was being levied on implements in the barn at Delvyns farm.

At a meeting at Sudbury of the Essex and Suffolk Tithe-payers' Association last Thursday, at the offices of the solicitor, Mr. J. C. Steed, it was decided that a tender for £25 should be submitted on behalf of the Association by Mr. A. Goddard, of Ramsey, near Harwich.

Yesterday the Registrar of the County Court intimated to Mr. Steed that the tender he submitted had been accepted. Mr. Steed thereupon asked if that meant that the tender was accepted in full settlement of the full claims and costs.

Mr. Steed said to a reporter last night that the Registrar's reply was that he did not think it was in settlement of the claim, and simply the acceptance of the tender of £25, which was to cover the distraint.

The Registrar was then asked to make certain on the point, as otherwise the Association's tender would not be proceeded with, and nothing would be paid.

Speculation is rife among tithe payers as to the outcome of to-day's meeting at Saffron Walden, called by the Commissioners of Queen Anne's Bounty. Mr. R. A. Butler, the member for the Division, is to preside.

Mr. Middleton, one of the officials of Queen Anne's Bounty, will state the case officially.

CHARGE OF STABBING.

At Balbriggan District Court yesterday, before District Justice Reddin, Michael Hickey, Bohernabreena, Co. Dublin, was charged with having wounded Miss Margaret Maher with a knife and with having attempted to cause her grievous bodily harm.

Guard Igoe swore that Miss Maher came to him on August 20th and complained that she had been brutally assaulted by a man with a knife. He went to Hickey's house and found him. Hickey had a knife, with one blade broken, in his pocket. Miss Maher had stated that the blade of the knife was broken in the struggle. There were blood stains on Hickey's coat. Miss Maher later picked Hickey out of an identification parade as the man who had assaulted her.

Superintendent Sheridan, Dundrum, asked for a remand to Dundrum District Court, and Hickey was remanded in custody.

Colonel Henry Brock, who for forty years was an outstanding figure in the commercial and military life of Toronto, died yesterday at the age of seventy-four. During the Great War Colonel Brock was Director of National Services.

GARDEN, FARM, BEES, ETC.

THE WINTER ACONITE.

Writing on this subject in the Weekly Irish Times the Garden Correspondent says:—

Eranthis hyemalis cannot be recommended for cultivated ground in the garden, in view of the trouble we once saw to eradicate it when it had run riot through the vegetable quarters; but, given a bare patch under trees where "nothing will grow," the Winter Aconite will show what it can do in converting an eyesore into a thing of beauty. Such a situation we dealt with was where repeated grass sowings under overhanging beeches were perennial failure; the Winter Aconite made one of the prettiest spring features, as did a liberal planting of cheap mixed Spring Crocus, both being planted before August was out. That was long ago, but as we saw them a score of years after they had more than held their own in the churlish rooting medium, beaten so hard by the rain-dripping trees that planting was done with an iron bar.

POULTRY, FISH, CAGE BIRDS, DAIRY.

WINTER GREEN FOOD.

Writing on this subject in the Weekly Irish Times the Poultry Correspondent says:—

Although fowls on free range have a certain supply of green stuff during the winter, with grass and some herbs, yet part of the time there is a scarcity, and most of the grass is not much use; therefore, the birds should have some additional green food, such as cabbage and other vegetables. Gardens should be stocked with such things as spinach-beet, perpetual kale, dandelion and other strong growing plants. Perpetual kale is now considered one of the most useful green food plants for poultry. They like it, and it is always on hands when required, as it yields several cuttings in the year. It is easily grown and requires very little space. It is grown from cuttings, which may be put in now, and it will make a good start before winter. Of course, where cabbage is grown it is also useful, especially the larger sorts.

GREATEST NAZI MEETING.

CONVENTION AT NUREMBERG.

HITLER TO REVIEW "BROWNSHIRTS."

Hundreds of thousands of Nazis, all wearing their brown shirt uniforms, all with arms raised to salute their leader. . . . This (states Reuter from Berlin) is the scene which will greet spectators at Nuremberg on Sunday, when Nazis are expected to give the greatest demonstration of the physical power of the movement yet witnessed.

In their masses they will pass in review before Hitler. This event is to mark the last day of the first convention of the Nazi Party since Hitler assumed power.

Hitler himself, the bachelor Chancellor, will address a large gathering of women in the Luitpold Hall on the second day of the convention. He will tell them all about the duties of womanhood, now that they have been barred from political and, to a large extent, from professional life.

A THOUSAND TRAINS.

A thousand special trains will bring the Chancellor's forces, as well as strong detachments of the Steelhelmet Organisation, to this mediæval city. Every known method of making an impression on the masses has been pressed into service for this convention. There will be military parades, illuminated streets, gaily-decorated houses and shops, a gigantic display of fireworks, lectures on Nazi endeavours and achievements, and three speeches by Hitler.

Church bells in every spire in Nuremberg will ring out at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, as a signal that the Nazi National Convention has begun.

Half an hour later Hitler and all the other prominent people in the movement will make a formal entry into the city's Town Hall, where they will be received by Herr Liebell, the Lord Mayor.

Captain Goering, the Prussian Premier; Dr. Goebbels, the Propaganda Minister; Dr. Frick, Minister of the Interior; Captain Roehm, Chief of Staff of the Brown Shirt forces; Herr Rudolf Hess, Hitler's closest friend, Adjutant and Private Secretary—all these will be there.

All through the evening brass bands of the Brown Army and the Labour Front will play on every square of the city.

Plans for the re-organisation of Germany in guilds or professions, and the internal party organisation, will be discussed on Thursday. No votes will be taken, but the Government's decisions will be announced. Numerous sectional sessions—the Press, publishers, farmers, teachers, lawyer, doctor, manual and office workers—will also take place on Thursday.

On Friday, Herr Hess will open the conference of the party's accredited representatives. Only a limited number of journalists will be admitted. At this sitting there will also be addresses on Nazi foreign policy, race questions, and social questions, as well as on German "kultur."

Hitler's party officers will parade on Saturday. On that day, too, there will be a demonstration of the Hitler youth organisations, a popular fair in the Zeppelin field, and a gigantic fireworks display, and a military tattoo of all the brown and black-shirted brass bands.

CHINESE EASTERN RAILWAY.

NO AGREEMENT ON PRICE.

Although they opened two months ago, the negotiations proceeding in Tokio for the sale of the Chinese Eastern Railway to the Manchukuo Government by the Soviet Union are still held up by failure to reach an agreement on the amount of the purchase price.

According to the latest telegraphic news (states Reuter from Moscow) the Manchurian delegation still adheres to its suggested figure of 50,000,000 yen (£5,000,000 at par), contending that this corresponds to the sum of 200,000,000 gold roubles asked by the Soviet representatives, on the basis of an exchange rate of 25 sen to one gold rouble. The Soviet negotiators have expressed a willingness to discuss the question of the rate of exchange, but are entirely dissatisfied with the foregoing Manchurian suggestion. Something very much like an impasse, therefore, appears to have been reached.

The Chinese Eastern Railway runs across Northern Manchuria, and being the virtual continuation of the trans-Siberian Railway, is of great importance. It is virtually owned and has been partly controlled by the Soviet Union, and since the Japanese occupation of the whole of Manchuria and the setting up of the Manchukuo régime there, this fact led to serious complications.

Moscow finally offered to sell its rights in the railway to Manchukuo for 250,000,000 gold roubles (£25,000,000 at par) and during the present negotiations has reduced this figure to 200,000,000 gold roubles (£20,000,000). It moreover offered to receive half the amount in goods. Manchukuo, however, offered only 50,000,000 yen, and has apparently in two months' parleys made no advance beyond this figure.

MUSSOLINI AND HIS DENTIST.

"I FEAR NO PAIN."

Even in the dentist's chair, where many a "man of iron" has flinched, Mussolini never winces, states Reuter's Chicago Correspondent. No agony can wring a complaint from him.

This is revealed by Dr. Arrigo Piperno, the Italian dictator's dentist for the past eight years, who is now attending the Chicago Centennial Dentist Congress. He says that Mussolini fears neither the whine of the drill nor its descent into the tender recesses of the tooth. Dr. Piperno declares that, assured by his patient that he has no fear of pain, he has bored down pretty hard at times, but he has never heard Mussolini give a murmur.

"Mussolini has a fine set of teeth—strong and healthy," he states. "He makes a point of keeping himself in training in every respect, and I attend him every month or two. I call with my bag of instruments given me by Queen Marguerita, the late Queen Mother, and am ready for him at eight o'clock in the morning, just after he has had his half an hour at fencing or riding. He is a good patient. I say very little to him, for I do not wish to disturb his thoughts."

"In fact," the doctor reflected, "it is a very serious half-hour that I spend with His Excellency. His teeth are fine, and never has he had one pulled. I used to ask if I was hurting him. He always replied, 'I fear no pain.' He often brings with him something to read while I am attending him," Dr. Piperno said. "He cannot endure a moment of idleness."

WOMAN KILLED BY A THISTLE.

A farmer's wife at Cheminon, near Chalons-sur-Marne, has been killed by a thistle, states Reuter's Paris Correspondent. She was working in the fields when she pricked her hand. She paid no attention to such an insignificant wound, but it soon became inflamed. Tetanus developed and resulted in death.

GEYSERS TO BE HARNESSED.

NEW SOURCE OF LIGHT AND POWER.

British coal imports to Italy may be further restricted, states Reuter from Leghorn, as the direct result of a jet of steam and gas which has burst from the arid ground at Castelnuovo, near Leghorn. It is claimed that the jet, when harnessed with two others which appeared in 1931 and 1932, will generate electric power to the extent of 320,000,000 watts an hour.

If this is so, the jets of the desolate Tuscan Maremma, will yield power equal to one-third of the total required for present consumption for electric light, and half that now used for the State railways.

Count Ciano, the Minister of Communications, who is a native of Leghorn, has undertaken to see whether he can adapt the new geyser for the electric traction of the direct line from Rome to Florence, and later for other lines which will be electrified as soon as possible. The proximity of the Maremma to the great main line between the French frontier, Rome and the south will make the scheme a cheap one.

The new jet is more than 400 feet high, and pours out a perpetual column of steam and pours out a perpetual column of steam makes such a noise that people living several miles away complain that they cannot sleep. Gangs of workmen are busy getting the geyser under control, but peace will not be restored for many weeks.

THE TOMB OF MOSES.

FINDS ON MOUNT NEBO.

A stone stated by the early Christians to have been the tomb of Moses has been found by the Franciscan Archæological Expedition working on Mount Nebo. The Bible narrative states that Moses was buried on Mount Nebo after he had led the Children of Israel within sight of the Promised Land.

Now, according to Reuter's Jerusalem Correspondent, remnants of a church dating from the fifth century A.D. have been found on the mountain. The eastern end of the church is said to go back to the fourth century. This church, according to the archæologists, was visited by St. Sylvia of Aquitaine, an early Christian pilgrim, who gives a description of it.

The stone pointed out to St. Sylvia as the tomb of Moses has been found in front of the pulpit. Two chapels have been discovered on the southern side, as well as a whole floor covered with mosaics. Other mosaics have been discovered in the existing monastic buildings.
